

MR. AND MRS. ORESTE GIOVANNINI were honored guests at a dinner celebrating their golden wedding anniversary at Harold's Saturday evening, February 28. Mr. and Mrs. Giovannini, pioneers of Klamath Falls, were married in Liciania, Italy, February 23, 1909. They resided in Mount Shasta and McCloud before coming to this city in 1915. They are parents of six children and count 13 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Hosts to the dinner were their daughters and sons and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Pio (Angelina) D'Olivo, Mr. and Mrs. Nello (Ida) Pieruccini, Albino Giovannini of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Giovannini of Prineville and a granddaughter Mrs. Eddie Chambers and her husband, also of Klamath Falls. Nello Giovannini of Prineville and Dominic Giovannini of El Cerrito were unable to attend. A reception at the family home on Lakeport Boulevard followed the dinner. —Photo by Ferebee

CHERYL ANNE AND DANNY are children of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bradshaw of Norfolk, Virginia. Their father, a 1950 graduate of Bonanza High School, has been in the Navy for the past eight years. Their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, Shamokin, Pennsylvania, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bradshaw of Bonanza.

STORK SHOWER

FORT ROCK — Mrs. Richard Morehouse was the honored guest at a stork shower February 20 given by Mrs. Richard Brown. Mrs. Burton Brown arranged games for the enjoyment of the 20 guests present. Prizes were won by Mrs. Raymond Houston of Paisley, mother of Mrs. Morehouse and Mrs. Joe Stitz. Mrs. William O'Connor of Paisley was also a guest. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ivan Painter and Mrs. Robert Morehouse.

VOYAGE PLANS

ALTURAS — Plans are being made by Mr. and Mrs. Salve Bue of Burney to take their younger daughter, Kathleen, to Europe next summer following her graduation from Oregon State College in June. They will cross the Atlantic to Norway on the Norwegian-American steamship line after a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lon V. O'Connor of Paisley who will join them in New York City. Mrs. Spurrer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bue.

Siskiyou DAR Seats Officers

YREKA — New officers of the Siskiyou Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were installed at the recent meeting of the group, held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Lichens.

Mrs. Lichens, as installing officer, seated Mrs. Rosamond Westover, vice regent; Mrs. William Ensele, chaplain; Mrs. V. C. Derham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Conley C. Brown, treasurer; Mrs. Alfred K. Crebbin, registrar; and Mrs. Clyde M. Turner, historian.

Atlanta Adams, who was to have been installed as the new regent, was unable to be present due to illness. Also unable to be present for the installation rites were Mrs. Henry Terwilliger, recording secretary, and Mrs. Lemuel Sheppard, librarian.

During the business session, it was disclosed that two new members have received the approval of the National Society. They are Mrs. Ted Skillen of Etna, and Mrs. George H. Ensey (nee Lucille Lichens) of Fairfax, Virginia.

It was reported that six high schools in Siskiyou County had winners of good citizenship pins. The students named as winners are Betty Bisagno, Dunsmuir; Joan Van Lindt, Etna; Glea Duman, Happy Camp; Edith Ellen Muma, McCloud; Jeanne Marie Anderson, Weed; Nancy K. Whitman, Yreka.

Mrs. DeAvilla read an informative paper on the "Life and Hap-penings of Theodore Roosevelt," written by Mrs. Henry Terwilliger. Mrs. William Ensele led the devotions, while Mrs. Clyde M. Turner, flag chairman, led in the salute to the flag.

Prior to the business session, a dessert was served by hostesses Mrs. Conley C. Brown, Mrs. Jess DeAvilla, and Mrs. Lichens.

Present in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. James M. Allen Sr., Mrs. Henry Ball, Mrs. Laura Buckner, Mrs. Wilbur Martin, and Mrs. Asa R. Scott.

EULALONA DAR

The March meeting of Eulalona Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, regent presiding.

The business meeting included discussion on proposed by-law changes for the State Society of DAR. These changes will be considered at the conference to be held at Gearhart, March 5, 6 and 7.

Eulalona Chapter is pleased to welcome two new members, Mrs. Will Wood, whose ancestor was Zachariah Worley of Virginia, and Mrs. William C. Bundrant, whose ancestor was William Cline of Pennsylvania.

We have been notified that Sharon Kaiton won the DAR district award for good citizenship as well as the local chapter award. She will be honored at the State Conference along with those from other districts.

Mrs. Paul Deller added immensely to the program for the evening with her review on the book, "The DAR" by Martha Strayer, outstanding newspaperwoman of Washington D.C.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. Elmer Vincent, Mrs. Raymond Tice and Mrs. Charles Griffiths.

