

Warm Springs Big Threat In Elimination Tournament

CHILOQUIN—The Warm Springs Magpies gave evidence that they were definite contenders for the All-Indian Invitational Tournament championships in March as they warmed over the Klamath Agency squad in the nightcap of the opening round of the Elimination Tourney here Thursday night.

The Magpies reached the semi-finals in last year's big national tourney but were edged by the Chiloquin Thunderbirds.

Joining the Warm Springs quint as elimination favorites are the Pendleton Bucks who clobbered the U. of O Mudhens 61-33 in Thursday's opener. In other action the Klamath Sons topped the Fort Bidwell five 50-40, and the Beatty Lakers bombed Burns 32-14.

Pend't 61, Hens 33

The Bucks opened the afternoon's action by hustling over to a 16-9 first quarter lead over the Mudhens, a group of University of Oregon students who teamed up for the tourney.

By the intermission rest the count was 31-15 and from here on it was easy. The Bucks led on the three-quarter post 46-24.

Steve Schappay was the high scorer for the winners with 15 points while Mickey Minthorn counted 13. Top scorer for the test, however, was the Mudhens' Jim Keene who drilled 21.

The Pendletonians meet the Klamath Sons tonight at 7 to open the second round of play.

Pendleton (41) (33) U-O Mudhens Williams (14) F (21) T. Keene D. Schappay (9) F (12) J. Keene B. Schappay (15) C (11) J. Coburn G. Kalapog (7) G (4) Joe Coburn M. Minthorn (13) G (4) Joe Coburn

Subs for Pendleton—F. Kalapog 7, Bill Z. Pond 4, Wilson 2, J. Minthorn 3, J. Subs for Mudhens—G. Keene 4, A. Subs for Klamath—L. Young

Officials—Lelli, Young

Today's Sport Parade

Tennis Ace Smitten By Dodgers, Love

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Life for handsome Ashley Cooper is a matter of love—or off the court—and particularly where it concerns the baseball Dodgers.

Cooper is the 22-year-old Australian who accepted a $100,000 pro offer after winning the Australian Wimbledon and U.S. Amateur tennis championships last year. His next stop with a racket is Madison Square Garden on Sunday afternoon.

Bob Cousy To Reach Milestone

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bob Cousy — the perfect synonym for perfect basketball—heads for another milestone today.

The Boston Celtics ace, takes after Dolph Schayes of Syracuse as the biggest scorer in National Basketball Assn. history.

Cousy reached the No. 2 spot Thursday night with a 17-point performance against the Philadelphia Warriors. He has scored 11,778 in nine years of NBA competition, bettering George Mikan's 11,764, set mostly with the Minneapolis Lakers, in nine years.

Schayes, including Thursday night's 31 points, has 13,944.

The Celtics defeated the Warriors 125-109, while Syracuse downed St. Louis 130-111. The Cincinnati Royal defeated Detroit 106-101 at Louisville, Ky.

Cousy had plenty of help as eight Boston players hit double figures, led by Frank Ramsey and Tom Heinsohn with 21 apiece.

Woody Sauldsberry had 25 points for Philly, 23 in the first half and Paul Arizin scored 26.

After the second game of the War Memorial Auditorium twin-bill in Syracuse, the Nats need six victories or six Philly losses or a combination of the two to sew up the last Eastern playoff berth.

The Nats almost blew a 17-point lead as Bob Pettit, who scored 30 points, led the Hawks in a comeback. George Yardley, Hal Greer and Schayes put the game away for the Nats in the final period.

Cincinnati recovered from a poor start to sink the Royals as John McCarthy and Jack Twyman led a comeback. Twyman scored 27 points and McCarthy, 19, while Gene Shue led the Pistons with 16.

Magpies 85, Agcy. 49

Paced by Tom Estimo and Satch Miller, who collected 21 and 20 points respectively, the Magpies jumped off to an 18-10 first quarter lead, then were never seriously threatened by the outmanned Agency squad.

By halftime the Warm Springs group had stretched the bulge to 40-27. In the third stanza, the Magpies went on a 25-point spree while holding the Agency quiet to a miserly five tallies.

Hubert LeBeau and Mike Ochoa, both ex-Chiloquin high players led the Agency squad with 11 and nine points.

