Want Ad Turned Idea Into Helpful National Organization

"Parents Without Partners" is a growing national non-profit organization to help single parents—separated from marriage partners by death or divorce—with the problems of bringing up children singlehandedly.

Founders James D. Egleston and Jacqueline Bernard say it all started when they placed an ad in a metropolitan paper, and found great interest in their idea.

It's the best source of each true newspaper Classified Advertising result story we've seen. Howard Park Associates, P.O. Box 67, N.Y. 10, New York City.
