

MR. AND MRS. J. E. ATWELL were married 63 years ago and the anniversary date was observed this year on January 22 at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Hmel, 2333 White Avenue. Mrs. Lola Stafford of Weed assisted with the reception when friends called between the hours of 1 and 6 p.m.

The couple's three sons are Nolan A., Oda L., both of Clovis, New Mexico, and Arley L. of Novato, California. They have 10 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. James Edwards of this city is a nephew. The Atwells have made their home in Klamath Falls since last April when they moved from Arkansas. — Photo by Kettler

MRS. DONALD LONG was Loretta Dougherty before her marriage to Donald Long in Reno on December 26. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dougherty and the granddaughter of Mrs. Lula Haley. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Long are parents of the bridegroom. The young people are making their home in Oak Harbor, Washington, where he is stationed with the Marines at Whidbey Island.

Mrs. Long was guest of honor January 16 when Pat Campbell, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Dale Choate and Mrs. Merle Dowdy entertained at a bridal shower in the parlors of the Church of Christ. Symbolic wedding bells were used in decorations and two ornately decorated cakes made by Pat Campbell and Mrs. Orie Peugh were served to the nearly 40 guests.

IONA COUNCIL 167

McCLOUD — A potluck dinner preceded the meeting of Iona Council 167, Degree of Pocahontas, January 15 in the McCloud lodge hall.

Norma Cattuzzo, deputy, installed the following slate of officers: Dorothy Clingsmith, prophetess; Barbara Caswell, Pocahontas; Lorraine Correa, Winona; Juanita Knutson, powhatan; June Nelson, keeper of wampum; Albert Nash, keeper of records; Thelma Welch, collector of wampum; Lloydine Zalunardo, first scout; Joanne Goodhead, second scout; Mid Briegel, first councilor; Ruth Sisk, second councilor; Frankie Caswell, first aid; Wilma Cool, second aid; Katherine Bennett, first warrior; Yvonne Hitchcock, second warrior; Helen Jordan, third warrior; Leatrice Bambino, fourth warrior; Daisy Dow-ens, guard of the forest; Ann Wiesman, guard of the teepee; Grace Daniels, first runner, and Bonnie Kennedy, second runner.

Standing committees appointed by the Pocahontas are: Mid Briegel and Billie Cool, trustees; Albert Nash, June Nelson and Thelma Welch, delinquent; JoAnne Goodhead, Lorraine Correa and Lloydine Zalunardo, finance; Dorothy Clingsmith, purchasing; Norma Cattuzzo, publicity; Lorraine Correa, recreation; Lloydine Zalunardo and Lorraine Correa, scrapbook; Barbara Caswell, flowers; Dorothy Clingsmith, hospitality, and Helen Jordan, child welfare.

Special committees are Leatrice Bambino, Barbara Caswell, Dorothy Clingsmith and Yvonne Hitchcock, membership; Leona Flores, hostess.

Lemos-Savage Nuptials Read In Yreka Church

YREKA—Rich autumn shades of gold and bronze pompons arranged in large baskets, with an altar arrangement of white chrysanthemums, provided the setting in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka for the marriage of Mary Lea Savage to David E. Lemos with Father R. J. Connelly officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Savage of Seiad Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lemos of Montague, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Maurice Dittner of Yreka, as soloist, sang "Ave Maria," and "Because," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Mary Tusow, also of Yreka.

Escorted by her father, the bride was lovely in a white velvet gown. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped bateau neckline, and three quarter length sleeves with pointed cuffs trimmed with pearl buttons. The full waist-length skirt was tied with a large bow at the back of the waist, with streamers designed to form a train which fell just below the hemline. Her silver embroidered veil was secured with a pearl tiara, and she carried a white orchid nestled in an arrangement of stephanotis, centered on an heirloom fan, which had been carried by her grandmother at the latter's wedding.

Mary Lea's jewelry consisted of pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, which matched an heirloom heart-shaped necklace decorated with pearls, which had been a gift of her grandfather to her grandmother, 55 years ago.

Serving as matron of honor, Mrs. Bill Haas was gowned in yellow taffeta with a matching hat. The ballerina length trapeze-styled gown featured a scalloped boat neckline and three quarter length sleeves.

