JUST A LITTLE goofed up were these items which appeared during a final checkout on the Capehart housing being constructed near Kingsley Field. The entire 290 homes were recently completed and a final inspection made. The "goof ups" were intentional, however, and served to evoke humor but not approval. Shown here are Lisle C. Pratt, head project supervisor, left, and A. C. Barnett, general plumbing superintendent. Occupancy of the homes is just about completed. The homes were built by the Gresham-Alcan Construction Company at a cost of $4,785,000.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in the history of the Mount Shasta High School Parent Teacher Association the group awarded a life membership in the organization. Mrs. Nadine Clark, left, is shown presenting the award to Mrs. Gladys Jensen, right, in recognition of the time Mrs. Jensen has given to public enterprises. The ceremony took place at the recent Founders Day program of the PTA.

PAUL ORTWEIN, left, and Bill Honnold, right, Lakeview, are the proud owners of a new Call-Air plane for dusting, spraying and seeding. The plane has a quick dump valve that can unload 110 gallons in three seconds, and thus can qualify for efficient use in fire control. Honnold's small daughter is shown on the plane, which can spray fields of one and five acres as well as larger ones.

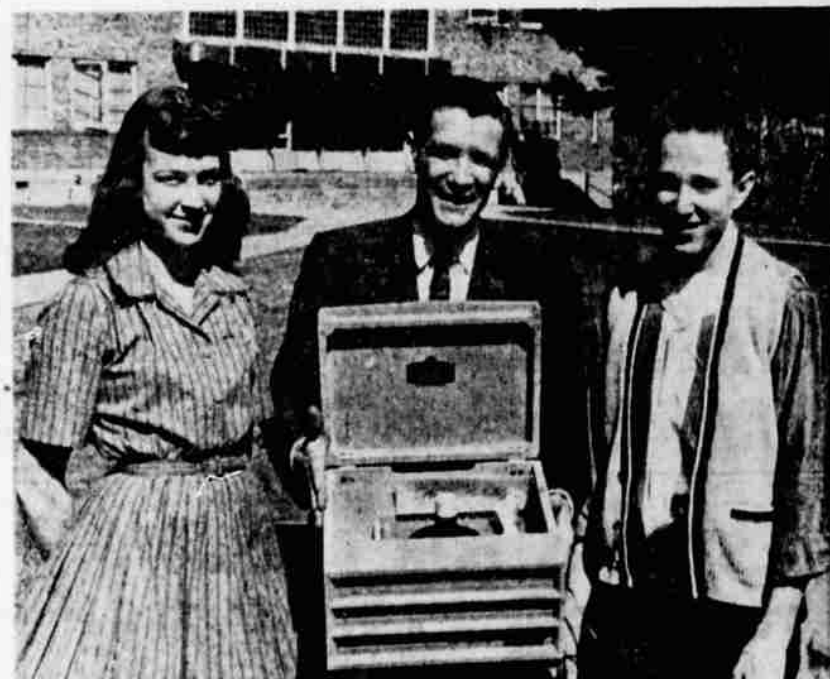

HONORED on his birthday recently, Coach Al Samples of the Bly High School is shown with members of the basketball team and managers as they surprised him at his home. Mrs. August Tikkanen and Mrs. Bill Tucker served birthday refreshments to the group, and then Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pruitt were hosts at a steak dinner at the Halfway House and the theater afterwards.

BY RAIL OR BY HIGHWAY is the mode of travel of this new "convertible" which the Southern Pacific Company has given to Robert R. Robinson, Shasta Division superintendent at Dunsmuir, for use in inspecting various portions of the division that are difficult to reach on foot or by road. This is the first such vehicle acquired by Southern Pacific and provided for Robinson's use because the Shasta Division has such a varied and often remote trackage. The car was delivered to Robinson, who is at the wheel, on March 6.

LUCKY WINNER of a 45 rpm hi-fidelity RCA record player in a recent radio contest sponsored by Coca-Cola was Doug Floyd, right, student at KUHS, who is being presented with the prize by Bob Inch, KFJL deejay, who runs the program. At left is Carolyn Ball, one of the KUHS student representatives. Presentation was made on the KUHS campus recently.

RENO MAYOR Len Harris is being presented with an invitation to visit Klamath Falls on his way to the Oregon Centennial Exposition later this year by a band of Kurbstone Kowpokes who spent a recent weekend in Reno. Left to right, Lloyd Mudder, Bill Opie, Brad Bradley, Carl Douglas, Earl Sheridan, Mayor Harris, Bob Wilson, Jerry Henniger and Bill Kinsey. In background, Bill Finch is atop the car.

HER WEIGHT IN GROCERIES was won by Mrs. Clayton Wiard, 2731 Wiard Street, as one of the prizes in the Money Game on KFLW every morning at 10:30. Mrs. Wiard won her groceries and $69 on a special card secured at the Big Y Market. She is shown here collecting her weight in foodstuffs as Ron Phair, Big Y owner-manager, left, looks on, and Stu Wilson, KFLW owner-manager, presents her with 69 silver dollars.

UNIDENTIFIED SKIERS enjoyed sunshine and ideal skiing at the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl recently. Skiing is still good at the Bowl and on a clear day, the view is magnificent.
