GRANGE NEWS

GRANGE CEREMONIES
NEW PINE CREEK—Around 20 grangers from New Pine Creek drove to Valley Falls last Saturday night where the Eastside Grange conducted third degree ceremonies and the Valley Falls Grange conducted fourth degree proceedings.

Both teams were praised highly by the State Grange dignitaries present, which included State Overseer and Deputy Henry Hendrickson, State Gatekeeper and Deputies County Deputy Roy Means at Redmond, and Lake County Deputy Mrs. Amy Cloud of New Pine Creek.

In his pointed remarks following conference of degrees, Hendrickson not only praised the beauty of the two teams' performance but also emphasized that the two degrees stress the fraternal significance of all grange work which is performed in faith, hope and charity and in truth, friendship and fidelity.

Means emphasized the importance of first impressions as expressed in the overseer's charge, upon the new candidates in promoting and maintaining a good regular grange attendance. Mrs. Amy Cloud expressed appreciation for the way the two teams had practiced, rewarding not only themselves with a creditable performance but also, by so doing, performing a great and lasting service to all the granges of the country, and contributing to the advancement of all grange work in general.

After the meeting, members danced to piano music by Mrs. Laura Newton until around 11 p.m. when refreshments were served. Everyone from New Pine Creek said they enjoyed the hospitality.

of the Valley Falls Grangers, and it is predicted by the experience that there will be a greater interchange of visits between the granges.

Girl Scouts From Bly Give Promotional Ceremony

BLY—A large group of people attended the last meeting of the Bly Parents and Patrons Club when promotion ceremonies were presented by the Bly Girl Scouts.

The program was opened by Sherrice Rentle, senior girl scout, as announcer. Troup 44, with Margaret Obenchain, Kathy O'Neil, Davena Ogle and Melanie Ward who sang the Brownie "Smile Song" and gave the Brownie promise. Mrs. Reva O'Neil is their leader.

Joanne Brady, Senior Girl Scout, was narrator for Troup 24, whose leaders are Mrs. Dorothy Fairfield and her assistant, Mary Hague. The group presented the Brownie Story in pantomime, depicting a home scene, which showed the children learning to help their parents. The following Brownies took part in the pantomime: Karen Fairfield, Frankie Hague, Jeanie Thompson, Cindy Larson, Karen Little, Patty Patzke, Jodine Anderson and Judy Ashford.

Mrs. Juanita Nelson's group of Brownies were promoted to the Intermediate Scout group. A Fly-up ceremony was held, with Joanne Brady conducting the ceremony. Mrs. Nelson presented them
