VISITING STUDENTS

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—An English language training program, part of the work being done by Michigan State University's mission to the University of Ryukyus on Okinawa, proved so popular that a group of visiting construction workers from Japan began attending the classes unnoticed. The interlopers were discovered when they were called back to Japan.

TOO MUCH TROUBLE

MARRION, Ill. (UPI)—The Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce accepted and then rejected a building offered to the Jaycees without charge by the Williamson County Airport Authority for use as a clubhouse. The group turned down the offer when it learned the concrete block building would have to be removed from the airport piece by piece.
