GRANGE NEWS

SCOTT VALLEY

GREENVIEW—The Scott Valley Grange held its regular meeting on March 4, with Alvin Lewis, master, presiding. Mrs. Alpha Hayes, color bearer, presented the flag, while the grange members sang "The Star Spangled Banner," accompained by Mrs. Eleanor Lewis on the piano.

An invitation to attend the Pomona Grange meeting to be held March 14 at Hornbrook was read by the secretary.

Mrs. Helen Lewis, lecturer, is the organizer of a degree team and all members participating in the team practiced after the close of the business meeting.

A short program was given as follows: Helen Lewis, "I Didn't Catch the Name," a contest; Bonnie Eastlick, some puns, and Warren Nelson a poem, "Taxation."

Refreshments were served at the adjournment of the meeting by the ladies of the grange.

The annual conference of first and second degrees to members of Klamath County Granges will take place March 26 at Poe Valley Grange Hall. The date previously was set for March 19.

Members of the Poe Valley and Lost River Grange units will handle the confering ceremonies.

Third and fourth degrees will be bestowed on deserving grange members from the county at Midland Grange Hall, March 31, by members of the Shasta View and Midland units.

Grange members from the county who are deserving of these degrees will not get another chance to get them until sometime next year.

MT. BOLIVAR HOME EC

ETNA — The Home Economics Club of the Mt. Bolivar Grange No. 218, held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Bob Green, Thursday evening, March 5.

Plans for the carnival to be held August 29 were made and at which time a cedar chest will be given away. Arrangements for the St. Patrick's Dance supper on March 14 were made.

Refreshments were served to members, Gladys Wooley, Dorothy Hayden, Laura Grossen, Kate Bethelsen, May Aker and Thelma McNeil.

SCOTT VALLEY HOME EC

GREENVIEW — The Home Economics Club of the Scott Valley Grange held its regular meeting in the grange hall on March 7, with Mrs. Myrtle Brown and Mrs. Gertrude Parks acting as co-hostesses. The dining tables were attractively decorated in the St. Patrick's theme.

The date for the rummage sale to be held at the grange hall was set for April 29 by the members when a luncheon will be served and a food sale given in the dining room.

Committees were appointed for 1959 by Gertrude Parks, chairman, as follows: Alpha Hayes, Myrtle Brown and Danny Duzits, cards; Beryl Sheffield, dish towels; Hazel Sheffield, aprons; Mazie McFall, dish rags and scrapbook; Mary Hanni, pillow slips, and Eva Costello, pot holders.

The members decided to make crepe paper joy balls and toys for children confined to some hospital and are sending used Christmas cards to Mrs. Edith Feldt of Orland, who makes books of them for a children's hospital.

A program was presented with Alpha Hayes presenting a reading; Pearl Davis reciting, "The World is Mine" and the closing verse by Beryl Sheffield.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Parks to the members previously mentioned and to Mrs. Juanita Evans and Mrs. Irene Nelson.

The meeting for April will be an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Eva Costello in Fort Jones with Mrs. Ethel Quadros as co-hostess.

Queen, Court To Be Named

LAKEVIEW—The campaign has started to choose a queen and her court for the Lake County Roundup and Fair this fall.

The girls for the contest will be sponsored by county organizations, granges, etc., and letters have already gone out from the committee asking that the contestants be chosen as soon as possible. The deadline for applications is May 12 and tryouts will be on May 23. The girls do not have to be from the area where the sponsors are located. Ages of the contestants can be from 16 to 19 inclusive.

On May 23 the girls will be judged for horsemanship on a 50 per cent basis. That evening here is a dinner planned for the contestants, judges and committee chairmen, at which the girls will be judged on public appearance on the remaining 50 per cent and winners will be announced.

Crowning of the queen is tentatively scheduled to coincide with a visit from Gov. Mark Hatfield on July 25.

The Centennial theme will be used throughout the roundup and fair and the girls will be dressed accordingly. Present plans are for a trip to Portland for the girls to view the Centennial activities there.
