Annell Gaster Is Bride In Methodist Ceremony

Annell Gaster and Robert V. Reagle exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony on Valentine's Day at the First Methodist Church. The nuptial service was read by the Rev. S. Dallas McNeil. Candelabra holding tall white tapers stood on each side of the altar which was decorated with bouquets of pink carnations and white stock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Gaster of this city. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Reagle of Salem are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a princess style halter-length gown of white Chantilly lace and a shoulder length veil. She carried white orchids and stephanotis tied with white ribbon streamers on a white prayer book.

Her only attendant was her sister, Darlene Gaster, maid of honor, who wore a taffeta print frock and carried a pink heart centered with a bouquet of white carnations with long white streamers.

Kenneth Reagle, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Herb Kurra and Albert Gaster.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Arthur Denison at the organ.

A reception in the church parlors followed the wedding. A three tiered cake, topped by a bride and bridegroom and decorated with pink and white hearts, roses and white doves, was served by Mrs. Herb Kurra and Mrs. Albert Gaster, both aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Harold Weber presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Sam A. Gaster, grandmother of the bride, poured coffee. The guest book was attended by Dena Ross.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaster, Garwin and Karen from Napa, California; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Morrow, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Reagle and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bennett from Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reagle and Karen of Dallas, Oregon.

A pre-nuptial affair honored the bride-elect on January 31 when Dean Ross entertained friends and relatives at a bridal shower.

TRAVELERS RETURN—Among recent Chemult residents returning from winter vacations was Mrs. Sophie Long who spent the winter season with relatives in Hayward. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell returned from a winter in Phoenix. Expected sometime this week are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Farris also from Phoenix and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Darnell who will be returning from vacationing with their daughter and family, the Rex Jeffords of San Antonio.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED—MONTAGUE—Mrs. Anna Zoren received word March 21 from her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Zoren, of the birth of their first son. The baby, named Elvin Oliver, weighed 9 lbs. and 6 ozs. when he arrived March 21 in Portland, Oregon.

Parents Greet New Arrivals

This week's mail brought news of the birth of a daughter, their first child, to Mr. and Mrs. John Gillilan of Montclair, California. Clever announcements made by the parents used lettering on children's building blocks to tell that Kristin Suzanne weighed 6 pounds, 5 ounces on arrival. Two small green shamrocks emphasized her March 17 birthday. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillilan of this city are grandparents.

It's a quartet now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton O. Hyde with the arrival of John Livingston, second son. He tipped the scales at 7 pounds, 3 ounces when he arrived March 19. Mrs. Hyde's mother, Mrs. Gerda Isenberg, came from her home in Palo Alto to care for the three other youngsters until their mother and new brother came home from the hospital.

Frank Tarrs End Island Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr have returned to their home from a vacation in Hawaii. They made the trip by plane and were greeted on their arrival in Honolulu by their son, Ron, and Lois Stewart, former Klamath Falls residents.

They were guests during their stay at the Breakers Hotel on Waikiki Beach. Their son, Ron Tarr, who teaches in the Palama School of Music, proved an excellent guide and escorted them on many tours of the island. They visited sugar and pineapple plantations and also Pearl Harbor.

The Tarrs visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey at the Halekulani Hotel and were present at a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Neill aboard the SS Mariposa.