The Magpies will test the Beatty Lakers in tonight's feature game which begins at 8:30.

Warm Springs (85) (49) Klam Agency Rhoads (5) F (2) Smith S. Miller (20) F (12) Jimmer Nathan (6) C (6) Kenler T. Estimo (21) G (9) M. Ochoa Smith (2) G (2) C. Jack

Subs for Warm Springs—Cotwain 13, Souers 4, Chement 8, Danzuka 4, Green 2

Subs for Klamath Agency—Gentry 5, J. Ochoa 8, Hatfield 4, Le Beau 11

Officials—Dawes, Sutphin

Sons 50, Bidwell 40

In the second game of the day the Klamath Sons won a tough match from the Fort Bidwell, California, entry. Bob David paced the winners with 14 points while the Barney brothers, Jim and Mike, were second with 11 each.

Erwin Crume was the big gun for the Bidwell five with 15 counters.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

By the close of the third quarter they had stretched the margin to 42-32 and they managed to maintain the distance for the rest of the way.

The Sons trailed 14-8 at the end of the first quarter before they caught hold and moved out to a 25-12 lead at the half.

Beatty 52, Burns 14

In the evening opener Thursday, Erwin Crume, who played as a reserve for the Beatty Lakers, collected 11 points to lead the winners to their landslide win. Every player on the Laker bench saw action as the one-sided contest progressed.

The Lakers held the Burns quint scoreless during the first quarter while counting 13 for themselves. At the intermission they had romped out to a 24-4 bulge and they restricted their foe to only four points again in the third stanza. In the fourth period Burns, led by Larry Richards and Tom Tee-man who each scored four points, picked up six tallies for the biggest total of the test.

Saturday action finds the Burns five meeting Klamath Agency at 3 p.m. after the U. of O Mudhens and Fort Bidwell clash at 1:30.

BEATTY (52) (14) BURNS Tee-man (2) F (4) Tee-man Tee-man (2) F (4) Tee-man Tee-man (2) F (4) Tee-man

Subs for Beatty—Woods 3, Tupper 2, Unice 8, Head 7, Crume 11

Subs for Burns—Bob L. Capps 1, Officials—Lelli, Young

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee outfielder, finally came to terms on a contract today which gave him an estimated raise of $8,000 to $80,000 for the 1959 season.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee's No. 1 power man, arrived here Thursday night and said he planned to call General Manager George Weiss for a salary conference today.

The 26-year-old centerfielder star did not say whether he would sign his contract, but indicated that he and the Yankees were not far apart.

Mantle, who earned $72,000 last year, reportedly is holding out for a $3,000 raise.

Weiss, after sending Mickey a contract calling for $85,000, has agreed to boost the figure but apparently wants Mantle to agree to certain conditions before yielding to the slugger's demands for $75,000.

Mickey wants no part of any conditional contract.

"I am just not going to talk about it," Weiss replied when asked to specify what the conditions were. "In the past the misconduct thing has been misunderstood."

Weiss was referring to the Ford case in which it was reported that Mantle balked at signing a conditional contract agreeing to observe curfew regulations and other training rules.

"There absolutely was no behavior clause attached to Ford's contract," Weiss said. "We merely wanted him to adhere to a prescribed diet which he failed to do last year."

Walters Enters State Tourney

Larry Walters of Fremont grade school is one of 26 winners from county tournaments in Oregon competing in the state free throw tournament for grade school basketball players which will be held on the Oregon State College campus Saturday afternoon.

Other entrants in the free throw contest sponsored by the State Elks Association and the OSC athletic department are Greg Jackson of John Day, Bruce Bradshaw of Eugene, John Bryant of Salem, Bob Brahmanson of Myrtle Creek, Mike Martin of Grants Pass, Ronnie Levisto of Hermiston and Larry Taylor of Independence.

