The Klamath Union Pelicans bounded into first place in the Southern Oregon Conference standings as they cooled off the heretofore red hot Grants Pass Cavemen 60-39 on Pelican court Saturday night after bombing the Ashland Grizzlies 71-26 at Ashland Friday night.

Medford, the number two team on the ladder was idle Saturday night after bowing 68-57 to the Cavemen on Friday. The Ashland Grizzlies cracked the win column by winning a 55-53 overtime decision over the Crater Comets Saturday.

For coach Dean White's KU quintet the victory proved the power of the Pelican defense. The Pels held the vaunted Caver scorers to only two points for five minutes of the first quarter play. The first quarter count was 14-6 for Klamath. At the halfway post the Whitebirds had moved Portland State kept its Oregon Collegiate Conference lead by sweeping a pair of weekend victories from the out-gunned Oregon Tech Owls. The Vikings won 73-64 here Friday night and bounced back to hand the Techmen a 77-47 blasting on Saturday.

Sparked by 6-6 center Stan Weber, the Portland quintet moved into an early lead and rolled on to sweep the card in Saturday's night game at Lincoln High School. Weber scored 14 points, 12 coming in the first half as Portland State led 39-27 at the halfway mark.

Oregon Tech made its first 14 points of the game on free throws when the contest was 12 minutes 50 seconds old as Norm Oviola tipped in a missed free throw to make the score 31-16.

Portland State's Don Bridges scored 16 points for his good.

Friday night's loss to the Vikings marked a decided improvement in the Owls style of basketball, but the Portland Staters still had too much and the Techmen too little. The game pivoted on the mile high center Oviola for the first half's play progressed, but Portland State gradually chopped the Tech lead down. Johnny Fredrick pumped in a long one hander with a little more than six minutes to go as the Vikings closed the gap to one point, 32-21 with Tech in front.

Portland State's OTI forward Troy Kootz hit from the field and a Rammseyer followed it up with another fielder, but PSC offset the two buckets as Don Bridges and Johnny Winters each scored two-pointers to keep the Tech lead to one point, 26-25.

Portland State tied the score at 26-26 on a single free throw by Fredricks with 4:21 tied in the half. The score was tied at 28-28, 30-30, and 32-32 before the Vikings were able to break away for good.

With 1:45 left before intermission, Winters hit from under the boards as Portland State held a 34-32 lead, one it never lost. Stan Weber hit one of two free throws as PSC led 35-32 to tie the Vikings cushion.

At halftime, Portland State held a three-point, 37-34 lead.

In the second half the Techmen stayed within a few points of the Vikings as the lead ranged from two to 11 points. In the closing minutes, when Portland State was "freezing" the ball, OTI picked up a scattering of points to trim the margin to the final nine points.

Each team had four players in the double figures when the final scoring was figured. Winters and teammate Bernie Jones paced the scoring with 16 points apiece. Bridges finished with 13 and Fredricks had 12. High for the Owls was Norm Oviola with 15 followed by Kootz, Rammseyer and McKee, each with 12.

Portland State hit 29 of 78 tries from the field for a 37.2 percentage while the Owls were clipping along at 34.4, 22 for 64.

PELICAN DEXTERITY—Klamath Union guard Dave DeLap gets away a wicked shot from behind the boards in the Pels Friday night conquest of the Grizzlies at Ashland. The Whitebirds notched their 7 league win against two defeats by stopping the Ashlanders 71-26. Grizzly Gerald Allen (22) goes up to try and block DeLap's shot. Clark Smith (40) and Dean Dunson at far right await developments.

The Loggers, who had come from behind in the fourth stanza cinch the non-league contest, were paced by Louie Tallero and Melton Bomeville, who fired in 15 and 13 points respectively. The losers were led by Alan Hess with 12 and Dick Smith with 10.

SALEM (AP)—Linfield snapped Willamette University's 11-game winning streak Saturday night and won a Northwest Conference basketball game 84-78.

The victory advanced Linfield within a half game of leading Willamette in conference standings.

Jack Riley poured in 32 points for Linfield as his team led after breaking a 7-7 tie early in the game.

The rest of the game was close and Willamette was only two points behind, 48-46, at the half. Eddie Grossenbacher was high for Willamette with 16 points.

K State Trips Colorado 70-59

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Kansas State's Wildcats, third-ranked nationally, stretched their Big Eight Conference basketball lead to two full games, defeating Colorado 70-59 Saturday night.

The victory gave the Wildcats a 7-0 record against Colorado's 5-2. Bob Bozer, K-State's 6-8 scoring ace, poured in 18 points and the Wildcats' other towering front line men, Wally Frank and Ced Price, collected 18 and 16 points, respectively.

For the first 10 minutes, the lead see-sawed. Kansas State took over at 13-12 and, although the Buffaloes tied it at 13-13, Colorado never took over the lead again.

The Buffs stayed in the tightly played contest until the final 90 seconds, however, but their 33.8 percentage of shooting accuracy was too short.

Kansas State led 34-27 at halftime.