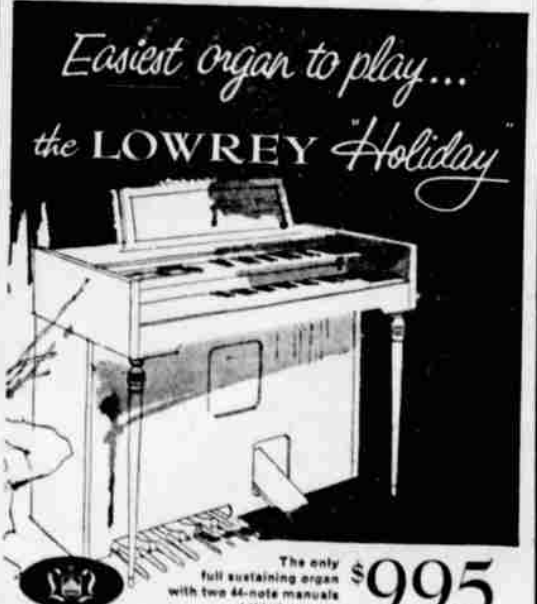

Statehood Day was a thrilling experience they reported. Kaiser's radio station had direct wires open to Washington, D.C. so that news of the president's signature was told immediately. A two day school holiday was given and banners and posters already made were quickly displayed by the overjoyed residents of the island.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS THOMSON of Bly, Oregon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Georgia Ellen, to Paul F. Dunning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne F. Dunning Sr. of Ellensburg, Washington. Both young people are employed at Boeing's in Seattle. The wedding will take place May 9 in the Holy Family Church at Seattle.

NAOMI SHRINE

Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, met in regular session on March 14 in the Masonic Temple, with Helen McCormack, Worthy High Priestess and Dale Howell, Watchman of the Shepherds presiding in the East.

Memorial services for the year were conducted with line officers WHP and WOS participating in an altar ceremony. Those departed members honored in memoriam were John Jones, Oregon's Past Supreme WOS, C. S. Elliot, Helen Spiker and Corinne Larson, Past WHP of Naomi Shrine.

This meeting being the final and annual one for the 1938-1939 officers, reports were given and compliments extended for a most successful year under the leadership of WHP Helen and WOS Dale.

Election of new officers was held with the following elected for 1939-1940: Ruth Rodenberger, WHP; Elvin Phillips, WOS; Luella Chilcote, Noble Prophetess; Frank McCormack, AWOS; Phyllis May, Worthy Scribe; Lucille Wirtz, Worthy Treasurer; Lois Mitchell, Worthy Chaplain; Lois Murphy, Worthy Shepherdess; and Vida Phillips, Worthy Guide. Open installation for the new officers will be an event for Saturday, March 28, 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

A lovely Irish addenda for the outgoing WHP and WOS was given by NP Ruth Rodenberger and AWOS Elvin Phillips, a chorus of members singing Irish songs as WHP Helen was presented a green umbrella decorated with "Green" gifts and WOS Dale, a green walking cane, of "green" gifts.

After the meeting closed all officers and members were entertained at a sumptuous buffet supper by WHP Helen McCormack and WOS Dale Howell as a farewell party and thank you for the year.

The dining room was decorated with emblems, pink and white dogwood, and pink tapers all portraying the years work.

Officers' Wives Hold Luncheon

The March Luncheon of the Officers' Wives Club of Kingsley Field, was held Thursday, March 14 at the Officers' Club, with Mrs. Melba Mallon presiding.

Tying in with the Easter theme, was a millinery fashion show, featuring hats and accessories for the spring season. The fashion commentary was given by Maxine Cooper, of Miller's. Models, chosen from members of the club, were Mrs. Elisabeth Williams, Mrs. Dolores Jones, Mrs. Ann Toland and Mrs. Beverly Pelouquin.

A short business meeting was held, with Mrs. Mallon introducing the new chairman of the committees. The chairmen present were Mrs. Irene Jeffcoat, publicity, and Mrs. Katherine Baker, hobbies. Not present were Mrs. Ursula Rappun, ways and means committee, Mrs. Ruth Anderson, hospitality, and Mrs. Helen Del Rosario, family services. Mrs. Melba Leo, the new parliamentarian of the Wives Club was also introduced.

Announcement was made that meetings will be held on the second and fourth Thursday of each month at one o'clock at the Officers' Club.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Peggy Holloway, Mrs. Thelma Moberly and Mrs. Marian Burrell.

NEW COLOR MATES

Most green and turquoise may seem a surprising color combination, but they're lovely together. You'll see them in many fashion combinations this spring.
