

KF Girl Lives In Thailand

A Klamath Falls girl, the former Betty Knowlton, now the wife of Dr. James Webster, is living in Bangkok, Thailand, where her husband is a medical missionary, serving as surgeon and in an administrative capacity as assistant to Dr. Ralph F. Waddell in operation of the new Bangkok Sanatorium and Hospital School of Nursing in that city. The hospital and nursing school are under the sponsorship of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Webster and their two sons, John and James, will complete a four year term of service in Thailand and are expected to return to the United States next August. Mrs. Webster's mother, Mrs. Alma Sweetman lives in Klamath Falls.

Dr. Webster is a graduate of the College of Medical Evangelism in Loma Linda, California. He is a former resident of Lodi.

The new hospital and nursing home, was formally opened recently by Her Majesty Queen Sirikit of Thailand.

In her formal address Her Majesty said: "The important role of the Seventh-day Adventist Mission in the humanitarian work in this country, bringing relief from suffering to the sick and helping to further national education in certain fields is well known. The decision to establish a school of nursing is a welcome one."

Luncheon Meet Held By Group

MALIN—The Helping Hand Society met recently at the home of Mrs. Florence Wilson for luncheon and business meeting.

Emma Morelock, who was chairman of the Christmas food boxes, was appointed to continue as chairman of special philanthropic projects in the community. Getwell cards have been sent to Mrs. Jerry Derry, Emmy Kirkpatrick and Clara Scott.

It was announced that four quilts have been made in preparation of the fall rummage sale. The group will work on other quilts at the next meeting which will be held on March 18 starting at 10 a.m. in the community hall with a potluck luncheon at noon.

Program Booklet Review Given

MALIN — Women's Association of the Malin Presbyterian Church met last week at the home of Mrs. Merle Looney, Mrs. J. Walter Browning, president, conducted the business meeting.

The program booklet, "The Dial," for the coming year, was reviewed by Mrs. Eileen Whitman, Mrs. George Smalley and Mrs. Browning reported on the World Day of Prayer held at Mt. Laki.

It was announced that Malin would be hostess in May for fellowship day to which all church women of the lower Klamath Basin will be invited. Mrs. G. C. Blohm reported on social education in action.

Mrs. Browning, in a patriotic theme, presented a tribute to the month of February.

Father Doyle Leads Parish

TULALAKE — A Paulist Missionary, Father Basil Doyle, will conduct a parish mission beginning Sunday, March 1, and continuing through Saturday, March 7, in Holy Cross Church, Tulalake.

Mission time is a time of special devotion and instruction in the teachings of the faith. Under the guidance of the missionary, each soul turns the searchlight of divine truth, says Father C. F. O'Connor, inwards over heart and mind and reevaluates his life after the pattern of the Maker. Fundamental truths are discussed and applied to daily life. These are the truths, he says, that men should live by in order to achieve their ultimate happiness with God.

The mission will consist of a series of religious exercises. The order of the evening's services comprises the Rosary, hymns, sermon and Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament. A special instruction on the duty of a Christian is given after the mission mass each morning. Masses will be offered at 7:15 and 8 a.m. and evening devotions will be at 7:30 p.m.

Father Doyle, a graduate of the University of Toronto, received his theological training at the Catholic University of America. Since ordination as a Paulist priest, he has served as Newman Club chaplain, master of novices, and pastor of Paulist parishes in Ontario and South Carolina. As a missionary he has worked in nearly every state in the union. At the present time he is assigned to St. Paul's Church in San Francisco.

Compassion Rites Set

The Klamath Falls Free Methodist Church will join with over 1,300 congregations of the denomination in the United States and Canada in the annual observance on March 1 (11 a.m. for a special service) of Compassion Sunday, which features the foreign relief program of the church.

The church administrators on its various mission fields in such countries as Africa, India, South America, Japan, Formosa, and Egypt a program of medical aid, direct relief (food and clothing), vocational training, and agricultural improvement.

At one example, doctors and nurses on 22 Free Methodist mission fields gave as many as 400,000 treatments last year. It was possible to do this at a cost of about 10 cents for each treatment. Missionaries have given much attention, also, through instruction in hygiene and nutrition and through experimentation in soil improvement and crop production, in helping the people improve their ways of living.

The Junior Missionary Society of the local Free Methodist Church is using special Compassion Sunday offering banks to promote giving for this cause.

FILM PLANNED
MERRILL — The public is invited to attend the film showing of "The One Great Hour of Sparing" sponsored by the Youth Fellowship to be held in the recreation room of the Merrill Presbyterian Church on Sunday, March 1, beginning at 7 p.m. Following the film, members of the Youth Fellowship will present a short service including songs, sermon and scripture reading.
