By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's probably no logical reason for it, but in the last 18 years West Virginia's basketball teams and New York's Madison Square Garden have gone together like ice cream and catsup.

If that strikes you as less than tasty, so it is for the Mountaineers in their dribble digging in the Garden.

Since sweeping through three upset victories to nail the National Invitation Tournament in 1942, West Virginia has made 28 Garden appearances including tournament and regular season games.

The Garden record is 10-18, including last night's stomach-growing 72-70 loss in overtime to New York University. During the same stretch, West Virginia teams have won 76 per cent of their games on other courts. In black and white, that is 296 victories against 94 losses.

Included in the Garden whammy are four first round losses in the last four years of the NCAA post-season tournament, last year to so-so Manhattan when West Virginia was rated the nation's No. 1 team and the tournament favorite.

OWL LITTLE MEN — Dennis McKee, freshman guard on Coach Wally Palmberg's Oregon Tech basketball team, proved himself a threat from the outside in the Owls' 82-68 loss to the Southern Oregon Red Raiders Wednesday night. McKee and Norm Oliva will spearhead the Owls' attack against Eastern Oregon in an OCC series beginning at 8 o'clock tonight, on the Mile High maplewood.

Deacons, Tar Heels In Melee

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—"It breaks my heart to see something like that happen," a melancholy Wake Forest Coach Bones McKinley said Thursday night after a tense North Carolina-Deacon basketball game erupted into a free-swinging melee. The Tar Heels won 75-66.

Coach Frank McGuire of the second-ranked Tar Heels would only say, "It's a dangerous thing."

Until the final 30 seconds, it was a hard-fought contest between two old Atlantic Coast Conference rivals.

Leading 33-32 at the half, North Carolina pulled away as Harvey Salz, York Larese and Lee Shaffer built the margin to 75-64 in the final seconds.

Shaffer and Deacon Charlie Forte scuffled for a loose ball, Deacon Dave Budd joining in. Both benches emptied and a flurry of fists followed.

Wake fans joined the scrap, slapping at Tar Heel players. Larese and Dick Kepley bore the brunt as they tried to reach the Carolina bench.

Police restored order and officials ejected Shaffer and Budd. Athletic directors of both schools and the coaches conferred with officials and complete new lineups came in.

Wake's Jerry Steele added the final field goal after play resumed.

"I got a good whack in the head," McKinley said later. "It's a shame it had to happen. It wasn't a particularly rough game."

Owls Host Mounties Pels Meet Medford

The Oregon Tech Owls step onto their home floor tonight in quest of their third victory of the Oregon Collegiate Conference season. They meet the Eastern Oregon Mounties who are resting barely out of the Owls' reach in fourth place on the league ladder. The two squads are scheduled for a repeat performance Saturday night.

Game time for both sessions is 8 o'clock City League teams are scheduled for the prelims both Friday and Saturday, beginning at 6 p.m.

The Techmen, who were dumped by the Southern Oregon College Raiders at Ashland Wednesday night, and the Mountaineers are even up following their first meeting, January at La Grande. The Owls captured the first meeting, 80-62, but the Mountaineers roared back in the second game to swamp the OTI five 84-57.

Coach Wally Palmberg will start Dennis McKee and Jim Ramseyer at guard posts, Paul Layher or Jess McCutcheon at center, Norm Oliva and Troy Kooztz at forward posts.

Starters for the Mounties will be picked from Larry Howard, Pasco Arritola, Tom Neel, Jerry Baxter, Frank Chase and Ron Paulson.

Howard and Neel are ranked second and fourth in Oregon Collegiate point standings; Howard with 160 points and 16.0 per game, while Neel boasts 149 points and 16.5.

Brickner Hits In Husky Win

TULELAKE — Big 64 Bruce Brickner, termed by Tulelake coach Duane Payne as "The most phenomenal high school basketball player I have ever seen," paced the visiting Merrill Huskies to a 95-57 victory here Wednesday night by dumping in 25 points, 30 on field goals. The towering Husky sophomore, hitting approximately 80 per cent of his field shots, canned a perfect five for five from the foul line, giving himself a 14.4 season average on 230 points in 16 games, Larry King topped the Honkers with 16 tallies.

Coach Al Keck's Merrill squad led all the way as they held commanding leads of 28-13, 53-27 and 68-41 at the first three quarter posts.

Merrill out-shot the Honkers from the field, scoring the net at a 450 clip to Tulelake's 240 mark, however, the home team fired in 12 of 17 free losses while the visitors were netting 11 of 21.

NEW YORK (AP)—Friday the ring. Frequent eyebrow cuts made him decide on the operation in 1958. He talked of quitting the ring.

In one corner, Cisco Andrade, on the way back after an elbow operation and a fight in which he broke both hands in 1957.

In the other corner, Frankie Ryff, the thm-skinned boxer who underwent surgery for the removal of scar tissue around the eyes in 1958.

Both lightweights claim they are hale and hearty now, ready for their 10-round match that will be carried on NBC radio and television at 10 p.m. EST.

Andrade has given his hands a thorough test. He stopped Jorge Mascia, Bobby Bell and Lauro Masia before he lost a decision to clever Johnny Gonsalves. His record for 44 starts is 39-1-1.

Although Andrade, 29, is a busy businessman in the Los Angeles area, he still wants to get a crack at the title. He thought he earned it once when he beat Orlando Zulueta in 1955. And again when he whipped Jimmy Carter in 1956. But he never got it, although he has beaten three former champs—Carter, Bud Smith and Salas.

Ryff, 28, a fine-looking standup boxer, appeared headed for the heights until the June night in 1956 when he was knocked out by Larry Boardman in the Garden.

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevrolets of all sizes are turning to on the most challenging jobs in America.
