

Farming Show Features Film

The Don Potter Machinery Company has announced March 5 as the date for the annual John Deere Show in Klamath Falls, and March 4 for the same show in Tulelake.

A full day of activity has been lined up for all farmers and their families. There will be equipment demonstrations, a lunch at noon at the Don Potter Company, 2224 South Sixth, followed by a film on modern farming and other features at the Tower Theater.

In Tulelake, all activities will be centered at the Tulelake-Butte Valley Fairgrounds.

All farmers and their families are invited.

Malin C of C Holds Meet

MALIN — Jim Conroy, principal of the Malin High School, was named as 1959 president of the Malin Chamber of Commerce during the annual chamber membership meeting and crab feed in the Broadway Hall. Conroy was introduced by Kenneth Hoffman, retiring president. More than 300 members and guests were present.

Newly elected directors this year are Louis Kalina, Edward Petrask, William Rajmus, Loyal Loveless, treasurer. Holdover members of the board are Jim Ottomari, Walter Stastny, named vice president; Joe Halussek, Henry O'Keefe, and Conroy.

Plans for the observance of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the town of Malin by Czech settlers in 1909 were announced. The CZBJ Lodge, chamber of commerce and all other Malin community groups will assist in the half century party.

Czech settlers arrived here on September 30, 1909.

A history of the accomplishments of those who remained to develop one of the most colorful and friendly communities in the state of Oregon, was given by Charles V. Dobry Sr., a member of one of the original families.

Dobry graphically outlined the early years of hardship conquered by the colonizers, and the later years of progress and success. He credited the families of the early settlers with indomitable will and named many who have second and third generation families still living here.

Boy Scout Troop 33, sponsored by the chamber, led the guests in the flag salute, followed by vocal numbers by the Malin High School Boys' Chorus, under the baton of Don Miller.

Jim Owens was presented with the 1959 basketball sportsmanship trophy by Coach Bob Croft.

Crab was served by members of the board of directors.

MRS. WILLIAM HICKS, wife of Major Hicks, base engineer at Kingsley Field, will model this smart navy chanting with white accessories, Breton navy straw and patent accessories, at the luncheon and style show at the Willard Hotel March 9. The affair is being sponsored by the Rebekah Lodge for the benefit of the 1959 "United Nations Pilgrimage For Youth."

The troop went on a second class hike February 21 on Hogback Mountain. Scouts participating were Jimmie Beene, Mike Shufelt, Ronnie Patsch and Douglas Leech. Scoutmaster Bill Green was assisted by Senior Patrol Leader Don Aschenbach and Scout Billy Mills. The boys were taught cooking and camping skills.

Troop 4 is planning a winter campout in March.

Style Show Set March 9

A luncheon and style show for the benefit of the boy or girl who will represent this region in the annual Odd Fellows and Rebekahs "United Nations Pilgrimage For Youth" is scheduled for Monday, March 9, in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. Mrs. George Blanas is chairman of the affair. Whytal's will show a complete range of spring styles with local models.

The youth chosen in this sixth annual contest will write a winning essay on the topic, "Influence of the United Nations on Economic Security of Other Nations," and will take part in a speech contest in the IOOF Hall on March 14. The essay contest is now under way.

Candidates for the trip can be high school sophomores and juniors, 16-17 years of age in both Klamath and Lake counties. Qualifications to be met include character and personality, community and civic interests, leadership, participation in extracurricular activities, interest in world affairs, church participation, writing of the essay and the public speaking appearance. Winner of the contest receives

An anthropologist's view of the Klamath country will be presented Wednesday evening when B. K. Swartz, new curator of the Klamath County Museum, will speak on "The Place of the Klamath Basin in North American Anthropology."

He will be a guest of the Klamath Unitarian Fellowship, meeting at the Klamath Art Center at 8 p.m.

Swartz is a newcomer to Klamath Falls from Pasadena, California. He received his M.A. degree from UCLA, majoring in anthropology, and is working for his Ph.D. from the University of Arizona. He has been associated with the county museum since February 1.

A discussion period will follow the lecture. Coffee will be served at 7:30. The public is cordially invited.

BEST way to care for wood floors

The world's largest maker of hardwood floors created this special clean-as-you-wax method. You just pour a little Bruce on the floor. The toughest marks, dirt and old wax wipe away instantly. All the dirt comes up on the cloth. Buff lightly and you're through in half the usual time. Try this better, easier method next time you wax. Use BRUCE CLEANING WAX for a rich coat of wax. For light waxing, use famous BRUCE FLOOR CLEANER.
