SNIPPY SUSANS

A sewing workshop was held at Taylors on January 29 from 7 to 9 p.m. All members and the two leaders were present. Also present were two mothers, Mrs. Virgil Koehn and Mrs. Barney Hooper. Jean Fundenberger is making a two-piece suit of woolen material that she received as a special prize last spring for having completed eight years of 4-H clothing projects. Carolyn Koehn worked on her project dress made of a polished cotton with a printed design. Sara Williams' dress is made of shag-bark in a two-piece style. Jeanette Hooper checked her pattern for size before cutting out her dress of printed cotton. Margaret Hooper began her project skirt made of a dark plaid cotton. Linda Taylor worked on a wool skirt which she wants to finish before starting on her project dress.

The next meeting will be after school at the home of Sara Williams on February 12.

MERRILL SHEEP CLUB

The Merrill Sheep Club held its meeting Monday, February 9. Don West, our last year's leader, told us how to use some of the equipment and how we should fix our pens.

The Merrill Sheep Club wants to have a judging contest with us this summer.

Our next meeting will be in March.

HENLEY BEEF CLUB

One of the topics discussed at the Henley Beef meeting was the dance which we are planning. It is to be held March 13 from 7:30 to 10:30. Linda Taylor is to make tickets to sell at the door. Sandy Woodard is making posters to display. Carolyn Brower is writing the letter.

David Woodard, Don Berry, and Wayne McFadden are going to find some information regarding a night swimming party at Malin sometime next summer.

"My Oregon" and "Home on the Range" were the songs sung at the meeting, led by David Woodard, song leader.

In the morning, Dale Williams took the scales around to weigh the calves. The monthly gains are listed as follows: Lila Ritter, 2.1; David Woodard, 2.5; Don Berry, 2.8; Don Breithaupt, 2.0; Phillip Dixon, 1.4; Bob Brower, 1.7; Carolyn Brower, 1.2; Linda Taylor, 2.0; Bill Taylor, 2.3; Dave Friberg, 1.9; Carolyn Dennis, 7; Wayne McFadden, 7; Neil Buchanan, 3.2; 2.0. Sandy Woodard's calf died and her new calf has not yet been weighed.

Phillip Dixon gave an interesting report on heel flies. Next meeting Wayne McFadden will give a report on warts. Also there will be a report on "Robert's Rules of Order" by David Woodard.

Members present at the meeting held at Don Berry's were: Dave Friberg, Bob Brower, Carolyn Brower, Wayne McFadden, Linda Taylor, Bill Taylor, David Woodard, Sandy Woodard, Phillip Dixon, Carolyn Dennis, Don Berry, Neil Buchanan, and Lila Ritter. The next meeting will be held at Wayne McFadden's on March 8 at 1:30.

Model Accuses
Movie Producer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A London model says she was intimidated with movie producer Otto Preminger in hopes of landing a movie picture role.

Miss Pat Williams, 27, testified in a deposition filed in Superior Court Monday by attorneys for Mrs. Preminger that her 36-year-old husband, engaged in a "love" suit, have accused each other of misconduct.

Judge Clinton Rodd continued the case on March 10.