The boxscore: Air Force Jets (12) (8) vs. Ore. JV Deaton (9) F (16) Flanagan Gordon (9) F (16) Gardner Richardson (9) C (13) Payne Mason (2) C (9) Pugh Baxter (6) G (16) Peterson

Subs for Jets—Bearden 4, Scott 8, Bell 8, Pedlar 4, Walters 8, Bell 9

Subs for So. Ore. JV—Callender 11, Crandall 7, Dietz 8, Harper 6, Grubbe 10

Officials—Kinston and Die

Hobby Headquarters

Paint by Number
Copper Craft
Railroad
Plastic Models
Operating Models
Games
Radio Kits

FLEET'S
222 So. 7th 4-5520

ATTENTION! KOREAN VETS
Learn To Fly Under The G.I. Bill
Klamath Aircraft Service
Kingsley Field TU 4-7858

Planning To Build?
You Owe it to Yourself To Investigate the Advantages of Building With GLASS MOUNTAIN PUMICE BLOCK

Visit Our Booth at the Home Show For Full Information
Glass Mountain Brick Meets F.H.A. Requirements
Glass Mtn. Masonry 1938 So. 4th St. Ph. TU 2-1773

Time Out

But how did you ever get the whistle stuck in your EAR?

Yankee Ace, Boss To Talk Contract

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee outfielder, finally came to terms on a contract today which gave him an estimated raise of $8,000 to $80,000 for the 1959 season.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) Mickey Mantle, New York Yankee's No. 1 power man, arrived here Thursday night and said he planned to call General Manager George Weiss for a salary conference today.

The 26-year-old centerfielder star did not say whether he would sign his contract, but indicated that he and the Yankees were not far apart.

Mantle, who earned $72,000 last year, reportedly is holding out for a $3,000 raise.

Weiss, after sending Mickey a contract calling for $85,000, has agreed to boost the figure but apparently wants Mantle to agree to certain conditions before yielding to the slugger's demands for $75,000.

Mickey wants no part of any conditional contract.

"I am just not going to talk about it," Weiss replied when asked to specify what the conditions were. "In the past the misconduct thing has been misunderstood."

Weiss was referring to the Ford case in which it was reported that Mantle balked at signing a conditional contract agreeing to observe curfew regulations and other training rules.

"There absolutely was no behavior clause attached to Ford's contract," Weiss said. "We merely wanted him to adhere to a prescribed diet which he failed to do last year."

Southern Oregon Defeats AF Jets

The Southern Oregon Jayvees dropped the Air Force Jets 89-87 at Kingsley Field Wednesday night in City League action. The visitors from Ashland tossed in 30 points in the third period while the Jets could garner only 11 as the Jayvees displayed a strong, well balanced scoring punch throughout the entire contest.

Dale Gardner with 16, Jim Payne with 13, Don Callender with 11 and Steve Gribble with 10 topped the winners' scoring while Ray Gordon, Steve Richards and Don Bell topped the losers, each with nine.

The boxscore: Air Force Jets (87) (89) vs. Ore. JV Deaton (9) F (16) Flanagan Gordon (9) F (16) Gardner Richardson (9) C (13) Payne Mason (2) C (9) Pugh Baxter (6) G (16) Peterson

Subs for Jets—Bearden 4, Scott 8, Bell 8, Pedlar 4, Walters 8, Bell 9

Subs for So. Ore. JV—Callender 11, Crandall 7, Dietz 8, Harper 6, Grubbe 10

Officials—Kinston and Die

BOWLING SCORES

MIXED FOURSOMES
W L
Wills Mkt 60 22
Curley Clippers 52 40
Mack Mkt 40 42
Four Mugs 46 48
Maxine Twisters 44 47
McCloud Cleaners 62 30
Happ Photo 42 30
Snowball 31 61

Last night's results:
Snowballs 3, Wingers 1
Maxine's 4, Wills Mkt 6
Four Mugs 3, Happ Photo 1
Mack Mkt 4, Cleaners 0

High team game—Maxine's Twist 790
High team series—Maxine's Twist 2352
High ind. game men—Freddy Mousibueaux 202
High ind. series men—Harry Anderson 347
High ind. game women—Sharon Overy 150
High ind. series women—Sharon Overy 507

LADY RUG LEAGUE
W L
First Federal 53 24
Market Bkkt 31 27
Jesse Smith 50 27
Luca Lounge 48 40
KC Top Chest 44 44
Howard's Club 43 45
Drive More 43 45
Schulze Tires 41 47
The Ranch 46 48
Ais Drive In 37 51
T. P. Parkings 29 58