Mrs. Norman Nichols of Montague, and Mrs. Arnold Crechion of Yreka, were bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaids were Edna Lemos, a sister of the bride, and Linda Ashcraft of Montague. All wore gowns and hats, identically fashioned to those of the matron of honor, in pastel shades of green, pink, lavender and blue, respectively.

Colonial bouquets were carried by all attendants, and the pearl necklaces and matching earrings worn by them were gifts of the bride.

Linda Lemos, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lemos, was flower girl dressed in a trapeze fashioned frock of pastel green taffeta, which she wore with a matching heart-shaped hat. She carried a dainty wicker basket decorated in ribbons of yellow and white and yellow rosebuds.

Acting as ring bearer was Kim Dittner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dittner. Serving the bridegroom as best man, was his brother George A. Lemos of Montague, and guests were seated by Bruno Salvestro of Hilt and Lee Roy Deas of Yreka.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Savage donned a two-piece suit of electric blue tweed with rhinestone trim, complemented with winter white accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lemos, wore a black velvet dress with a brocade taffeta skirt, and black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Lemos greeted about 100 guests in the Melody Room of the Yreka Inn, where the reception was held following the wedding ceremony.

Centering the bride's table was the six-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing in a bower of yellow and white flowers. The cake was baked by Mrs. L. E. Lull of Medford, a cousin of the bride. The table was covered with a homespun linen cloth, made by the bride's great-great-grandmother. Other table appointments, which included a cut-glass punch bowl, all had belonged to the bride's great grandmother. Completing the table decorations was a "memory candle" decorated with yellow roses and bronze chrysanthemums, made by Mrs. Mildred Gray, another cousin of the bride.

Following the initial slice, cut by the newlyweds, the cake was cut and served by Edwina Arnold.

HELEN'S Beauty Salon

New Location
4717 So. Sixth
Phone TU 4-4202
Anytime

We love to assist brides. Come see the darling new Spring and Summer bridal gowns and bridesmaid dresses that have just arrived!

LaPointe's

while Rozelle Grazier served the punch, and Mrs. Robert Schantz the coffee. Mrs. Coy Casson of Yreka, and Mrs. Gordon Ashcraft of Montague, assisted with the gifts and gift book, while guests were registered by Mrs. Lawrence Siddam.

For the honeymoon trip, the new Mrs. Lemos chose a two-piece green suit, complemented with winter white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from Yreka High School in 1937, and was an employee of the Siskiyou County Road Department, after which she worked a short time in Sacramento.

The bridegroom, who graduated with the class of 1953, Yreka High School, served in Germany for 18 months with the Army. He is now employed at Fishers' Feed Store in Yreka where the young couple is residing.

Joint Ceremony Seats Officers

McCLOUD—An impressive ceremony was held in McCloud, when McCloud Lodge 432, IOOF and Shasta Lily Rebekah Lodge 345 held joint installation at their January meeting. Officers were installed by district deputy grand master, James Lockart and district deputy president, Mildred Lockart of Oriole Rebekah and the IOOF of Dunsmuir. They were assisted by a ladies' drill team dressed in identical dresses of aqua lace and net, who also put on a floor drill after the ceremony. Their marshals were Amanda Cook and Al Brown.

Officers installed were Leston Downes and Laurene Bishop, past noble grands; Leston Downes and Ruth Sisk, noble grands; Leonard Powell and Addie Mason, vice grands; James Herbert and Julia Olovson, secretaries; Tony DeSoza and Edith Glover, treasurers; George De Clusin and Gertrude Gist, wardens; Clifford Montgomery and Dorothy Powell, conductors; Raymond Botti and Glenna Welch, inside guardians; Robert Waters and Fern Woodall, outside guardians; Otis Stoner and Elsie Mae Peterson, chaplains; Eugene Stone and Mary Montgomery, right, and Jefferson Woodall and Thelma Welch, left supporters of noble grand; Eugene Kellogg and Zella DeSoza, right, W. L. Henderson and Margaret Stoner, left supporters of vice grand, Helen Hegre, musician, and Violet Zanni, color bearer.

During the installation of the chaplain the ladies drill team formed a cross, with each holding an electric candle. Mrs. Mildred Lockhart repeated The Lord's Prayer.

The new noble grands welcomed the visitors and Ruth Sisk appointed a finance committee consisting of Margaret Stoner, Hilda Stone and Ruby Schumacher. Also appointed was Addie Mason, chairman of good fellowship.

