Sandra Sheehy Is Bride In January Church Rites

The wedding of Sandra Claire Sheehy and David Arthur Moran was solemnized January 17 at the Congregational Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sheehy and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lenora Moran and A. C. Moran.

It was at 8 o'clock that the Rev. Marshall McKinnis officiated at the ceremony. Roberta Dougherty sang before the wedding party entered. She was accompanied by Margie Wellman at the organ. Pink and white was the color scheme for the wedding with baskets of carnations tied with pink satin bows flanking the altar.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of white net. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline edged with a ruffle of net and long sleeves. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. A band of net held in place her fingertip veil loaned to her by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wally Postel of San Francisco. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Mrs. Steve Oakley was matron of honor and she wore a ballerina length frock of green lace and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Deborah Scoules, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scoules, was flower girl.

Francis Roberts was best man and Carl Sheehy, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sheehy wore a beige jersey dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. Mrs. Moran chose a dress of pink lace which she wore with a matching hat and corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed in the social room of the church. Pouring coffee was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Charles Coons of Prineville. Mrs. Eddie Richardson, aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake and Judy Wheeler and Adele Gehring presided at the punch bowl. Assisting were Mrs. G. B. Leach, Mrs. G. D. McConnell, Mrs. W. H. Patterson and Genevieve Schwiebert. The guest book was passed by Ed Richardson.

The bride is a senior at KUHS and her husband, a Henley High School graduate, spent four years in the Air Corps and is now employed at Basin Motors.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Coons, Prineville, and Mrs. Wally Postel and daughter Marilyn, of San Francisco.

Guests Enjoy Buffet Supper

Mrs. Wilfred Lamm was hostess at one of the most delightful affairs of the new year on Saturday evening, January 31. Approximately 200 guests enjoyed cocktails and an elaborate buffet supper in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

Kathy Halaas played dinner music at the organ while guests ate at small tables centered with modern Christmas dolls made by Mrs. A. V. McVay and Mrs. George Proctor.

Assisting Mrs. Lamm were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Favell, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stoner, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Cecil Adams, Nora Sullivan, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Marshall Corbett and Mrs. Avis McConnell.

Women's Club To Hear Review

Members of the Klamath Falls Women's Library Club are looking forward to an interesting afternoon on Monday, February 9, when the group will meet at 2 o'clock in the library rooms.

Mrs. Victor O'Neill will review the book, "Hidden Persuaders" by Vance Packard.

Vocal numbers will be presented by Mrs. Norman McKeehan with Mrs. George McIntyre as pianist.

The Valentine decor will be used for the table from which tea will be served following the program.

Farewell Party Honors Couple

MERRILL—Over 80 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knox feted the popular young couple on Saturday evening, January 24, with a "farewell" party at the Merrill Recreation Hall. The Knox family will move from Merrill to Lakeview in February at which time he will assume the post of operations officer at the Lakeview branch of the First National Bank of Oregon.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Knox have been active in community organizations since they established their home in Merrill six years ago. They are the parents of two small daughters, Jeannie Rae and Gail Anne.

Knox has been associated with the Merrill bank over 11 years. Replacing him is Dick Perdue from Lakeview.

Following the serving of a potluck dinner, Don Harris, president of the Merrill Volunteer Fire Department, announced that Knox's badge No. 13 was to be permanently retired as a token of many years faithful service.

Presented to the couple was a card containing signatures of all the guests accompanied by a gift of a wall clock for their new home.

STUDENT HONORED

Dwain C. Epps, a junior in the school of engineering from Klamath Falls has been elected to membership in Arnold Air Society, the Air Force ROTC honor society at Oregon State College.

Pinocle

NEW PINE CREEK—The Ladies Pinocle Club met with three tables of cards in play Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Shirlene Lawson. High score was won by Mrs. Elsie Cundiff and consolation by Mrs. Ethel Cundiff. Mrs. Maude Butler was awarded the traveling prize.

Travelers Return From The South

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kerns and children, Tommy, Marcia and Benjie, have returned from a trip that took them as far south as Encinada, Mexico.

For three weeks the family traveled in their Micro-bus, stopping here and there to see something of interest. In Laguna, California, they visited several days with Ben's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns Sr. who always spend their winters in that delightful southern artist's village.

The travelers then journeyed to Encinada where they camped on the beach. While there the thrill of a lifetime came to Tommy, 8, who caught a 30 pound Yellowtail while deep sea fishing with his father on a Mexican fishing boat.

The trip was made complete with visits to the San Diego Zoo and Disneyland, and a tour of San Francisco Chinatown. In the bay city they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chase. Mrs. Chase will be remembered as the former Paula Ganong.

Nancy Clark Visits Mansion

Nancy Clark, who is studying this year in Paris, France, was a recent guest in the former mansion of Madame Pompadour. The present tenants are Gen. L. W. Johnson and his daughter, Sally.

The two girls met at an Air Force tea at which time the conversation turned to art. Soon Nancy was invited to visit at the Johnson home to try painting in oils, an art in which Sally is fairly proficient.

In a letter to her parents Nancy related the experience with full details of the magnificent home and the luxurious suite occupied by the general's daughter. The day ended fittingly when Nancy was driven to her home by the family chauffeur in a Mercedes Benz.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark.

BID OR BYE CLUB

McCLOUD—A dessert luncheon and bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, when the Bid or Bye Club met at the home of Mrs. Joe Placek recently. There were eight members present. Winning first prize in cards was Mrs. James Hartley; taking second, Mrs. Irene Correa and Mrs. Lou Williams, third.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

MERRILL — A party honoring the fourth birthday of Debbie Shuck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Shuck, was held at her home on Thursday afternoon, January 29. The small guests attending were Tony and Paula Suty, Donnie and Paula Harris, Willa Walker and Debbie's brother, Vic, Jr.
