

MR. AND MRS. JOE ZAMORA cut the first slice of cake at the reception which followed their wedding in St. Mary's Church of Aspen, Colorado.

Aspen, Colorado, Church Scene Of Wedding Rites

Betty Barbara Baggett became the bride of Joe B. Zamora, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zamora of Carbondale, Colorado, in St. Mary's Catholic Church at Aspen, Colorado. Father Bosch performed the ceremony at three o'clock on December 24.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Baggett of Klamath Falls was given in marriage by her father. Her ballerina length gown was of white nylon lace. Bands of white satin ribbon accented the waistline and outlined the round neck and short sleeves. A waist-length veil of net, edged with ribbon was held in place by a band of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Lupe Zamora, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina length full skirted frock of blue taffeta with matching headband and a corsage of white carnations.

Chris Yvonne Hemann was flower girl and Phillip B. Hemann carried the rings. Both are cousins of the bride from Aspen.

Ray Doyal of Carbondale was best man. Ushers were Adam Zamora, brother of the bridegroom, and John Farnum, both of Carbondale.

The wedding music was provided by St. Mary's Church choir.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Baggett selected a princess style dress of blue velveteen which she wore with a blue feather hat and a corsage of baby red roses. Mrs. Zamora was dressed in a blue knit suit, and matching feather hat. Her corsage was of red roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors where 30 guests were served cake by Mrs. Clara Vedic, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Elsie Hemann, grandmother of the bride, presided at the coffee service, and Mrs. Goldie Sloss, great-aunt of the bride, poured punch.

For traveling the bride changed to a black skirt with black and white checked overblouse. The corsage from the wedding bouquet was pinned at the shoulder of her full length black coat.

The new Mrs. Zamora, a 1955 graduate of KUHS, attended the University of Oregon for two years. Her husband is a graduate of Carbondale High School. He is employed by North Thompson Creek Mining Company in Carbondale where they are making their home.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baggett, uncle and aunt of the bride from Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Goldie Sloss of Denver.

BEAUTY MASKS

Husbands joke about wives wearing hideous masks to bed. Actually, a woman can apply a thin film of cream, and get better results than if she slaps on layers of gooey stuff. This way she doesn't frighten anyone or mess up her pillowcase.

BEDJACKETS

Some women have found another use for the bedjacket in addition to wearing it while they read in bed. They've discovered that it's handy for keeping the shoulders warm when they wear a sleeveless gown on a cold winter's night.
