Diane Lapo Is Bride Of Herb W. Schlecht

In a double ring ceremony at the Faith Tabernacle February 28, Diane Lapo became the bride of Herb W. Schlecht, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Schlecht of Merrill. The Rev. W. D. Bigby performed the 8 o'clock evening ceremony in the presence of 100 guests. Tall white tapers in candelabra flanked the altar which was decorated with arrangements of pink and white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lapo of Klamath Falls, was escorted down the white carpeted aisle by her father. Her floor length gown of lace over satin featured a fitted bodice with a dropped waistline and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. The dress was fastened down the back by a row of lace and satin covered buttons. A small sequin trimmed flat hat held her fingertip veil and she carried pink rosebuds with stephanotis florets knotted in satin streamers on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Dean Weston was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Janet Grow and Karen McDonald. They wore ballerina length frocks of blue net and pink flowers in their hair. They carried bouquets of pink rosebuds tied with white streamers.

Barbara Bigby was flower girl and Leslie Schmitt carried the rings. LeRoy Schlecht was best man for his brother and ushers were H. D. Weston and Terry D. Sherrill. The candles were lighted by Marvin and Marilyn Yunk.

The soloist, Mrs. George Dodson, was accompanied by the Rev. Eddie Bigby.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Lapo, chose a tan suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Schlecht wore a navy blue dress trimmed in white and a blue and white hat. Corsages of dark red roses were worn by both.

A three tiered cake decorated with pink roses and love birds was served to guests at the reception in the church social room following the ceremony. Assisting were Randy Lapo, brother of the bride, Paula Hamersley, Mrs. Ray Yunk, Mrs. Hamersley, Mrs. Ted Paillette, Coral Fuller, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mrs. J. Ziahek.

For traveling the new Mrs. Schlecht changed to a pink suit worn with white accessories. She is a senior at KUHS. Her husband graduated from Merrill High School and is now employed at Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Faculty Wives Hear Mrs. Stone

The March meeting of the City Faculty Wives Club was held at the home of Mrs. Elton Gell.

Mrs. Bob Johnson, president, conducted the business meeting which included discussion of the forthcoming dinner-fashion show tentatively set for Monday, April 13, at the Willard Hotel.

The group was fortunate in having Mrs. Buena Stone, historian and teacher, as their guest speaker for the evening. Her talk centered on the early history of Fort Klamath and its little known but very important role as a social center for the area. She related both humorous and serious episodes making her talk extremely interesting as well as educational.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. David Davis, Mrs. Arnold Gralapp, Mrs. Lowell Kaup, Mrs. Andrew Loney, Mrs. James Scott and Mrs. Leslie Fischer. The refreshment table was decorated in a Centennial motif.

Bethel No. 6

Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, celebrated their 35th birthday anniversary at a regular meeting Thursday, March 5, with Honored Queen Pat Crawley presiding in the east.

Escorted and given a welcome were Becky Short, honored queen of Bethel 51, Henley; Jo Ann Bloom, honored queen of Bethel 47, Lakeview; Diana Banister, past honored queen of Bethel 6; princesses, Claudia Harris and Sandra Watts, Bethel 47; Mr. and Mrs. William Van Cleave, guardian and associate guardian of Bethel 47; Gretchen Thompson, guardian of Bethel 51, and Mrs. Minnie Grizzle, first guardian of Bethel 6.

Introduced and given a welcome were Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian and past guardian of Bethel 6; Barbara Mollison, grand first messenger and past guardian of Bethel 6; Cole Brown, past guardian of Bethel 51; Julie Rhodes, marshal of Bethel 51; Jo Ann Taylor and Dottie Riker, members of Bethel 51, and Zeph Warren, charter member of Bethel 6.

Initiated into the order were Sandra Harris and Susan Glassow. Pro tem officer for the evening was Janet Lee.

After the meeting a reception was held in honor of Barbara Mollison, grand first messenger of the grand council of Oregon, and Pat Crawley, grand marshal of the grand Bethel, in an attractively decorated dining room, of which the focal point was a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Dessert Served To Auction Club

MONTAGUE — Mrs. Mildred Long served a dessert luncheon to the members of the Little Shasta Auction Club, when they gathered at her ranch home in Little Shasta Wednesday afternoon, March 11.

