

Spears-Burney Rites In Faith Tabernacle

Pink carnations and white stock against a background of palms and greenery decorated Faith Tabernacle on March 15 when Sandra L. Burney exchanged wedding rites with James Lee Spears. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. D. Bigby before 300 guests. The bridegroom is the son of

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest L. Spears, former residents of this city now living in Dorris. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Burney, was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown of white slipper satin, featuring insets of Chantilly lace, was fashioned with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a chapel train. A white and silver halo held a fingertip illusion veil. She carried white roses and stephanotis tied with satin streamers on a Bible.

Sharon Burney, maid of honor for her sister, wore a floor length gown of pale lavender nylon net over taffeta. Janet Grow and Sue Brewer were bridesmaids. They wore yellow frocks made in a style identical to that worn by the maid of honor. All carried lavender and yellow colonial bouquets.

Glenda McGuire, train bearer, wore a dress of lavender nylon. Juanice and Carolyn Spears, sisters of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. They wore blue nylon dresses and pink carnation headbands, and carried candles encircled with pink carnations. Sherry Webb was the flower girl dressed in white nylon and pink carnation headband. She carried a basket of pink rose petals. The rings were carried on a white satin pillow by Bobby Carroll.

Best man was Don Weston and ushers were Dean Weston and Herb Schlect.

Mrs. Willard Bates sang "I Take This Man" and Mrs. Leon McGuire sang "Be Thou Our Guide." Both were accompanied by the Rev. Ed Bigby.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burney chose a dress of teal blue and pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Spears wore a navy blue dress and corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. James Crawford, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a brown and white silk print dress and corsage of tangerine carnations.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Silver and white streamers were used as a setting for the bride's table which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with white rosebuds and topped by a miniature bride and groom. The cake was made by Mrs. Paul Lewis and Mrs. Wilbur Friend. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. James Crawford, Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mrs. Gladys Pine, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Ernest Plumlee, Judy Pohl, Sue Boren, Faye Sanders and Carolyn Plumlee.

For the wedding trip the bride changed to a beige suit worn with white satin hat, black accessories and the bridal corsage. She will graduate from KUHS in June at which time she will join her husband in Spearhead, Alaska, where he is employed. He was graduated from KUHS in 1955.

CANTON CRATER

Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 Patriarchs Militant of Oregon met Thursday, March 26, in the IOOF Hall with Helen McCormack, president, conducting the business session.

Esther Johnson was installed as an honor guard, by installing officer Iona May Wells, and adjutant, Frances Munsell. It was also announced by drill captain Frances Munsell that drill practice would be resumed at the next meeting on April 9.

Vice President Zelma Howard held a silent auction sale of white elephants as a project and also enjoyment for the members. A short monologue on "Spring Gardening" was given by the president, and the entertainment concluded with a reading and verse for the Easter season.

After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed in the dining room. Refreshments were served at tables decorated in the Easter theme. Serving on the committee were Kate Hogbe, Isabelle Foster and Zelma Howard.

At the previous meeting on March 12, business and inspection was conducted as usual by president, Helen McCormack. Members voted on a delegate for the association of Ladies Auxiliaries Patriarchs Militant meeting in May at Roseburg. Helen Blann was elected.

A St. Patrick's Day party was held after the business session, with readings by Hazel McNeil and Mary Pope after which a progressive game of St. Patrick's emblems was enjoyed by all. Hazel McNeil won first prize on the games and Sylvia Jones on the buying contest.

Refreshments were served by Stella Dryden, Lina Motschenbacher and Harriett Estes, the tables and dining room decorated in appropriate St. Patrick's green emblems.
