Linda Griffith Weds Bruce Edward Niles

The Sacred Heart Church was gay with light pink and ivory elf the scene of the wedding February 1 of Linda Ann Griffith and Bruce Edward Niles, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Niles. The altar of the church was banked with baskets of ivory carnations, snapdragons, stock and salal leaves. Tall tapers in candelabra were lighted for the double ring ceremony performed by Father Henry Breen at 2 o'clock. Wedding music was played at the organ by Mrs. Heffley.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Isabel Williams and Rex Griffith, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was a sheath of candlelight brocade fashioned with a hard hat of the same shade. A white orchid was pinned at her shoulder. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Schonebaum came from their home in Bemidji, Minnesota, for their grandson's wedding. Mrs. Schonebaum wore a dress of blue crepe with matching hat and a corsage of garnet roses.

White carnations, snapdragons and stock were arranged with salal leaves for decorating the parish hall of the church for the reception following the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake topped with wedding bells. The base of the cake was outlined with pink net, maiden hair fern and paper white narcissus. Mrs. John Van Doren served the cake after the first slice was cut by the newlyweds. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Tekla Henningsen of Portland.

She wore a sheath dress of emerald green velvet with matching bow headband and carried a bouquet of ivory elf and pale pink roses framed in semi-crescent shape by stephanotis leaves. Sally and Susan Williams, sisters of the bride, were junior bridesmaids dressed alike in sheath frocks of light pink brocade with matching bow headbands. They carried small nose-

WEDDING PLANS are being made by Patricia Rose Baker, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Baker of Albany, recently announced her engagement to Robert Glenn Chidester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Chidester of Klamath Falls.

The bride-elect, a 1958 graduate of Albany Union High School, attended Merritt-Davis School of Commerce in Salem and is presently employed as a legal secretary in that city.

Her fiancé graduated from KUHS in 1953 and received a B. A. degree from Willamette University in 1957. In June of this year he will receive his LL.B. from the College of Law, Willamette University. He is a member of Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity.

PROSPERITY LODGE

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge met Monday, February 16, in the home of Olive Hanna. A hand made quilt was given to Myra Rose. Guests enjoyed a potluck luncheon with dessert being served by Olive Hanna, Edith Bardeen and Isabelle Foster. The next meeting will be at the home of Edith Ward on March 16.

Phil Adams, Portland, and Mrs. Isabel Matthews, Mrs. Dick Niles, the bridegroom's sister-in-law of Medford, served the punch. The guest book was passed by Grace Henry. Guests were given small white satin pillows initialed in gold that held pieces of the bridegroom's cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles are at home at 80 High Street since their return from a wedding trip to Las Vegas and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Niles were hosts at dinner, following the rehearsal January 31 in the Empire Room of the Winema Hotel. Guests were members of the wedding party and families of the bride couple.

Carolyn Carter Bride In Church Ceremony

Carolyn Lee Carter became the bride of Dan H. Langdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Langdon of Yoncalla, Oregon, on February 7 in the Zion Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod. Bouquets of mixed flowers were placed on the altar before which the Rev. Henry Cable read the nuptial service at 7:30 in the evening.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Carter of 1836 Lowell Street, was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she selected a white suit and hat worn with brown accessories and a pink and white rosebud corsage. She carried a white Bible.

Mrs. Harold Wirth was matron of honor for her sister and wore a black and white dress with black accessories. Pink carnations were pinned at her shoulder.

Best man, was Harold Wirth, brother-in-law of the bride.

Nora Damon sang "Song of the Hills" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Myrna Leitzke. For her daughter's wedding Mrs.

Larry Yarnell Greet New Son

A husky baby boy, their first child, came as a Valentine to Kay and Larry Yarnell on Saturday, February 14. He tipped the scales at 10 pounds, 1 ounce, and has been named Kenneth Edward.

Mrs. Yarnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angstead, are mighty proud to be grandparents for the first time. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yarnell of Eugene.

Kenneth Edward and his mother will soon leave for their home in Ashland where his father is attending Southern Oregon College.

Campus Notes

Sue Derby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Derby, was the guest of honor at the Alpha Xi Delta, as the University of Oregon campus where she is a junior student. She will travel in the near future with the concert band for performances in Seattle.

Another Klamath Falls girl receiving a president title this week is Kaye Kidwell who was elected head of the Sophomore Cabinet of the YWCA at the university.

Nancy Drew, an Alpha Phi, is a member of the school of forestry, and Omer A. Schneider of Malin, junior in business and technology, have been named as members of the concert band at Oregon State College. They will be among 300 students of the college to take part in the OSC Centennial concert, "The Face of Oregon" on April 23.
