

Church Vows Unite Pair

Mary Margaret Townsend, Seattle, became the bride of A.I.C. Robert L. Batman January 1 in the Sacred Heart Church. Mr. T. P. Casey read the service at 5 o'clock before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candelabra.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shuster of Chico, California.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. George Townsend of New Ulm, Minnesota, was given in marriage by her uncle, L. F. Amberg, of Klamath Falls. She wore a royal blue suit and a hat of blue veiling, and carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Genevieve Amberg, maid of honor for her cousin, wore a rust colored suit and pink hat. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Charles Esquibel of Kingsley Field was best man. Ushers were the bride's cousins, Robert and Thomas Amberg.

Wedding music was played by Doris Hedley.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Townsend, chose a rose suit and Mrs. Shuster wore a black dress for the wedding. Both mothers wore dark rosebud corsages.

A reception and buffet supper was held at the L. F. Amberg home, 2405 Holabird, following the ceremony. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Don Powell, Mrs. L. F. Amberg and Mrs. Carl Schmitz.

The newlyweds are at home at 733A McGuire Avenue following a wedding trip to San Francisco. The bridegroom is stationed at Kingsley Field.

Guests from out-of-town included Mrs. Henry Shuster, Chico; Don Garcia, Martinez, California; Mr. and Mrs. Don Powell, McCloud; P. R. Townsend, Seattle.

BETA SIGMA PHI

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL A. RUNGE are shown at the reception which followed their recent wedding in Redding. Mrs. Runge is the former Kathryn Sue Thomlinson.

Runge-Thomlinson Rites Solemnized In Redding

Of local interest is the recent wedding of Kathryn Sue Thomlinson and Michael A. Runge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Runge of Klamath Falls. The Rev. Kenneth L. Jagard officiated at the double-ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Redding before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and white tapers in candelabra.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thomlinson of Redding, was escorted to the altar by her father. Her princess style gown of white nylon lace was styled with a full ballerina length skirt, three quarter sleeves finished in scallops and a scalloped neckline. A crown of seed pearls held her short colonial illusion veil adorned by tiny crocheted roses made by her aunt, Mrs. Iola Virgin. She wore a single strand of pearls and tiny pearl earrings, and carried pink baby roses and a white orchid on a lace covered Bible with white streamers.

Jeaneen Tourney, maid of honor, wore a pale blue cotton frock designed with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. John Burgoon of Willows, cousin of the bride, and Susan Runge of Klamath Falls, sister of the bridegroom, wore blue cotton frocks styled identically to that of the maid of honor. They carried pink carnations. George Kutras was best man. The ushers, Denny Runge and Clarr Appledorn, also lighted the candles.

Judy Shuffleton, soloist, sang "O Promise Me" and the "Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Neva Armstrong.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Thomlinson chose a sheath of royal blue chiffon with white accessories. Mrs. Runge wore a pink faille sheath with white accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations.

A reception in the church social hall followed the ceremony. The lace-covered bride's table had as a centerpiece a wedding cake adorned by flowers and a miniature bridal pair and surrounded at the base by chrysanthemums and fern. It was served to 125 guests by Mrs. James Carter, Mrs. Louise Wick and Marilyn Ellis. Judy Bronson and Margie Frohn poured punch. Gene Parent attended the guest book and Connie Brown the gift table.

Out-of-town guests were George Stegin and Richard Richards of Sacramento; Dayman Virgin of Joplin, Missouri; Elizabeth McQuerry of San Bernardino; Roy Ropp, Bob Harshbarger, Bill Baskorek, Larry Heaton and Dennis Neubert, all of Klamath Falls.

NEW BABY

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hurlbut are the parents of a daughter, their first child, born February 6 in Erie, Pennsylvania. She has been named Sheri Lynn and weighed six pounds, 14 1/2 ounces at birth. Her mother is the former Nancy Cox of Klamath Falls. The baby's father is employed by General Electric and is a graduate of Henry High School and Oregon State College. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hurlbut of Route 3, who now are grandparents for the first time.
