Perjury Four To Hear Fate

YREKA—Sentences for four defendants who pleaded guilty to perjury growing out of a previous trial at McCloud will be read by Judge James M. Allen of the Siskiyou County superior court on March 23. The defendants, Dudley Maxey, 20; Ernest Grooms, 21; Carlos Uribe, 20; and Robert Trowbridge, 22, all of Weed, appeared before Judge Allen on Monday afternoon after their indictment on February 11 on charges of perjury. They are specifically charged with giving false testimony in the trial of young Trowbridge before Judge Kenneth T. Stone, acting pro tem, at McCloud on January 21. Despite the three witnesses stating they had played cards with Trowbridge on December 20, at the time Trowbridge was accused on a charge of reckless driving, Trowbridge was found guilty in Judge Stone's court and sentenced to 16 days in jail, to be served weekdays. District Attorney Arthur H. Newton Jr. stated that further investigation revealed that Uribe was not present at the Maxey home where the card game was said to have taken place and the other three had not been together continuously. Trowbridge served two weeks in the Weed Jail and then asked to be transferred to the Siskiyou County Jail at Yreka to serve the balance of his sentence on consecutive days. Bail for the three witnesses was reduced from $1,000 to $500 and they are at liberty after posting bail.

CHOIR, Multnomah School of the Bible, Portland

Concert Set By Choir

The choir of the Multnomah School of the Bible of Portland will present a sacred concert February 19 at the Immanuel Baptist Church, starting at 7:30 p.m. Announcement of the plans were made by the Rev. Charles W. Meyers, pastor. Howard Stevenson will direct the choir which will sing traditional church classics, Negro spirituals, gospel hymn arrangements and instrumental arrangements. The director is a graduate of Westmont College and will soon receive his master of arts degree from the University of Washington. He is well known for his ministry with youth and for his versatility on the accordion. Multnomah School of the Bible is an interdenominational institution training young people for the ministry, missionary work, and other forms of Christian service. Dr. Willard M. Aldrich is the president. The young musicians' appearance here is being sponsored jointly by Emmanuel and Bible Baptist churches. The visitors will be entertained by the members of congregations of both churches.

Wilson Guilty Of Rustling; Sentencing Set For Friday

By TOM STIMMEL
The involved rustling trial of Paul Robert Wilson ended Tuesday afternoon on an almost anticlimactic note. Wilson, 35-year-old assistant, Eldon Lyle Shafer, was tried on an identical charge earlier in the month and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary after being convicted. The two trials were similar in many respects. In both cases testimony required seven days in court, and in both cases guilty verdicts were returned in remarkably short time. The Shafer verdict was returned in an hour and 10 minutes. Final arguments between opposing attorneys required all of the closing day of trial for Wilson, a 29-year-old Fort Klamath rancher. Four attorneys shared arguments — District Attorney Arthur A. Beddoe and Deputy District Attorney Otis W. Goakley for the state and Glenn D. Ramirez of Klamath Falls and Joseph O. Stearns of Portland for the defense. Beddoe told the jury that they had a perfect case in their hands and that if they brought no conviction, "cattlemen in Klamath County would have no recourse short of a 30-20 and a rope." This brought a violent objection from Stearns and a remark from the judge to refrain from such references. Goakley said the defense had attempted to twist the case, and asked, "What is the defense trying to show that Vanderkamp stole the cow from Wilson?" Stearns' emotional appeal asked the jury if it wished "to rip this boy from his wife and family and send him to convict stripes." Beddoe asked, "Where should sympathies lie—with the thief or with the victim who had the fruits of his labors stolen?" Members of the jury were Fitzgerald, John D. Thompson of Merrill, Ora F. Blay of Crescent, and W. C. Hooper, H. H. Ogle, Ethel Martin, John R. Miller, Anna A. Burns, Virginia Fiegi, Howard K. Brown, Sharon E. Doege and Marie McDonald, all of Klamath Falls.

Geo. Marshall Grows Weak

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (UPI)—For the first time since he suffered a stroke Jan. 15, General of the Army George C. Marshall has shown some signs of weakening. Col. G. M. Powell, chief of medicine at the Army's Womack General Hospital here, reported Tuesday that Marshall was "moderately weaker" but that "otherwise, there is no significant change" in his condition. The 78-year-old retired soldier-statesman was rushed to the hospital here Jan. 15 after he suffered the mild stroke at his winter home at Pinehurst, N.C. Powell said at that time that there was no evidence of paralysis and that Marshall's chances of recovery "are good unless he suffers another stroke."

Reds To Get Bill For Plane

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States will send Russia a bill of about three million dollars for the Air Force transport plane destroyed in Soviet Armenia last Sept. 2, officials said today. But these officials conceded chances of collecting were virtually nil. Since World War II, damage claims totalling nearly eight million dollars have been filed with Russia for five American planes shot down by Soviet fighters. Russia has paid only $724,947 — half of one claim. The United States took two of the claims to the World Court but Russia refused to submit to the court's jurisdiction. A claim for the transport plane, which this country charges was shot down by Soviet fighters, hasn't been figured yet. The plane, like its relatives communications equipment, originally cost about $400,000. The Department of State officials declined to speculate on damage that would be asked for the 17 airplanes above the plane which has returned six bodies but maintains it has no information on the other 11.

