

Solon, Weekly Views Differ

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—A national Catholic weekly magazine disagrees with Sen. John Kennedy's statement about the separation of a public official's religious beliefs and his governmental duties.

The March 7 issue of Ave Maria quotes Kennedy as saying: "Whatever one's religion in private life may be, for the officeholder nothing takes precedence over his oath to uphold the Constitution and all its parts—including the First Amendment and the strict separation of church and state."

The magazine's editorial said that "to relegate your conscience to your 'private life' is not only unrealistic, but dangerous as well."

Ave Maria is published by the Holy Cross Fathers at the University of Notre Dame.

The statement by Kennedy, a Massachusetts Democrat, was in a national magazine article concerning a Catholic's chances of becoming president in 1960.

DERBY FOR LADIES

CHICAGO (UPI)—The derby is making a double-barreled comeback.

Bernard L. Salesky, president of a hat firm, said Monday his company is developing a "he-she" derby for the ladies.
