

MR. AND MRS. DONALD L. BOUDON and two sons were guests during spring vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Boudon, 4310 Highland Way. Also a guest was Mrs. E. G. Stewart, the babies' great

PLAYERS CLUB

Mrs. Ellen Jackson, Mrs. Julia Williams and Mrs. Carrie Lowther were hostesses when Players Club met at the city library Wednesday evening, March 18. Dessert was served at 8 o'clock from a table decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. Lee Holliday, president, conducted the short business meeting. Plans were made for a dinner to be held at the Moose Hall on April 1. The social hour will begin at 6 o'clock and dinner will be served by the Ladies of the Moose at 7. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Lee Holliday at TU 4-7917 or Mrs. N. S. Hepburn at TU 4-3331. All members are urged to attend and bring guests.

Prizes for bridge went to Mrs. Trudy Smart and Mrs. Gladys Tennant. Pinchle winners were Mrs. Evelyn Waldrum and Mrs. Sybil Nolan.

BETHEL NO. 51

Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, met in regular session Monday evening, March 2, with Honored Queen Becky Short presiding. There was a large attendance of members and visitors, in honor of Dad's night. The Bethel daughters took their fathers to a hamburger feed in the banquet hall before the meeting. The charge was 5 cents an inch for their fathers' waist measurements. The daughters raised a very substantial sum and the fathers had a relaxing evening of fun and entertainment.

Julie Rhodes reported on the hat check concession at the Shrine crab feed. She reported that the girls made approximately $85. The Bethel daughters sold coffee and doughnuts at the Lister sale March 8 as another fund raising project. Honored Queen Becky plans to have a "come as you are" kidnap breakfast some time in the near future.

The next Bethel meeting will be held Tuesday, March 31, at the Henley Grange Hall immediately after school, when Inne Goodenough, grand guardian of the guardian council of the state of Oregon pays her official visit. After the meeting, the Bethel daughters are urged to attend the potluck dinner to be held at Bethel 6, in honor of the grand guardian.

The meeting was adjourned with a very clever report given by Susie Williams, librarian, on "Say That Again—Slowly."

TRAVELERS RETURN

MOUNT SHASTA — Mrs. Mary Dorlaque returned Monday, March 16, from a month's visit with her parents, the J. S. Gomers of Kansas City, and her husband's parents, the F. A. Dorlaques in St. Louis. She was accompanied by her young grandson, Ronald Gilliland, who was accorded a wonderful vacation by the four great grandparents.

BON BAZAAR... of course!

STYLE PRE-VIEW
for the
HEIR APPARENT

Cut a fashionable figure during your waiting days! See our new casual and dressy styles... figure concealing, fashion conscious! Choose from the largest selection of maternities in Klamath Falls!

Lovely new TOPPERS from	$2.98
Smart 2-pc. DRESSES	$12.95
Pedal Pushers, Jamais and slim capris $2.98 and	$3.98

BUY ON REVOLVING CHARGE OR LAY-AWAY

Low, Low Prices. Plus Green Stamps!

the Bon Bazaar

4480 So. 6th

Next to Oregon Food

grandmother from Standard, California. The four generations are pictured above, left to right, Mrs. George Boudon, Mrs. Stewart, Donald Boudon, holding Byron Paul, 1½, left, and Douglas Michael, 6 months. On the maternal side the little boys have great grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lambrecht in Stayton, Oregon, and great grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lambrecht, also in Stayton and Mrs. Josephine Schlies of Scio. Donald Boudon is a graduate of KUHS and Willamette University. For the past three years he has been teaching vocal music in Memorial Elementary School at McMinnville, Oregon.

—Photo by Ellis

Club Members Hear Memoirs

NEW PINE CREEK—Mrs. Bona Facis read the memoirs of the late Mrs. William P. Heryford, prominent Lake County pioneer and mother of 10 children, who had crossed the plains in 1866, at the Saturday afternoon meeting of the Needle Club at the home of Mrs. Faye Keller Rose, Mrs. Heryford's granddaughter.

Mrs. Heryford lived almost all of her life in the big house on the Old Seventy Ranch, near Drew's Gap, where travelers were always welcomed. Mrs. Rose, whose mother had been a charter member of the club, also honored all old members of the club and present members whose birthdays are in March. Each received a hand-tooled leather coin purse with their names embossed upon them. Honored were Mrs. Jewel Campbell, a former member of the club who now lives at Bly; Mrs. Alpha Hartzog, Mrs. Myra Robinson, Mrs. Ruth Brickey, Mrs. Bell Moffitt and Mrs. Cora B. Follette. The last three are residents of Lakeview.

Other invited guests were Mrs. Edna Ayres and Elsie Green of Lakeview; Sadie Reynolds and Mary Peat, both daughters of the late Mary Heryford, also of Lakeview; and Maude Butler and Ethyl Cundiff.

Members present were Mrs. Birdie Cruton, Mrs. Hilda Lenkeit, Mrs. Clara Cloud, Mrs. Kathryn Dick, Mrs. Thelma Butler, Mrs. Bona Faris, Mrs. Susan Vincent, Mrs. Hilda Holt, Mrs. Bernice Moffitt, Lakeview, and Mrs. Grace Bernard, now of Alturas.