Last night's results:
E. B. Palmer 5, KC Tons 1
Market Bkkt 3, Ranch 1
Drive More 3, Ais Drive In 1
Howard's Club 3, Jesse Z. Smith 1
T. P. Parkings 3, Luca Lounge 1
First Federal 4, Schulze Tires 0

High team game—Jesse Z. Smith 979
High team series—Howard's Cleaners 2927
High ind. game—Martha Cassidy 237
High ind. series—Edina Greenwood 507

CITY LEAGUE
W L
Luca Cafe 30 25
Coca Cola 52 36
Baldwin Richfield 48 40
Walker Bros 43 42
Car-Ad-Co 44 44
Lark's Food 41 47
Simpson Devoe 41 47
Northwest Produce 39 49
Sears 38 52
Shasta's Grain 38 52
KC Paint 34 54

Last night's results:
Snowballs 3, Wingers 1
Lu Portas 3, Mike and Tony 1
Bank Mt. Shasta 4, Shastanas 0
Gravel Getties 4, Janna-Helena 0

High team game—Gravel Getties 1003
High team series—Gravel Getties 2845
High ind. game men—Elmer Manning 222
High ind. series men—Bruno Pignotti 423
High ind. game women—Helen LaPortas 176
High ind. series women—Theresa Merous 433

KF Ladies Win State Crowns

A trio of Klamath Falls lady bowlers won state titles in the recently concluded Oregon State Moose Tournament held on Timber Lanes in Springfield.

Dorothy Overmeier and Mary Bothwell teamed to post the high, 8-0 total in the Women's Doubles, a 1153 aggregate.

Audrey Herrick hauled in the Women's All-events crown with a torrid 1716.

Other Klamath Falls bowlers to score high among the large field were the Fumbling Five, who placed second in the team event with a total of 2589 behind the Eugene Spares who collected a 2644.

Bessie Lilly and Herrick teamed for a fourth in the doubles while Charlotte Harris and Marie Backman were fifth. Ruby Hawley rolled a 397 and Eole Tomlin a 388 for fourth and fifth in the singles competition.

Both Griggs and Mary Bothwell were second and fourth respectively. Griggs with 1654 and Bothwell with 1649.

Results of the men's action in the Moose tourney were not available.

Kajawski Leads DeMolay Win

In the only game played in Victory League action at Mills School Thursday night, the DeMolay Gold dumped the Lost River DeMolays 32-17. The B and R quintet forfeited their match to the Tigers.

The big scorer for the night, Corky Kajawski, moved his season total up another big jump as he counted 22 points for the winning Golds.

MEET M. R. "Ray" HUNT

Several years ago 'Ray' came to the Klamath Basin from the midwest on a fishing trip. He's still here, still fishing, and loves it!

Basin Motors, your Lincoln, Mercury, Edsel, Willys and English Ford dealer, is pleased to announce the addition of 'Ray' to its staff of sales representatives.

'Ray' extends this sincere invitation for his friends, customers, or anyone interested in the finest of the Ford Family of Fine Cars to come in and visit him. He says, "With a wonderful place like the Klamath Basin to live, and a terrific line of outstanding automobiles such as Basin Motors has to offer, who could ask for more?"

BASIN MOTORS
424 So. Sixth
Phone TU 4-7778

EVENINGS OR SUNDAYS PHONE TU 4-9153

Globetrotters Show Weed Battle On Return From Trek For B Title

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the

United States Stars, a picked team of pros and college aces who accompanied them. Again enhancing their reputation of America's Ambassadors of Good Will, the Trotters increased their number of performances at the Brussels World's Fair and staged a number of free clinics, at the request of the state department.

In addition, accepting an invitation from Drew Pearson, nationally-known syndicated columnist and again with the blessing of the State Department, Saperstein put together a unit of Globetrotter players, an opposing squad groups of white professional stars, referees, entertainers and officials, paid all salaries out of his own pocket, and accompanied a Pearson group of performers on a tour of American military bases overseas. Thousands of GIs who couldn't get home for the Christmas holiday were made happy by free appearances in Morocco, Libya, Egypt and Bermuda.

Their regular winter activities saw them win 163 of 164 games played. They went on to again win, this time by a 13-5 margin, the annual April World Series of Basketball from the 1958 College All-Americans, and then their annual summer tour of Europe saw 101 victories record against the