CLIPPER CLUB

ETNA—The St. Patrick theme was carried throughout the meeting of the Clipper Club at their recent meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Andrews with Claude Cassidy, skipper, presiding.

During the business session the foreign exchange student program was discussed. It was voted to ask various Scott Valley organizations for financial aid to secure $650 which is the financial requisite of the program. At present the club has pledges amounting to $100. Serving on the committee are members Doris Tuttle, chairman, Clarence Dudley, Dr. F. A. Andrews, Jane Cassidy and Wes Sorenson.

Family Visits State Capitol

SUMMER LAKE—Among visitors at the state capital in Salem during spring vacation were Mrs. James Foster and four daughters of Summer Lake. Terry Ann, Janice and Elaine served as pages in the House of Representatives Tuesday, as guests of their grandparents, Rep. and Mrs. Thomas R. McClellan, while Mrs. Foster and Elizabeth, 6, observed the legislative proceedings from the gallery.

The girls attend school at Paisley where Terry Ann is in the eighth grade; Janice, seventh; and Elaine, the fourth, which her mother teaches.

The Fosters live on a ranch 25 miles north of Paisley and drive to school each day.

LIONS AUXILIARY

The March meeting of the Klamath Falls Lions Auxiliary was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Estin Kiger. The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Hal Shidler, Mrs. Jack Bothwell and Mrs. Wayne Newton.

Mrs. Phyllis Christian, director of district E for the Oregon Lions Auxiliary was a guest. This was Mrs. Christian's official visit to the Klamath Falls club. Mrs. James Missett and Mrs. Harvey Denham of the Toketee Lions Auxiliary were also guests.

Two KUHS students, members of Ruby Alloway's advanced speech class, presented the program. Karen Mode, who was the winner for Oregon in the "I Speak for Democracy Contest," gave her original speech. She received a trip to Washington D.C. recently where she competed with other finalists.

Jim Mills presented a very entertaining humorous speech.

The next meeting will be April 13 at the home of Mrs. N. S. Hepburn.

VACATION TRIP

MOUNT SHASTA — Mrs. C. D. Hartley left this week by plane for Pittsburgh, where she will spend a month visiting with her son, Robert, and his family. He is an executive with Westinghouse Electric Corporation and was recently transferred to Pittsburgh from New York.

WYLIE LEA WALKER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Walker of Merrill, was 1-year-old on March 13. One pink candle adorned the pink and white frosted three tiered cake which was shared by ten small guests. Out-of-town guests were Camey and Scotty Lane from Klamath Falls and Betsy, Judy and Dwain Walden of Tulelake. From Merrill were Nancy Coulson, Debbie and Vic Shuck, Tillie Walker and Dean Rippey. Special guest was the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Russell Haynes of Tulelake. —Photo by Miller-Williams
