Yreka, Weed Slate Battle For Crown

Coach Dick Edwards and his Yreka Miners invaded the Weed High School gymnasium tonight where they take on Coach Al Shipman's Cougars in the playoff contest which decides the Northern California championship. Both squads are deadlocked for first place as a result of last week-end's action in which the Cougars rolled over Mount Shasta, 60-28, while Yreka trounced Dunsmuir, 64-33.

Both teams have suffered only one loss in league play, the Miners having handed the Cougars a 40-25 defeat earlier in the year behind a 17 point scoring effort of big Bill Wilson while the Cougars turned the tables on the Miners two weeks with a 34-40 victory as Cougar Doug Blankenship poured in 19 points.

Wilson, a 6-6 junior, leads the Miners in scoring followed closely by Alan Eddy, 6-4 and Gary Gresham, 6-1. Both Eddy and Gresham are also juniors. Coach Edwards' other starters for the playoff match will be Ted Peters and Danny Severin while reserves Dan Behnke, Bruce Root, Jim Dowling, Jackson Lawe and Dexter Tourville back them up.

Blankenship spearheads the Cougar scoring attack while Dave Lemons follows him up. Coach Shipman will choose his remaining three starters from among the following: Chester Harris, Woody Smith, John Schirmer, Larry Nord, Tom Bender, Bob Zalunardo, Larry Wilson and Doug DeBortoli.

KF Gunners Eye Medford

No planned activity is scheduled for the Klamath Gun Club's Wocus range this weekend since the majority of the membership is headed for Medford and the first registered shoot of the year. The range will be open however, it was reported by John Lichtenstern, club spokesman.

In spite of less than desirable weather last weekend a number of local marksmen turned out to vie for a pair of trophies. Vern Moore retired the E. E. Driscoll trophy as he collected the third leg with a brilliant display of long range shooting. Al Carpenter walked off with the Jim Fisher Class C and D cup as he notched a 22-25 for his third leg.

Rosi At Peak, Wants Brown

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Despite cuts around the left eye, a gash over the bridge of his nose and a mouse under the right optic, Paolo Rosi insisted today he was ready to fight Joe Brown for the world lightweight title here in May.

"I want Brown, but no more southpaws," Rosi said after slugging out a 10-round split decision Monday over Flash Elorde at Manila.

"We want Brown" manager Cy Crisci echoed. "Rosi is at his peak and I think he could take Joe who is sort of over the hill."

Rosi collected his facial souvenirs at the Cow Palace while taking the verdict over Elorde who showed the same gameness he displayed in this pavilion three years ago in a vain shot at Sandy Saddler's world featherweight crown.

The left-handed Filipino's sharp counter punches convinced Judge Jack Downey that he had won Monday's fight by a 96-93 margin, but Judge Eddie James saw it 99-97 for the bleeding Italian and Referee Frankie Carter swung it to Paolo with a 100-92 card. Rosi also had an edge in the weight, 135 to 132.

Gene Gentry, Joda George and John McCutcheon paced Chilquinn with 23, 21 and 18 points respectively while Al Dexter topped the losers with 19.

In the preliminary game Chilquinn Parks posted a 62-57 victory over Parks-Wise.

Pettit Closing In On Record

NEW YORK (AP) — The St. Louis Hawks' Bob Pettit continues to close in rapidly on George Yardley's National Basketball Assn. single season scoring record.

With 11 games to go, Pettit has 1,765 points and needs 237 more—well under his regular pace—to better the mark of 2,001 Yardley set with Detroit last season according to league statistics released today.

In the scoring race itself, Pettit has widened his lead to 172 points over Paul Arizin of the Philadelphia Warriors. Jack Twyman of Cincinnati is third, with Cliff Hagan of St. Louis and Minneapolis rookie Elgin Baylor rounding out the top five.

The leaders also are unchanged in other departments. Ken Sears of New York sets the pace in field goal percentage with .490. Bill Sharman of Boston in free throw percentage with .942. Bill Russell of Boston in rebounds with 1423—a 13 per game average, and Bob Cousy of Boston in assists with 459—an 8.2 pace.