HOUSE PRESIDENT

Alan Eberlein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberlein, 2958 Summers Lane, has been elected president of his house, Phi Kappa Psi, at Oregon State College where he is a junior in business and technology. Representing his fraternity he spoke at a Founders Day banquet in Portland on February 21.

A DINNER PARTY at the Sportsman's Hotel in Tulelake recently, marked the eleventh year that a group of Tulelake women have played bridge together. Mrs. Jack Crawford was hostess to the group for a bridge session following the dinner. Prize winners were Mrs. Margaret McLain, Mrs. Clayton Rudesill and Mrs. Clayton Sweasy. Clockwise around the table are Mrs. Jack Clough, Mrs. Margaret McLain, Mrs. Virg Barron, Mrs. Clayton Sweasy, Mrs. Jack Crawford, Mrs. Ole Jameson, partly hidden, Mrs. Clayton Rudesill, and Mrs. John Takacs Jr. Mrs. Clough was a guest of the bridge club members.

First Lady Shops Early For Spring Summer Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mamie Eisenhower has a good head start on her new spring and summer wardrobe, with six or seven outfits in the making—including one labeled top secret.

This I gathered from a visit with Mollie Parnis, who has been making clothes for Mrs. Eisenhower since the days when her husband was head of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

The designer said the first lady has purchased six or seven new costumes. "Like many busy women, she likes to get several things at once and get her shopping out of the way," she said.

And, the designer added, Mrs. Eisenhower selected her costume before she left Washington for her second visit to that Arizona beauty and re-conditioning resort. This will be a dress-jacket costume, she said, but would not give details on fabric and silhouette. "After all," she said, "it's better to keep a special outfit secret until it's worn."

Miss Parnis said the first lady is a woman consistent in her tastes—most of the new costumes are with the full skirt and fitted waistline fashion writers call "a Mamie type."

"I have never known a woman so sure of what she wants," said the attractive and tiny designer. "I don't think of her as a fashion plate, although she's always chic. She knows what colors, and what collars, are good for her. She likes all shades of mauve and blue, loves prints—especially black and white—and always has one good basic black dress in her wardrobe."

"We've had her dressmaker dummy around here since 1952... there's been very little figure change. She's a size 12 with an alteration here and there... and what woman doesn't need some fittings?"

"I think what a woman gets at Maine Chance (the resort which Mrs. Eisenhower is visiting for the second time) is not so much a change in figure as a change in the way she feels. I know... I was there last year.

"Five pounds off won't make any difference in measurements anyway."

Mrs. Ike did her shopping the easy way. Miss Parnis just took several samples from her spring and summer collections to Washington.

Other women don't get such service—the designer sells wholesale and other Parnis customers buy through retail stores.

"But after all," said the designer, "she is the first lady."

"And in case anyone asks," said Miss Parnis firmly, "Mrs. Eisenhower pays the full price for the clothes, plus the cost of any alteration."

The designer showed me the costumes Mrs. Eisenhower selected, although she explained, "some of these will be made up in other fabrics and colors from what you're seeing. I'd just as soon not risk another duplication."

She laughingly recalled the incident at a White House reception a few years ago when both Mrs. Eisenhower and one of the guests appeared in the same dress—a blue-green printed silk, shirtwaist style.

Her new costumes include:

A polka dot printed silk, for afternoon wear. It has cummerbund waistline, and an airy but not daring neckline. The skirt is full and gathered.

A black, short-sleeved sheer cotton, in subtle, window-pane check; again, a full skirt, with unpressed pleats.

A dressy, black silk chiffon, with the skirt falling in soft folds. The fitted bodice is tucked over a black taffeta slip; and a dress and jacket costume in black and white printed bamboo silk. The jacket, with three-quarter length sleeves, is closed with two giant white buttons.

PINOCHLE PARTY

BONANZA — Mrs. George Simmons gave a pinochle party on February 18, with two tables in play. High prize for the evening went to Mrs. Jess McFall, second to Mrs. Charles Schmidt and traveling to Mrs. Fred Adams. Others enjoying the game and refreshments were Mrs. Bob Schmor, Mrs. Howard Schmidt, Mrs. Burris Dusenbury and Mrs. Edward Adams.

STORK SHOWER

MACDOEL — A stork shower was held at the home of Mrs. Lester Clark Monday evening February 16, in honor of Mrs. Jake Bell. Prizes for games played were awarded to Mrs. Roscoe Reames and Mrs. Kenneth Duncan. Guests were Mrs. Bill Wood, Mrs. Grant Longmore, Mrs. Charles Trickey, Mrs. Mark Petty, Mrs. Harold Andrus, Gwen Clark and Mrs. Ted Johnson.
