MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM A. HOWE celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on January 20 in Alturas.

Drake-Dowell Vows Spoken In Yreka Church

YREKA—Vicki Dowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Traber Dowell of Yreka, exchanged nuptial vows with Daniel Arthur Drake Jr. at the Yreka Methodist Church on Sunday, January 18. The double-ring ceremony was read at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Harold C. Coleman before the candlelit altar, decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and stock.

The benedict is the son of Mrs. Inez Kile of Yreka and Daniel Arthur Drake Sr.

Prior to the ceremony, Warren Benke, soloist, sang, "Because," and "Always," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. James B. McAdams of Montague, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a wool suit of winter white, complemented with brown accessories and white hat. Her bride's bouquet of white roses and stephanotis was tied with white satin streamers. For tradition she carried a something old and borrowed the handkerchief that her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Ensele, carried at her graduation in 1909, and she wore a blue garter, and a new penny in her slipper.

Attendant to the bride was Louise Hitchcock of Yreka, who wore a brown suit, with white hat and white accessories, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Best man duties were performed by Maynard Venna of Standish, California.

The 60 guests assembled at the family home at 710 Knapp Street for the reception and were registered by Jane Turre, who was in charge of the guest book.

Baskets of chrysanthemums and stocks decorated the reception room, the focal point being the beautifully decorated three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bride couple. Following the first slice cut by the newlyweds, the cake was served by Mrs. Joyce Madden and Mrs. Charles Hossick of Yreka.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dowell donned a frock of beige lace over satin, with a beige hat. Mrs. Kile, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy suit, with complementary accessories. Both mothers had pink corsages, as did the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ensele, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Mae Capron of Yreka.

BAD MISHAP
NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Patrolman P. P. Bonneville saw a moving automobile strike a parked automobile and keep moving. He had no trouble following it—the accident jammed the horn of the hit-and-run driver.

Malin Rainbow Seats Officers

MALIN—At the 30th public installation of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Malin Assembly, held January 11 in the Malin Masonic Hall, Phyllis Unruh was installed as worthy adviser. The welcome address was given by Vac Kalina and installing officers for the ceremony were Nancy O'Riley, worthy adviser; Claudia Zeiders, chaplain; Mary Jayne Fisk, recorder; Mrs. Don Unruh, marshal; Shirley Bunnell, musician; and Mrs. Louis Kalina, mother adviser.

Performing the crowning ceremony was John Freitag, master of the Malin Masonic Lodge, and officers of the Malin Assembly. An addenda honoring both Phyllis and Nancy was given by all members of the Malin Assembly and Phyllis was presented with a bouquet of red and white carnations. Nancy was presented with a past worthy adviser's pin. The theme chosen by the new adviser for her term of office is "Love."

Other officers installed were Glynn Weatherby, worthy associate adviser; Judy Cunningham, charity; Marcia Kenyon, hope; Donna Lee Micka, faith; Gwen Kirkpatrick, recorder; Susan Whitman, treasurer; Pam Kirkpatrick, chaplain; Wanda Sarutski, drill leader; Linda Ingram, love; Andrea Oliver, religion; Cathy Kenyon, nature; Lorelei Riesen, immortality; Maralee Lyon, fidelity; Dawn Hale, patriotism; Lois Owens, service; Linda Reber, confidential observer; Judy Huffman, outer observer; Shirley Bunnell, musician; Norma Franklin and Peggy Long, choir.

Shirley Bunnell played two piano solos and Marcia Kenyon and Mary Jayne Fisk played a piano duet. The Seven Rays sang "Far Away Places" and "Scarlet Ribbon" which they dedicated to Nancy and then each one presented her with a red rose.

The following board members were introduced and installed: Mrs. Elmont Kenyon, Mrs. Richard Halousek, Mrs. Bob Victorin, Mrs. Joe Halousek, Charles Hale, Mrs. Richard Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Deputy Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Zeiders, and Mrs. Kalina.

The installation ceremonies were closed by the reading of a selected scripture by Nancy and benediction by the Rev. Ethen M. Whitman.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by the board members, and a party held for the Rainbow members and guests.

BETHEL NO. 51

Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, met in regular session January 12 at the Henley Grange Hall with Honored Queen Becky Short presiding.

Introduced were past honored queen, Carolyn Hunt; guardian, Gretchen Thompson; and associate guardian, Robert Dehlinger.

The daughters will have the hat check concession at the Shrine crab feed February 28, as one of their fund raising projects for this term.

The annual Dad and Daughter dinner date has been set as March 14. Chantelle Horsley is chairman of the Secret Father Club, which is limited to the members of the Lost River Masonic Club.

The meeting was concluded with a very clever report on "Resolved: To Study" given by Sara Williams, librarian.
