Castro Asked To Visit PNW

HAVANA (AP) — Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore) has invited Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to visit Oregon if Castro goes to Washington, D.C., in April for an American Society of Newspaper Editors meeting.

Porter said Monday he told Castro he would be in good company because so many Oregonians have grown beards for the observance of Oregon's centennial. Porter said Castro left the impression in a 45-minute conversation that the prime minister wants to visit the U.S. but fears that his English is inadequate. He said he assured Castro that he would be no handicap.

Porter said the first question asked him by Castro was: "When are you going to act on sugar?" "I told him," Porter continued, "that we would act in due course and there should be no trouble." The new Castro government has indicated it would like the United States to increase its sugar export quota.

Porter was to return to Washington, D.C., Tuesday after a tour of Cuba.

Probe Asked On Nominee

SALEM (AP) — An investigation of Sprague Carter, whom Gov. Mark Hatfield nominated as state selective service director, was proposed Monday by Rep. Keith Skelton (D-Eugene).

Skelton asked Congressman Charles O. Porter (D-Ore) to request Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national selective service director, to "make an investigation of Mr. Carter's qualifications before any action is taken."

Gen. Hershey makes the actual appointments of state directors. Pointing out that Carter was active in Hatfield's campaign, Skelton wrote to Porter that "selective service is a system which should be from political appointment. If Mr. Hatfield is indeed paying off his political debts by the appointment of Mr. Carter, over the protests of selective service boards, this matter should be brought to the attention of Gen. Hershey."

Skelton said the position "has been held for many years by Col. Francis W. Mason and he has, so far as I know, fulfilled his duties of office capably and conscientiously." Hatfield said that much of the criticism of Carter stems from Col. Mason.

Deer Committee Asked By Solons

SALEM (AP) — Klamath County's delegation introduced a bill in the Senate today to create a seven-member committee to advise the Game Commission on establishment and conduct of deer hunting seasons in Klamath and Lake counties.

The committee would be appointed by the Game Commission. Two members would be stockmen, two would represent sportsmen's organizations, and three would be public members.

The members would have to be residents of Klamath and Lake counties, but there could not be more than four members from either of the two counties.

A similar measure died in the 1957 Legislature. The Game Commission opposed it.

HOTEL DESTROYED

BANGOR, Maine (AP) — Fire early today destroyed the Adams House Hotel and an adjoining apartment-business building, forcing at least 100 persons to flee. About 50 were guests at the four-story, 50-room hotel.

Professor Plans Leave

CORVALLIS (AP) — Bernard Malamud, assistant professor of English at Oregon State College, will go on a two-year leave April 1 to work on a new novel.

Malamud is among 11 poets and novelists selected for special creative arts grants from the Ford Foundation. A total of $150,000 is available for the 11 with individual awards depending on the individual needs.

Malamud, who said he plans to remain in Corvallis to work on the novel, went to Italy in 1956 on a Partisan Review fellowship for study abroad.

His novel, "The Assistant," won a $1,000 award from the National Institute of Arts and Letters last year. In addition, Malamud's short stories frequently appear in magazines.

Four Young Boys Discover Body

GOLD BEACH (AP) — Four young boys found a body Monday night on a bench near this Southern Oregon coastal community.

The identity of the man, believed to be a fisherman, was not learned immediately.

Sheriff R. G. Sabin of Curry County, who is seeking to identify the man, said the body was shirtless, but clad in blue jeans and boots.
