

THE BETROTHAL and forthcoming marriage of Pauline Noble to the Rev. Apostolos Mamalis, son of the Rev. Harry Mamalis of Athens, Greece, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Noble of 2200 Radcliffe Avenue.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Bonanza High School and Southern California Bible College in Costa Mesa, California.

The future bridegroom is a graduate student at the University of San Francisco in the school of library science. He holds BA degrees in electronics, theology and education, and serves as an assistant pastor in the Assembly of God Church of Oakland.

The wedding will be an event of March 14 in the Faith Tabernacle in Klamath Falls.

PAT BARTLETT of Yreka is the bride-elect of Tim Foulke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Foulke Jr. of Gazelle. The announcement was made recently by Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bartlett. Both young people are senior students at Yreka High School. The bride-to-be is president of the Girls' League and a past honored queen of Job's Daughters Bethel 69. She will enter nurse's training this fall. Her fiancé will study agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

WABENO COUNCIL

WEED — A valentine party with exchange of secret pal gifts followed Friday night, February 6, meeting of Wabeno Council 231, degree of Pocahontas, held at the White Pine Hall.

Mrs. Dorothy Sottana, Pocahontas, presided and with the members welcomed Mrs. Anita Mimentel, a new member by reinstatement.

A report of plans for the district meeting planned to be held at Weaverville in April was read and the extent of local participation will be decided at a later meeting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Patterson, Mrs. Rita Renning and Mrs. Sottana.

Hawaiian Luau Theme Of Dance

LAKEVIEW—A Hawaiian luau provided the background theme for the dinner and dance of the Hi Jinks Club held Saturday evening, February 7. Dinner was at Van's restaurant where low tables and cushions lent the island atmosphere for dining. Dancing followed at the Masonic Hall where decorations consisted of thatched huts, coconuts and palm trees.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Soreth, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Herbert, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Peterson, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Padgett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Michaelson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pratt, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fletcher. The latter couple, from Klamath Falls, were houseguests of the Tony Castels.

On the arrangement committee were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Castel, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Blythe, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Harlan, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kiewer, Dr. and Mrs. William Strieby, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Maxwell, and Mrs. L. R. Robertson.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

BONANZA—Leah McFall was 11 years old February 11 and her mother Mrs. Jack McFall invited a few girl friends to come after school and help her celebrate her birthday. Cathy Angel of Dairy was an overnight guest of Leah. Others enjoying the games and dancing were Nondice McFall, Susie Bray, Linda McFall, Anne Vinson, Linda Gibney, Lorna McFall, Grace Hughes, and Sharon Vinson.

HUNTERS DINNER

CHILQUIN—An annual hunters' dinner party was hosted this year by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gienger Saturday night, January 31. The rooms were attractively decorated with the bright colors of a pottery set used on the small tables each set for four guests. A large bouquet on the buffet service table brought out the same colors. Cleverly drawn labeled stakes identified the platters of wild fowl which were served, ducks, geese, pheasant, and the huge turkey was labeled elk, since none of the local hunters was successful elk hunting in 1958.

Guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gienger, Sprague River; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Doak, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Doak, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Niehaus, Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Youngblood, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kircher and Mrs. Loretta Wilkie.
