

MRS. BUENA STONE admires the plaque naming her as Woman of Achievement for 1959, chosen by Quota Club at its annual banquet. With her from the left, are Virginia Wayburn, program chairman; Alice Vitus, who made the presentation and Eva Dickson, club president.

Quota Club Honors Woman Of Achievement

"Wagon Wheels" was the theme of the Klamath Falls Quota Club annual banquet when Mrs. Buena Stone was named "Woman of Achievement" for 1959.

A social hour preceded the banquet which was held Tuesday evening at the Yacht Club. Guests, wearing colorful bonnets given to them as they arrived, were seated at tables arranged in a square. A bough tree with pastel lighted blossoms stood in the center of the floor. At the base of the tree was a log arrangement holding a lighted waterfall. Three white deer stood quietly at the side.

Mrs. Ninon Nyback used a red ribbon streamer along each table with a basket of red tulips at the center. Covered wagons, loaned by Mrs. Ed Chilcote, were placed at intervals along the tables. Figures of a pioneer man and woman marked the head table where Eva Dickson, dressed in a Centennial gown, presided as president. Green styrofoam trees placed along the tables held pictures of former women of achievement, including Dorothy Finniger, Betty Pepple, Lucille West, Mary Maxwell, Alice Vitus, Ellen Clark, Frances Watkins, Betty Hatzl, Lynn Kendan, Clara Moore and Myrtle Wimer. Six were present and were presented with orchid corsages.

Incidental music was played at the organ by Lynette Phelps who also accompanied the group singing of "America the Beautiful" after the invocation given by Dorothy Poole.

Virginia Wayburn, program chairman, was accompanied by Glenn Fox as she spoke the words to "Oregon Serenade," an original song, which was written by Juanita Gray and Glenn Fox. "The Incidentals," Betty Perkins, Ruth Krieger, Marge Ruger and Alice Michels, presented several songs.

Mrs. Wayburn presented the guest speaker, Mrs. Buena Stone, who gave an interesting history of Oregon and its "Growth To Statehood."

The highlight of the evening came when Alice Vitus paid tribute to the "Woman of Achievement," Mrs. Stone, a selection most appropriate this year for she has long been interested in Oregon's historical background. Mrs. Vitus described Mrs. Stone in one word — "Cooperation," and mentioned the many ways in which she had cooperated with individuals and groups "to clarify many issues through careful study of facts to make Oregon history a fascinating, living thing, worthy of being preserved for those who follow us."

At this point the guests stood as a salute to Mrs. Stone, Centennial Woman of Achievement.