EOC Takes Two From Raiders

LA GRANDE (AP)—Eastern Oregon College made it two in a row over Southern Oregon College Saturday night, 74-70, behind the 30-point effort of Larry Howard.

Howard led his team back, after Eastern Oregon trailed by one point, 40-39, at intermission. Dave O'Viola's 17 points were high for the losers.

The two-game sweep gave Eastern Oregon a 4-6 conference record, and Southern Oregon 7-3.

Eastern Oregon—Arvola 11, Neal 15, Baxter 8, Chase 10, Howard 30.

Southern Oregon—Biddington 15, Vannice 4, O'Viola 17, Carrigan 14, McAbee 8, Smith 4, Meunier 8.

Lakeview Collects Dual Win

Coach Howard Hoppers Lakeview Honkers swept a pair of Greater Oregon Conference games from the Burns Highlanders Friday and Saturday nights. After whipping the Highlanders on Friday, Lakeview trounced the home team 60-48 Saturday.

Burns, behind 28-24 at halftime Saturday, turned lose with a full-court press through the second half, but the Honkers, after losing their poise and lead in the final stanza, settled down in the final period to cinch the league victory.

The Highlanders, under the coaching of Bob Hewitt, were 300 from the floor, hitting about half of their field shots while Lakeview hit well from both the field and foul line. The Honkers hit on 400 of their field goals and burned 18 of 27 from the foul line. Came hit on 18 of 32 free tosses.

Frank Eganhoff of Lakeview led the scoring pace for both teams, dropping in 20 counters while Dick Daniel and Tom Hombro hit for 13 and 12 respectively for the Honkers.

Friday night the Lakeview quintet slipped out to their final four point margin with very little time left in a contest that saw the lead change hands at least a dozen times. A one or two point lead was the most either the Honkers or the Highlanders could muster until the closing minutes. The final score was 53-39 for Lakeview.

The victory gave Lakeview a 4-3 league mark while the defeat was Burns' seventh straight loss.

Both clubs hit approximately 350 from the field; Lakeview registered 13 of 21 at the foul line while Burns hit 15-25.

The Highlanders maintained the lead at each of the quarter rests, 10-9 at the close of the first, 28-27 at the half and 42-40 in the third.

Highlander Bob Wilbur collected 16 tallies for high honors while the runner-up slot went to home-mate Jim Peterson with 15. Honkers Frank Eganhoff and Tim Sullivan potted 13 apiece for the third place honors.

Little Leads Phoenix Open

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—San Diego's Gene Littler stretched his lead to three strokes Saturday in the $20,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament as the touring pro moved into the final nine holes of the third round.

Littler, who started an assault on par Friday with a seven-under 63, continued his blazing pace Saturday as he toured the front nine in a two-under 32.

That gave him a 45-hole total of 162—a bulge of 3 over John McMullin, 23-year-old tournament novice from Fair Oaks, Calif.

Littler started the round two strokes in front of McMullin and Joe Campbell, another 23-year-old newcomer from Knoxville, Tenn. Campbell, former collegiate star at Purdue, was one over at the turn and five strokes back of Littler.

Jerry Magee, Toronto, Canada, the first day leader, and Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., also fell further. Magee matched par through the front nine and had a 45-hole total of 168. Furgol was one over par for a 169.

OSC Beats Cougars; See Harman Injured

CORVALLIS (AP)—Oregon State defeated Washington State 72-58 in Saturday night's Pacific Coast Conference basketball game, but the winners lost the services of Lee Harman, the leading scorer of the conference.

Harman, who didn't score a single point, suffered a badly sprained ankle midway through the second half. He was driving down court and collided with several players and fell to the floor.

Before Harman was injured, he played outside and was leader for his teammates. He tried for only one field goal and that missed.

Sophomores provided most of the Oregon State scoring punch. Jim Woodland had 21 for game honors. Steve Flynn had 13 and Karl Anderson 12. All are OSC sophomores.

Jim Ross was high for the losers with 15 and his teammate, Frank Reed, had 12.

Oregon State moved quickly into a 14-4 lead and held a 34-22 advantage at the half. Oregon State was ahead 51-31 when Harman was injured and left the game.

Three players fouled out in the rough contest—Karl Anderson for Oregon State and Dick Axelson and Duane Ranniger for Washington State.

A Dads' Weekend crowd of 7,622 watched the game.

The victory gave Oregon State a conference record of 6-4. Washington State now has a 1-8 record and is at the bottom of conference standings.

Once Oregon State had the victory in the bag, coach Slats Gilly cleared the 12-man squad.

Oregon State fired 81 shots and scored 27 times for a shooting average of .334. The WSC Cougars were held to 29.

Oregon State also had the advantage in rebounds, 70-50.

Washington State moves to Eugene Monday for a game with the Oregon Ducks.

Portland went ahead 45-44 in the second half on Roland Carpenter's rebound. The Pilots had taken the lead, 49-44, before the Bobcats could score again.

The 10ers, after falling behind 20-9 at the end of the first quarter and 36-25 at the half, put on a third period scoring drive, edging up within one point, 52-51 by the end of the stanza. However, the Thunderbirds' well-balanced scoring attack proved to be too much for the Miners.
