

Society

by
Helen Bechen

MR. AND MRS. WINSTON D. PURVINE and Dr. John Richards, Chancellor, State System of Higher Education, at right, exchange pleasantries at the Klamath Chamber of Commerce reception for legislative committee members and state officials who were here on inspection of OTI facilities.

LOCAL RESIDENTS joined with state officials for a social hour Friday night in the Willard Hotel. From the left, Dr. Rex Putnam, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Victor E. O'Neill and Andrew M. Collier, longtime acquaintances, indulge in a bit of reminiscing.

AMONG THE GUESTS at the chamber of commerce reception were Mrs. Al Hattan, left, shown visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heilbranner.

— Reception Photos by Kettler

FRANCES COX'S engagement to Terry Hannon was announced February 21 at an after-hours party in the Alpha Chi Omega sorority on the University of Oregon campus. A red and white color scheme was used with a red carnation, tied with a white streamer telling the betrothal news, given to each girl. Frances is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Cox, and is a sophomore at the university where her fiance is a junior and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fawver. In Eugene so the women could attend the party were Dr. and Mrs. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larkin, Mrs. Fawver, Mrs. Ann Burns, Terry's grandmother, all from Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. George Calley, grandparents of the bride-elect, and Carol Ann Calley, her cousin, from Portland. The wedding will be an August event.

— Photo by Ferebee

Herald & News
Klamath Falls,
Oregon

"WOMAN OF ACHIEVEMENT" is the title of honor given to Mrs. Buena Stone by the Quota Club at its annual banquet Tuesday evening at the Yacht Club. (Story on Inside Page)

— Photo by Ellis

Sunday

March 1, 1959

CAROLYN ANN HUNT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren Hunt of the Midland Road, is the bride-elect of John Patrick McAuliffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McAuliffe of Anderson, California, and Fort Klamath. Both young people are members of well known, longtime residents of the Klamath area. Carolyn is a senior at Henley High School. Her fiance, a 1957 graduate of Anderson Union High School, is associated with his father in the cattle business near Cottonwood, California. The wedding will take place in April. — Photo by Gudarian

"THE WEARING OF THE GREEN" will be much in evidence at the 53rd annual St. Patrick's dance given by members of St. Augustine's Church of Merrill. The gala affair will be held this year at Reames Country Club Saturday, March 14. Informal dress will be worn by guests who will dance to the music of the Starlighters from 8 p.m. until

2 a.m. At midnight an extra special smorgasbord will be served. Some of the committee making plans are pictured, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalton, co-chairmen; Father John Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coulson, chairmen, and Ben Stone, club attendant.

— Photo by Ellis

A PIERCE ARROW, vintage 1927, makes an appropriate prop for Beta Sigma Phi members in Centennial dresses who are planning the annual benefit bridge tea and style show to be held March 21 at Reames Country Club. Left to right, Mrs. Gordon Grow, Mrs. Al Blanc, Mrs.

James Creswell, in the driver's seat as chairman, Mrs. Dale Goode, Mrs. R. M. Wolf, Mrs. T. E. Rea, Mrs. John Feedback. The dresses are from the collection of Mrs. Bert Thomas. G. R. Strieb is owner of the car.

— Photo by Ellis