

MR. AND MRS. STEPHAN J. KAY exchanged their wedding vows on January 1 in Reno. The bride, the former Donna Lee Thoreson and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thoreson Sr. of Dunsmuir, wore a pink sheath with a corsage of white roses for the single ring ceremony. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kay, recently completed a tour of duty with the Navy. Both young people are graduates of Dunsmuir High School. They will reside in Dunsmuir. — Photo by Thelma Thoreson, Dunsmuir

A THREE TIERED CAKE was cut by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burnett January 11 at a reception honoring their 50 years of marriage. They were married January 10, 1909, in Martinsburg, West Virginia, and came to Klamath County in 1914. They operated a ranch on the Miller Island Road until 1943 when they moved to their present home on Murphy Road in Grants Pass. Meeting for the first time in 16 years were the Burnett's eight children who were present to honor their parents. They are: W. J., George L., and Amos R. Burnett, of Klamath Falls; Mary Heavilin, Lakeview; Catherine Stewart, Tacna, Arizona; Jean Kane, Ashland; Pauline Stuart and John Burnett of Grants Pass. There are 23 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

BETA SIGMA PHI

BETA PHI CHAPTER
Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met January 20 at the home of Ena Rodgers with 15 members answering roll call. During the business meeting the girls were asked to think of a slogan for the coming tea and style show, pertaining to the Oregon Centennial theme. Ima Grow asked for volunteers to help with the style show. A potluck for members and their husbands was discussed with plans being made to have it at the Yacht Club January 31. Each member may bring a couple. Della Schroeder and Jean Bingham presented their views on the civil defense all day program which they attended and were very enthused with the knowledge they gained at this meeting. It is hoped that it may be possible to have a meeting with civil defense officials which all members and their husbands may attend in the near future. The program for the evening was "Literature," prepared by Pat Lukes. Each member was asked to name a piece of literature that had broadened her understanding and why. General discussion questions were answered and Barbara Kimes and Jean Bingham each gave a book review.

Barbara's was "Only In America," and Jean's was "A Family Affair." This interesting program achieved its purpose of having each member wanting to do more reading. Refreshments were served by co-hostess Pauline Ballantyne. The regular meeting of Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was called to order at 8 p.m. February 3, by president Della Schroeder at the home of Connie Pierce. Present were sponsor-director Florence Lungreen, 18 members and guest Aura Mitchell. During the business meeting an amendment to the by-laws was read concerning absences from meetings. Betty McAlpine was selected to model at the forthcoming tea and style show. A recommendation was made to perform the "Ritual of Affirmation," for one year members, at the same meeting the new officers for next year are installed. The nominating committee elected were Lillian Hayden, Grace Pfeiffer and Barbara Kimes. Program for the evening was "Art," by Grace Pfeiffer with members joining in on general discussion questions. Cohostess for the evening was Ena Rodgers.

MRS. SAM SHAVER JR. was Carol Hergert before her marriage in Elko, Nevada, on December 15. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy P. Hergert of Fort Rock and is a student of Bend High School. Her husband was graduated from the same school and is now employed as a government hunter in Bend where they are residing following a honeymoon spent in Nevada and Idaho.

Dunsmuir Pair Exchanges Vows

DUNSMUIR—In a wedding solemnized recently at St. Pius Church in Redwood City, Sharon Darlene Emerson became the bride of Willis Monroe Wheelchel. The service was read by Father Stronck. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis G. Emerson of Dunsmuir, wore a light blue tweed suit with a pink collar and a white orchid pinned at her shoulder. She was given in marriage by her father.

Dolores Jean Emerson was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a blue wool sheath and an orchid corsage. Joseph Graf served as best man. Mrs. Emerson, mother of the bride, selected a dark blue tweed suit and an orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's parents, Col. and Mrs. Willis W. Wheelchel of Auburn, Alabama, were unable to attend the wedding.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception at the San Carlos Garden Club following the ceremony. A two tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. John Concannon.

Following a honeymoon to Lake Tahoe and southern California the young couple are making their home in Redwood City where the bridegroom is employed as an instrumentation engineer. The bride attended local schools and was a student at San Francisco State College this fall where she was prominent in musical circles.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT STANLEY WRIGHT were married January 6 in the Federated Presbyterian Church of Reno, Nevada. The Rev. Felix Manley read the service in the presence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Smith. Mrs. Wright, the former Susan Janet Smith, will continue her studies at KUHS while her husband is in basic training with the Air Force at Lackland, Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Wright Sr. — Photo by Miller-Williams