During a brief business session, the group voted to make contributions as follows: Red Cross, $20; Crippled Children's Society, $10; and the Heart Fund in memory of the late Glen Perry, $5.

Winners for the afternoon's play were Mrs. Elsie Butler, high; Mrs. Andrew Soule, low; and Mrs. Larry Walters, traveling prize.

Others present in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. Albee Davis, Mrs. E. Orlo Davis, Mrs. Gladys Hart, Mrs. Allie Moore, Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger, Mrs. Sid Terwilliger, Mrs. Ernest Williams, all of Little Shasta; Mrs. Ralph Leavers and Mrs. Minnie Tamisela, both of Montague. Those present from Yreka included Jessie Conrod, Mrs. Jennie Mathews, Mrs. Ora McGregor, and Mrs. Edna Muzzall.

The club will meet on Wednesday afternoon, April 8, at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hart in Little Shasta.

POTLUCK

The Business and Professional Women's Club had a potluck dinner at the City Library March 16. Absent members were reported to have missed a wonderful meal and a fun evening.

The ladies made and wore all kinds of cute and crazy hats. Prizes were given to Betty O'Leary and Dorothea Nolan for the prettiest hats. The most attractive Easter bonnet was worn by Dorothy Sack. Dorothy Bortis wore the most edible chapeau and Wanda Elliott the heaviest. Alpha Phelps wore the best Centennial hat. A cabbage leaf was judged the most original headgear.

A short business meeting was conducted by Alice Gallup, president, after which guests played games.

The next meeting will be April 6 in the Willard Hotel when the Soroptimist Club will be host to the Quota and BPW clubs.

Couple Returns From Vacation

A six weeks vacation ended Sunday for Dr. and Mrs. J. Martin Adams when they arrived by plane from San Francisco after a cross country trip from Miami, Florida.

They were accompanied on the first week of their trip by their daughters, Sandra and Sharon, who were on vacation from their freshman studies at San Jose State College. The week was spent in Las Vegas where Dr. Adams participated in a trap shooting meet.

After the girls had returned to school the Adams spent a few days in Palm Springs, then flew to New York City stopping in Montgomery, Alabama, for a short visit with friends.

On February 21 they boarded the MS Italia as members of the medical seminar cruise sponsored by the New York University of Medicine. Some of the ports visited during the two week cruise included Puerto Rico, St. Thomas, Haiti and Nassau.

During their stay in Miami, following the cruise, Dr. Adams attended the Southeastern Surgical Congress.

CRYSTAL CHOKERS

Black-and-white crystals are blended in chokers of many strands for spring. Colored crystals also appear in the design, length, sometimes in combination with flat white beads.

Older Girls' Conference Slated For Mid April

The 46th annual Older Girls' Conference, sponsored by the United Church Women of Oregon, will be held April 3, 4, and 5 at the Boy Scout Training Center on Mount Scott in southeast Portland.

OGC, as it is affectionately called, is an inter-denominational, inter-racial association of girl leaders of high school and college age.

The theme of this year's conference is "Wider Grows the Trail."

The program for the three days is built around workshops in different fields of Christian life, and panel discussions, featuring prominent, professional women: Martha Schull, past president of The National Education Association; Mrs. Martha McKewon, well known Oregon author; Mrs. Hayden Kimbrell, Christian Education Director, and others.

An interesting tradition carried out at OGC is that of identifying the leaders of the conference by Indian terminology. This practice impresses upon the girls the meaning of their Oregon heritage.

The final convocation of the conference, and a highlight, will be the communion service, officiated by Dr. Mark Talney, executive secretary of the Oregon Council of Churches.

Donna Fields, conference president, will preside at the three-day conference. Freeda Hartzfeld, dean of Women at Lewis and Clark College, director of the conference, and Mrs. Kay Somers, assistant director, will be advising the council of girls.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. W. D. Elliott and Mrs. Richard Teater.

A white elephant sale was held after which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Other members present were Mrs. Charles M. Larson, Mrs. Ray Aschenbach, Mrs. Cieta Paddock, Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Neil McEachern, Mrs. Virgil Koehn, Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. Jack Paddock, Mrs. J. L. Van Pelt, Mrs. Preston Card, Mrs. Carl Pernotti, Mrs. James Sweatt, Mrs. Bert Hegler and Mrs. Joe Wachter.