Fireman Fined

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Fellow firemen got to wondering why an 18-year-old member of a suburban volunteer fire company was first on the scene at three false alarms. In court Tuesday William H. Baughman admitted he had turned in the false alarms and explained: "I wanted to show off that I was a fireman." He was fined $500 and placed on two years' probation.

Box Company Closes Deal

ALTURAS—Consummation of a deal between B. M. Smith, owner of the Alturas Moulding and Box Company, and William Wiedler and Associates of Roseburg for the purchase of the plant was announced last week by Smith. The purchase price was not disclosed. Smith, owner and operator of the mill since 1933, said the buyers are experienced lumbermen who have access to many lumber markets and will perhaps open the plant, which has been shut down since September, 1958, about March 1. A single shift operation would mean employment of approximately 20 men, Smith stated. Smith and his wife, the late Lena Smith, came here from Klamath Falls in 1933 and converted the former car shops of the Nevada-California-Oregon Railway into a moulding plant. The plant, destroyed by fire in June, 1940, was rebuilt in 1941. With the death of Mrs. Smith last fall, Smith closed down the operation.

Yreka BPW Hears Pair

YREKA—Lee Morford and Warren Torrey, both of Yreka, were guest speakers at the meeting of the Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club last week. Morford, a member of the Yreka Community Center Committee, outlined the improvement program for the rehabilitation of the old Fourth Street grammar school, which will be used as a community center for various organizations and service clubs. He also asked the BPWC to consider the refurbishing of one room, which would be used by the field representative of the scouts. Torrey, as a member of a citizen's committee, urged the club members to vote "yes" on the school bond election. Mrs. Jeanette Flower, a surgical nurse at the Siskiyou County Hospital, was accepted into the membership of the club. Mrs. Rachael Cordes, president, appointed a nominating committee, Mrs. Evelyn Nolan, Mrs. Pat Bennett and Mrs. Madeline Baumhach, to select new officers for 1959-60. The March 24 meeting of the club will honor the junior girls from Yreka High School, and several speakers, who will talk on vocational subjects, have been arranged for that date, according to Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, vocational and educational chairman. Capt. J. B. Booth of the Yreka office of California Highway Patrol will be guest speaker at the February 24 dinner meeting of the club at the Yreka Inn. Arrangements for the program were made under the joint chairmanship of Mrs. Elsie Trivelpiece, health and safety chairman, and Mrs. Margaret Estrey, national security chairman. The finance chairman, Mrs. Dorothy Killo, reported on the current fund raising project of the club. This fund will be directed toward financing a trip for the county All Star 4-H girl to attend the annual All Star 4-H conference at Berkeley.

Women's Club Meeting Held

YREKA — "Honesty" was the theme for the meeting of the Yreka Toastmistress Club on Thursday evening, February 12, at the home of Mrs. Jeanette Egelman of Yreka, newly installed president of the group. Hostess for the evening was Virginia Wilmarth, who opened the meeting with the inspiration. Topic mistress for the evening was Mrs. Maxine Lacy, and toastmistress was Mrs. Marie Johnson, who discussed the topic of honesty. Mrs. Johnson then briefly outlined a history of Mrs. Esther Sullivan and introduced her as the speaker of the evening. Mrs. Sullivan's talk was on "Are you a good citizen?" Timer was Mrs. Alice Clements, a guest and critic for the evening was Mrs. Shirley Peters. General evaluator for the meeting was Mrs. Jo James. Later, another guest, Al Crebin, a member of the citizens committee, spoke on the forthcoming election for school bonds, citing the urgent need for additional school rooms for the Yreka Elementary School District.

Livestockers Plan Meeting

RED BLUFF—The 20th annual meeting of the Valley Livestock Marketing Association will be held in Red Bluff on Thursday, February 26, according to general manager L. W. Feldmiller. More than 400 members and guests from California, Oregon and Nevada are expected, he said. "This will be the first annual get-together of our organization ever held outside of Stockton," Feldmiller stated. "We feel," he added, "that the significance of our new modern branch, the Red Bluff Auction Yard, justifies the move this year." According to the general manager, the Valley is a cooperative livestock marketing agency doing approximately 20 million dollars in business annually through order buying and livestock transactions at Stockton and Dixon for approximately 10,000 members. It is associated with the California Farm Bureau Federation and the National Producers Association of Chicago as well as numerous other cooperatives throughout the west. The morning session is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. at the new yards located 11 miles north of Red Bluff and the noon luncheon and short afternoon business meeting at the Tehama County Fairgrounds east of Red Bluff on 90E. Speakers, he said include: P. O. Wilson, secretary-manager of the National Livestock Producers Association of Chicago and a National Livestock Marketing authority; Wick Stevens of San Francisco; Pacific Coast American Meat Institute representative and L. A. Rozzoni, president of the organization, will present the association's annual business report.

highways are not short-term investments! The Federal-Aid Highway program provides Oregon with an unprecedented opportunity. No longer are we compelled to base highway decisions on short-term expediency because of lack of funds. The emphasis is now on total cost as measured by the life of the highway. We are now able to build highways today that can carry tomorrow's traffic. Concrete highways last twice as long and cost far less to maintain than expedient, short-term surfaces previously given preference in this state. Highways are a long-term investment. Get your money's worth—with modern concrete! speak out for concrete - the long-lasting pavement! For more information write: cement industry of Oregon 1110 N.W. 25th Avenue - Portland 5, Oregon
