

Yreka Couple Married In St. Joseph's Church

YREKA—Charlene Patricia Davis became the bride of Thomas Martin Mathews at the St. Joseph's Catholic Church in a recent ceremony. Baskets of white stock banked the altar before which Father Thomas Boland performed the double ring candlelight service, which was witnessed by 125 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mathews are the parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline and long lace sleeves pointed at the wrist. The bouffant skirt featured rows of lace and net which draped into a short train. A coronet of pearls secured her fingertip veil of illusion and her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white lace covered Prayer book centered with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Valeda Davis, maid of honor for her sister, wore a ballerina length princess style gown of blue brocade taffeta. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Peterson, sister of the bride, and Jane Mathews, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns of green and pink were fashioned identically to that of the maid of honor. They wore small caps matching their dresses and carried white carnations.

Robin Lafferty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lafferty of Mount Shasta, was flower girl. She wore a frock of pale yellow brocade taffeta and a floral circlet in her hair. She carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Kenneth Davis, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man was William Kleaver of Yreka. Ushers were Deswayne Spencer of Montague and Feroi Hester of Yreka.

Warren Behnke sang "Ave Maria" during the ceremony, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Ronald Wilson, at the organ.

A reception followed in the parish hall. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Glen Perry of Montague and Margaret McCracken. Mrs. Paul Dunham poured punch and Susan Harris registered the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis selected a bronze silk sheath dress with matching jacket and brown and white accessories. Mrs. Mathews chose a winter white ribbon knit sheath, black style and black and white accessories. Both had yellow rosebud corsages.

For the wedding trip the new Mrs. Mathews wore a turquoise wool dress with brown accessories. The orchid from her bouquet was pinned to a cream colored coat. The newlyweds are at home in Yreka.

Local Couple Returns Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, 1934 Manzanita Street, have returned to their home from a vacation trip which took them as far as Phoenix.

Traveling companions of the Houstons on the first part of the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamb and Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Thompson. At their first stop in Reno they were joined by Mrs. Agnes Miller who came by plane from Auburn, California, where she had been visiting a sister.

The group then traveled to Las Vegas. After a week of seeing the sights of this celebrated city, the Lambs, Thompsons and Mrs. Miller returned to Klamath Falls and the Houstons drove on to Phoenix.

It seemed like old home week in that Arizona spot when they saw the Late Stephens, Brady Nareys, Jack Bishops and Frank and Vera Moser, sister and brother-in-law of John Houston. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Palmerton who have been in Phoenix since the first of February.

An ardent golfer, Mr. Houston tried several golf courses with J. Royal Shaw. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, former residents of this city, have been guests at the Chandler Hotel in Chandler, Arizona, since October.

Home now, the Houstons are anxiously waiting for their son Jon to return from Pacific University for his spring vacation which the family will spend in San Francisco.

HELEN'S Beauty Salon

New Location
4717 So. Sixth
Phone TU 4-4202
Anytime

Travelers Return From Sun Valley

Three couples returned this week from a vacation at Sun Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McNeer spent five days on their first visit to the famous resort. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Drew and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller enjoyed a two week stay.

Undaunted by a cracked rib received while ice skating West McNeer tried his skiing skill along with the other two men. Evelyn Drew did some skiing but found time to relax in the sunshine with Phyllis McNeer and Pat Mueller beside the swimming pool.

One of the highlights of their stay was the sleigh ride to Trail Creek Cabin for dinner and dancing. Also they were fortunate to witness the Harriman Cup Races in which two Lakeview girls, Joan and Joan Saubert were entered.

Rebekahs Meet In Fort Jones

MONTAGUE—The Odd Fellows Hall in Fort Jones was attractively decorated with white stocks, white and dark pink carnations with fern and lemon branches, for the regular meeting of the Ora Rebekah Lodge No. 40 of Fort Jones, with Myrthe Wild, noble grand, presiding.

Visitors present were Eleanor Lewis, district deputy president of Etna; Laura Gossen, noble grand and Althea Palmer, warden from Aureola Rebekah Lodge No. 113 of Etna.

Jean Berry and Katie Ruff were initiated into the lodge, and the drill team headed by Captain Emily Duncan put on a very impressive drill.

During the business session Nilda Cadola was recommended for district deputy president for the coming year, which will start in May.

Twenty eight members and the three guests were served refreshments by the committee in charge. Birthday cakes were made by Nilda Cadola and Julia Erickson. The table decorations included streamers of blue and gold crepe paper, centered with three links and blue candles placed along the edge of the paper.

Among the Klamath people they told of meeting were the Bob Mests, the Brady Nareys, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hagelstein and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rajnus.

KENT AND KARLA Mayfield, 4-year-old twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Mayfield, are to model the latest styles for the very young set at the Beta Sigma Phi bridge tea and style show. The show sponsored by Fashion Villa and Bon Bazaar will be shown to guests March 21 at Reames Country Club. This is an annual affair sponsored by the five local chapters of the organization. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Dale Good, TU 2-4116. Those not wishing to play cards are invited to the silver tea and style show at 2:30 when tickets may be purchased at the door.

—Photo by Ellis

Homemakers Program Slated For Library Club

Bev Lyons, "Coco" home service director, will be the special guest of the Women's Library Club of Klamath Falls for their meeting of March 9. The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. in the city library auditorium. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Lyons' program for the Women's Library Club will feature foods that can be prepared using portable electric cooking appliances. "Tuna Supreme with Crepes" and "Cherries Jubilee" are two of the dishes Mrs. Lyons will demonstrate at the meeting.