Laurene Bishop was escorted to the noble grands station where she was presented with a past noble grand jewel from the lodge and carnations from Ruth Sisk. They were presented by her daughter Patty. Mrs. Julia Olovson presented her with a white Bible from her officers of 1958.

Ruth Sisk was presented with roses from her mother, Mrs. Mabel Barn of Eureka, her sister, Thelma Welch and niece, Glenna Welch. The three generations are all Rebekahs.

Albert Lofthous of Medford, Oregon, was presented with a 25 year jewel from McCloud lodge. Leston Downes and Henry Heldstab received past grands pins.

MORE AND MORE . . .

THE HAMMOND ORGAN

Plays an Important Part in School Activities

Are the children in your school receiving the education and enjoyment available with a Hammond Organ?

The Hammond Organ is becoming so popular that every day another one is sold to a school or college . . . to become an integral part of the school's daily activities.

For recitals, concerts, and assembly programs . . . in the gym for a basketball game or a dance . . . in the lunchroom for a class banquet . . . With the school orchestra. The Hammond Organ is used everywhere!

SPECIAL NOTE TO PARENTS & PATRONS ORGANIZATIONS:

Come in soon and find out how other schools have raised money to purchase their Hammond Organs. Receive a free copy of "Hammond Times" special education issue that explains the full use of the Hammond Organ in your school!

LOUIS R. MANN PIANO CO.

120 North 7th

Phone TU 4-7182

SOJOURNERS

Klamath Falls Sojourners met January 28 at the Willard Hotel in the Pine Grove Room for the regular buffet luncheon and afternoon of cards.

Hostesses were Mrs. Marjorie Ott, Mrs. C. E. Atwater and Mrs. Nancy Hamilton.

Welcomed into the club as new members were Mrs. Albert C. Siega and Mrs. Stuart Wilson. Newcomers to Klamath Falls and present for their first meeting were Mrs. C. H. Kirby and Mrs. Everitt Vaudel. Thelma Haig and Florence Schonebaum were guests for the afternoon.

High bridge prize was won by Mrs. Lee Holliday and low by Mrs. Jerry Smith. High canasta score was received by Mrs. Tom Fillmore and high in pinocle was Mrs. Emily Mallow.

AFTERNOON TEA

PAISLEY—An afternoon tea honored the birthdays of Mrs. Rosie Tucker and Mrs. Emma Reed at the home of Mrs. Laura Conley in Paisley Thursday afternoon January 29. Mrs. Thelma Richardson was co-hostess. The guest list, composed of women who had passed their seventieth birthday, included Mrs. Mary Campbell, Mrs. Eda Hanan, Mrs. Eileen Withers, Mrs. Janie Bryan, Mrs. Nettie Cannon, Mrs. Lola McKune, all of Paisley, and Mrs. Elsie Currier of Summer Lake. The tea was an activity of the Sunshine Club which sponsors birthday parties for older women in Paisley.

PRICE NO SURE GUIDE

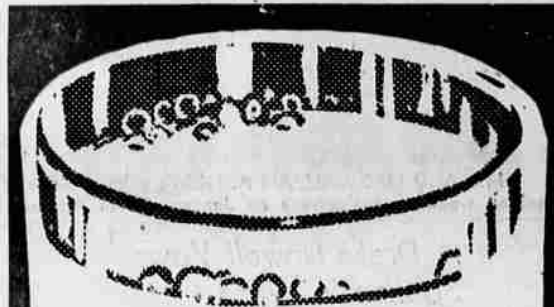

A price tag is not always indicative of quality. So don't rely on it as a sure guide when you shop for fashion. It's best to develop your own judgment.

Crater Lake

SLIM

THE PERFECT DIETARY MILK

A PRODUCT --- NOT A BY-PRODUCT!

Yes . . . SLIM is a PRODUCT, not a BY-product! Crater Lake SLIM is made from the best Grade "A" milk. First, the butterfat is removed; then 2000 units of vitamin A and 400 units of vitamin D are added. Finally, the original volume is restored by adding more high-protein milk solids. SLIM is perfect for most all objective and restrictive diets. And . . . many folks like SLIM simply because it is light, refreshing and fat-free.

FROM YOUR CRATER LAKE DEALER OR ROUTE MAN

PHONE 4-5101

KLAMATH FALLS CREAMERY
Distributors of
CRATER LAKE DAIRY PRODUCTS