Refreshments of Shamrock ice cream, birthday cake and coffee were served by the hostess.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM QUIBELL were married February 21 in the First Nazarene Church with the Rev. Grady Estes of the Calvary Baptist Church reading the service in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride was formerly Mrs. Christine Reed, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Powell of Nampa, Idaho. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Annie Quibell of this city. The couple was attended by Mrs. Boyd Eoff, daughter of the bride, and Jack Powell. Soloists were Mrs. William Foltz and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Eoff, accompanied by Ramona Reed, daughter of the bride. Mrs. W. L. Geiger, Mrs. Lois Dunn and Mrs. Florence Chambers assisted at the reception which followed at the home of the bridegroom, 2222 Garden Avenue, where the newlyweds will reside.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Quibell and Mrs. E. F. Luderman of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Eoff and family and Ramona Reed, all of Homedale, Idaho.

Party Honors Portland Visitor

Mrs. Mary Welis was hostess March 24 at a surprise handkerchief shower honoring her houseguest, Mrs. Patricia Henry of Portland. The Easter motif was used for the luncheon served to 30 guests. Games were played during the afternoon.

Mrs. Henry, who is state musician for the Eagles Lodge, came to Klamath Falls to be present for the visitation of the Grand Madame President of the lodge. She returned by plane to her home on Wednesday.

ETNA BPW CLUB

ETNA — On Tuesday evening, March 10, at the home of Reita Campbell, the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club was held with Dorothy Hayden, president, conducting the affair. Following the regular business meeting, a discussion was held and arrangements were decided on for entertaining of the Junior and Senior high school girls in May.

Reita Campbell, chairman of career advancement, was appointed program chairman and Bertha Stone appointed chairman of the refreshment committee. A nominating committee was appointed preceding a discussion and expressing ideas for the betterment of the club. It was decided that an investigation will be made regarding a room offered the women to rent as their club room. The sale of odds and ends which took place netted the club $8. This little sale has become customary at the meetings to raise extra funds to benefit the club.

HELEN'S Beauty Salon

New Location
4717 So. Sixth
Phone TU 4-4202
Anytime

I'VE THROWN AWAY MY GLASSES FOREVER!

Dr. Noles new, modern-miracle contact lenses have given me an entirely new outlook on life. Tiny as a teardrop... tissue-thin... unbreakable... easy and comfortable to use... unless I tell them, people never know I am wearing Dr. Noles precision-ground optical plastic lenses for corrective vision.

- * Can be worn all day long
- * Freedom from old-style glasses
- * Perfect for social wear
- * Safe for sports and work
- * No charge for credit

our 54th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
730 Main St., Klamath Falls, Ore.

Dr. Stanley E. Anderson
OF OUR STAFF AVAILABLE FOR CONSULTATION
ALL DAY APRIL 3 & 4

MOVE OVER DAD...

Now little sister can play the Hammond Chord Organ

Even though she cannot read a single word!

The New

ANICHORD

Method of playing the Hammond Chord Organ without reading music, words or numbers!

It's a simple kit and instruction book that can be used on any organ... enabling even the youngest child to play nursery rhymes and children's songs.

only 1.95

To master the Anichord, your child needs to read neither words nor music... you simply show him how to match up the animals on the pages with the corresponding animals on the cut-out keyboard and match the color buttons.

Try it on your organ now! Give even the smallest member of your family the thrill of playing beautiful music on the Hammond Chord Organ.

Prepared especially for home instruction of pre-school children, kindergartners, and pupils in the early stages, Anichord music requires no outside teacher. Introduce your child to the thrill of playing familiar nursery songs, easily and at once.

LOUIS R. MANN PIANO CO.

120 North 7th

Phone TU 4-7182

CLOSE OUT

EVERYTHING

1/3 OFF

WHILE SALE LASTS

• WATCHES

• RINGS

• WATCH BANDS

• EARRINGS

• AND ALL OTHER STOCK

Examples

DIAMOND RING SET Reg. $135

NOW $90 Tax Included

17 Jewel Ladies Bulova Reg. 29.75

NOW $19.95 Tax Included

Moving in with Beachs Jewelry, 834 Main in their Watch Repairing Dept. after April 15th.

DALE B. TEPPER

JEWELER

116 So. 8th

U. S. BANK BLDG.

A JUNE WEDDING is planned by Janice Ellen Guley and James H. Koehler, whose engagement was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Guley of this city. The bride-elect will graduate from KUHS in June. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Koehler Sr., is a 1955 graduate of KUHS and is presently employed by Safeway Stores.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Nancy Cora Lentz to Alan D. Soule has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Pearl M. Lentz. Robert J. Lentz of Medford is her father. The bride-to-be is a senior at KUHS. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Soule of Montague, California, was graduated from Trinity High School and served three years with the Army in France. He is now attending OTI. The wedding date has not been set.

—Photo by Miller-Williams