Range Suit Moves Into U.S. Court

LAKEVIEW — Friday morning the announcement was made in Lakeview that the hearing scheduled for Monday, April 6, involving the suit filed by Nora O'Keefe, Henry O'Keefe, and Sarah J. O'Keefe of Adel versus R. C. Burgess, district manager of the Bureau of Land Management and a number of Warner Valley ranchers, has been removed from the local courts and will be tried in federal court, with the time and place to be announced later.

An original suit filed by the O'Keefes protests the canceling of a range permit by the BLM which the ranch has held for 21 years, and the granting of permits on the range to other stockmen. This is scheduled for hearing on May 7.

The second suit is resulting from the first and is in the form of a trespass action to keep the other stockmen from moving on to the range until the matter is decided in court. The stockmen in question are Harry Schaefer, Bob Sluther, Terrance Cahill, Hugh Cahill, John R. Lane and M. E. Conlan.

In the suit, the plaintiffs state that they own about 2,700 acres of land within the range allotment and that it would cost them $10,000 to fence their own land if they do not receive a permit for the range in question. They also state that there is not enough water on their own land for the 2,500 head of sheep they run, and that loss of the permit would require them to go out of the sheep business. They also maintain that the permits granted the defendant stockmen would result in cattle being turned into the range at a time when the ground is wet and the grass and herbage would be trampled and destroyed.

The plaintiffs claim that the predecessors of the defendants all entered into an agreement with the land agency whereby the range was divided for the past 21 years.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs are Grubic, Drendel and Bradley of Reno, and Welch and Welch of Lakeview.

NEARING THE TOP is the fund for equipment for the Bly Volunteer Fire Department. Frank Dunning, chairman of the committee, is shown in this picture taken by Roberta McGee, Herald and News correspondent in the Bly area, with the thermometer that registers the "temperature" of the steadily-rising fund. To help raise the mercury to reach the $1,000 goal the Bly Variety Show will be presented at the Arch Theater Friday evening, April 10, at 7:30. The program is sponsored by the Bly Women's Club, Bly Home Extension Unit and Parents and Patrons Association.

Hollywood To Take Bows; Oscars Presented Tonight

By JAMES BACON
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Debbie Reynolds won't be there to face Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth, but Hollywood may still have to find a better adjective than colossal to properly describe tonight's big Academy Awards show.

A two-hour telecast, without commercials, will begin at 7:30 p.m., PST, over NBC-TV. More than 100 of the biggest names in moviedom will be seen.

They range all the way from Millie Perkins, Hollywood's newest star, to Ingrid Bergman, making a sentimental return to Hollywood — her first in 10 years.

For a while it looked as if Hollywood's most famous triangle might give the show a backstage suspense no script could hope to match.

But Miss Reynolds removed herself from the show Saturday. She said she will watch it at home on TV.

Producer Jerry Wald had scheduled Debbie and Liz an hour apart, with Fisher somewhere in between.

Debbie insisted Liz had nothing to do with her pulling out of the show.

She was to have presented an Oscar to one of the winners, the same chore Miss Taylor will perform.

Fisher, taking a night off from a hotel engagement in Las Vegas, will sing one of the nominated songs — "To Love and Be Loved."

Composer Sammy Cahn said he personally picked Fisher because "There is no other singer who better fits that title."

With the triangle only two-thirds present, it looks as if the Oscar winners themselves will star in the big show. Hollywoodites can't remember a closer race for the prize Oscars than this year's.

It is especially close among the five nominated for best actress. Rosalind Russell, Shirley Mac-

Laine, Susan Hayward, Deborah Kerr and Miss Taylor all could win without stirring a ripple of surprise.

Among the men, most experts figure David Niven to take the top male Oscar, although Sidney Poitier, the brilliant Negro actor, has come up strong in recent weeks. The other three nominated are Tony Curtis, Spencer Tracy and Paul Newman.

"Gigi" still is the favorite for best picture, but is being pressed by "Auntie Mame," one of the screen's funniest comedies. The others, and all rate a chance, are "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," "The Defiant Ones," and "Separate Tables."

Among the supporting actors and actresses, Burl Ives and Lee J. Cobb are favorites among the men and Marsha Hyer and Wendy Hiller favored among the ladies.

Community Club Plans Barbecue

MONTAGUE — Plans for the eighth annual Junior Rodeo and Barbecue will be the main point of discussion at the meeting of the Shasta Valley Community Club, scheduled for Tuesday evening, April 7, at 8 p.m. in the clubroom of the Montague auditorium.

The annual event, sponsored by the community club, is slated for Sunday, June 21, and comprises of seven or eight different rodeo events for youngsters from 8 to 18, boys and girls alike. