Meet Slated By Baptists

The Klamath Baptist Association will hold its monthly meeting at the Stewart - Lenox Baptist Church on Monday February 9, at 7:30 p.m. The emphasis this month is on Brotherhood and the Woman's Missionary Union. The meeting will begin with a song and prayer after which announcements will be made by the moderator, Dr. E. M. Causey. After the announcements, men and women will separate for programs of the evening. The men will meet in the church annex. Featured speaker will be the Rev. B. L. Millard, district missionary. C. R. Larson is president of the Associational Brotherhood and is in charge of the program. After a short business meeting, the Woman's Missionary Union will have the following program with Mrs. Louise Baracksman, vice president of the Association, in charge: devotion by Mrs. Lola Stubblefield, solo, Mrs. Vivian McKeenan; preview on the program for the week of Prayer for Home Missions, Mrs. Zan Edwards; a soul-winning demonstration (a skit) by two ladies from the First Baptist Church. There will also be special music by the Young Woman's Auxiliary from the First Baptist Church for YWA Focus Week.

Premier Lauds Western Press

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave the Western press rare credit in his closing speech to the 21st Communist party congress. The official Communist party paper, Pravda, today quoted him thus: "I have to say that the press of many capitalist countries covered the work of our sessions rather objectively. This is a positive phenomenon."

Missionary Will Speak On Sunday

Wesley Van Nattan, a missionary with the Africa Inland Mission, will be the guest of the missions' committee of the Mt. Laki Community Presbyterian Church, Sunday, February 8. He will speak to the Sunday School and bring the message at the morning worship service. He is currently on furlough from Tanganyika, Africa, where he worked with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manning, who have visited the Mt. Laki Church many times. A family night program will be held Sunday evening, beginning with a potluck dinner at 5:30, followed by the showing of Van Nattan's colored slides depicting his work among the people of Africa. He will be glad to discuss his work and answer questions regarding Christian missions in Africa. The members of the missions' committee are Mrs. Richard Fleming, Mrs. Leonard Burkart, Mrs. Dayton Fincham and Miss Pat O'Donahue. The potluck dinner will be in charge of the Young Mothers' Club, Mrs. Howard Jackson, chairman.