Bids Received For Wedding

This week's mail has brought invitations to many local people to the wedding of Susan Frances Peak and Richard Lee Ward. The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock on Saturday evening, March 21, in the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Peak, former residents of Klamath Falls now living in Harbor. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ward, 1889 Leroy Street.

SHIRLEY SCHOFIELD is the bride-elect of Leonard Isaacs. The engagement was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Schofield, 1276 Lakeshore Drive. Shirley is a 1954 graduate of Malin High School and a 1958 graduate of Oregon State College where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. Presently she is employed as a social worker for the Linn County Welfare at Albany. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isaacs of Portland, graduated from Franklin High School in that city. After serving three years in the Navy Submarine Corps he is now a junior student at Oregon State College and a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

—Photo by Warren Welch, Corvallis.

So much more musical expression on this exciting new Lowrey organ

the magnificent
LOWREY Heritage organ

More exclusive features, more tonal effects, and finer cabinetry than any other organ at its popular price. Magnificent organ tone, pre-set percussion voicings, full pedal and keyboard sustain, exclusive touch-tabs for instant voice changes. And so easy anyone can start to play right away! See and play the Lowrey Heritage here, today.

FREE HOME TRIAL • EASY TERMS
MODELS AS LOW AS $399

Derby's Music Co.

126 No. 7th

Ph. TU 4-5121

AS ADVERTISED IN SEVENTEEN . . . EXCLUSIVELY OURS IN KLAMATH FALLS

Spring...

YOUTHFULNESS AND PRETTINESS by Teena Paige

A flirtatious back bow adds fashion excitement to this full skirted cotton print. Flattering scoop neck. In wash and wear printed cotton by Robarre Fabrics. Red and blue. Sizes 5-15.

10.98

Use your Leon's charge account or your Leon's budget account.

12.98

Softly inverted pleats . . . tucked rayon satin cummerbund accent this richly textured sheath. In Mandarin, a rayon and cotton shantung weave by Triplex. Lilac geranium pink, and turquoise. Sizes 5-15.

FOULGER'S Leon's
525 Main

Recital To Be Held

Sacred Heart Academy music department will present a group of intermediate music students in recital Sunday afternoon, March 8, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

A special feature of the recital will be the first movement of "Concerto in C Major" by Rachmaninoff with Cyril Rickbell as soloist, assisted by Annette Fredrickson at the second piano and members of the Cecilia String Ensemble.

Piano and violin soloists to be presented in recital include Donna Fredrickson, Judith Appelt, Michael Ann Totton, Richard Smith, Barbara Gross, Beverly McElroy, Jerry Cool, Evelyn Sherwood, Robert Cool, Barbara McNeal, Paula Andrieu, David Conlin, Rhonda Stivers, Alice Callorette, John Jendrzewski, Carlye Baker, Judith Randall, Maureen Hurley, Stephen Huettl, Pamela Meyer, Leah Lamb, Debra Kennedy, Mary Beth Moty, Paula Andrieu, Carol Moty, James Kersen, Nancy Stone, Cyril Rickbell, Annette Fredrickson.

Relatives and friends of the students are invited to attend the recital.

Bethel No. 6

International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 6, met in regular session Thursday, February 19, with Honored Queen Pat Crawley presiding in the East. Pro tem officers for the evening were Nancy Meador, Barbara Crapo, Nancy Warren, Marva Mortenson and Pat Patterson.

Plans were made for attending grand sessions in Eugene, April 9, 10 and 11. Librarian Charmion Blehn read "A Letter to a Teen-ager."

WHITE POMADE

A white lip pomade worn under your lipstick is good protection during blustery, wintry weather.

WABENO COUNCIL

WEED — A new member, Mrs. Domica Patella, was adopted into membership of Wabeno Council 231, degree of Pocahontas, by the council degree team at the regular meeting held Friday night, February 20.

Mrs. Dorothy Sottana, Pocahontas, presided and appointed Mrs. Esther Aquila, Mrs. Nita Pimental and Mrs. Geneva Hildreth as a committee for the March meeting planned as a St. Patrick's party and exchange of secret pal gifts.

The coin award for the evening went to the presiding Pocahontas, Mrs. Pearl Sharbaro, Mrs. Mae Tidmore and Mrs. Alma Killingsworth served refreshments.

Yreka Nile Club

YREKA—A potluck dinner was held by the Yreka Nile Club No. 11, of the Daughters of the Nile at the Masonic Temple in Yreka, on Wednesday evening, February 25, with approximately 100 persons present, which included members, their husbands, and other guests.

The Nile Club's main objective is making clothes for the children at the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children at San Francisco, and one of the high points of the evening was the display of garments already completed by the women. The Yreka Club also contributes funds to the hospital, and in the last six months, the group has contributed $375 out of $625 given by others.

At the close of the dinner, Mrs. Gladys Hart, current president of the club, introduced various guests after which each club member introduced their husbands and other guests.

Russell Stover CANDIES

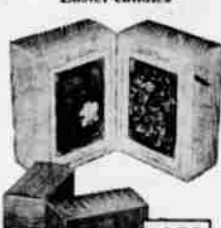

GIVE the finest...

EASTER CANDY STORE
A dozen assorted candy eggs $1.00

GAY EASTER BASKET
Filled with fresh Easter candies $1.00

EASTER CANDY BOOK $1.50

Fruit and Nut Egg and Pecan Egg $1.50

1 dozen chocolate covered MARSHMALLOW EGGS. 75¢

CHOCOLATE CREAM EGG Dipped in milk chocolate 50¢

ASSORTED CHOCOLATES 2 lb. box $2.70

CHOCOLATE AND BUTTER ROLL CREAM EGGS individually wrapped 10¢ & 15¢

exclusively ours...
WESTERN THRIFT DRUG STORE
7th and Main