MRS. LILLIAN BALIS reads one of the many cards she received on her 87th birthday which was marked by an open house at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Trivelpiece in Yreka, on Valentine's Day. Mrs. Balis keeps house for her daughter and is active in several clubs including the Siskiyou County Historical Society for which she is writing articles of early day history of the county. Her hobby is raising potted plants with African violets a favorite. She was born in Little Shasta and has lived her life in this area. Mrs. Balis and her second husband, the late Thomas Balis, operated the Happy Hollow Dairy for many years. In 1947 she sold her home in Montague and moved to Yreka to make her home with Mrs. Trivelpiece. Cheryl Jack also assisted. Invited were Lynn Anderson, Lyn Hescock, Dennis Wagner, Dennis Potter, Bryan Inman, Ian Wilder, Jim Briggs, Tony Dill, Richard Johnson, Carl Wright, Rocky Evans and Donald Taylor.
