

A PIE that's really "easy as pie" is this lovely pie made of cream cheese, sour cream and quick-frozen strawberries. Commercially soured cream is available from local creameries at the same time you get the cream cheese. The accompanying recipe used Birds Eye quick-frozen sliced strawberries.

EASY PIE

Wonder how that old saying "easy as pie" got started. Oftentimes, making a pie... a good pie, that is... isn't easy at all. But here is a recipe for a pie that really is easy to make and good as all get-out, to boot.

The filling, light and luscious, calls for only three ingredients—a package of cream cheese, a cup of sour cream and a package of quick-frozen strawberries. These are blended together and spooned into a baked graham cracker crust (this, too, is simplicity itself to make) and the whole thing goes into the freezer to firm up. Served with strawberry sauce (use another package of frozen strawberries for this), it makes a delectable dessert for spring luncheons, showers and dinners.

ANY DAY that starts off with this hearty breakfast is pretty sure to be a success. Glistening little sausages and hot corn toast (a crispy variation of French toast) will rouse up even the sleepiest morning appetites. Bright red tomato juice along with them is another cheery note for breakfast.

Crisp Corn Toast

An occasional innovation such as this crisp corn toast can make breakfast more interesting both for the family and the cook. If morning appetites seem to be lagging a bit, just try the corn toast and see if they don't perk up immediately.

This toast starts out as French toast, but after it has been dipped in the usual egg and milk mixture it gets an additional coating of yellow corn meal. You'll find this intriguing crispy texture.

Made with evaporated milk, the toast has a nice added richness of flavor and browns evenly and beautifully. Either an electric griddle or fry pan will be fine to use for making this extra special toast.

CRISP CORN TOAST

2 cups yellow corn meal
2 eggs
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups evaporated milk
2 to 3 tablespoons butter
8 slices white bread

Preheat automatic electric griddle or electric fry pan to 350 degrees. Place corn meal in a pie plate. Beat eggs in a medium size mixing bowl until yolks and whites are thoroughly blended. Stir in salt and evaporated milk. Melt about one tablespoon butter on griddle or in fry pan. Dip bread in egg-milk mixture, turning once, and let stand just until bread is moist all the way through but not too soft to handle. Place bread slices one at a time in corn meal, turning over to coat both sides. Cook in the butter until brown on under side. Turn and brown on other side. Add additional butter as needed to keep griddle or fry pan well greased. Serve hot with butter and syrup. Makes six to eight servings.

CHICKEN PIE by any other name tastes just as good. Here is the Wheat Flour Institute's version which it calls Chicken Biscuit Medley. The casserole, with rich chicken sauce and flaky golden biscuits, sings out with an unbeatable flavor for company and family dinners.

CHICKEN BISCUIT MEDLEY

Just like magic, one stewing chicken becomes two flavorful dinners when you have Chicken Biscuit Medley and Chicken Roll-Ups in your bag of kitchen tricks.

Both recipes are company fare. Chicken Biscuit Medley consists of bite-size chicken pieces, celery and carrots baked in a rich cream sauce and topped with diamond-shaped Golden Biscuits.

Chicken Roll-Ups are dainty pastries with a piquant filling of diced chicken, mayonnaise, lemon juice and chopped parsley. Serve them individually as appetizers or pour Quick 'n Easy Mushroom Sauce over the top of several roll-ups and feature them for lunch or supper.

CHICKEN

1 4-pound stewing chicken cut up
1 cup chopped celery tops
2 large onions, sliced
1 tablespoon salt

Place ingredients in 6-quart saucepot. Cover with water. Simmer covered about 2 hours or until chicken is tender. Strain broth and skim off fat. Remove chicken from bones and cut in small pieces. Set aside 2 cups chicken for Chicken Roll-Ups. Use remaining chicken for Chicken Biscuit Medley.

CHICKEN BISCUIT MEDLEY

1/2 cup chicken fat or butter
1/2 cup enriched flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups chicken stock
1 cup milk
2 cups diced chicken (about)
1 cup diced carrots, cooked
1 cup chopped celery, cooked

Heat chicken fat or butter in saucepan. Stir in flour and salt. Gradually add chicken stock and milk, stirring constantly until sauce is thickened. Place chicken, carrots and celery in 2-quart casserole. Pour hot sauce over, and stir until well blended. Top with Golden Biscuits. Bake immediately in moderately hot oven (400) 15 minutes.

GOLDEN BISCUITS

CHICKEN ROLL-UPS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
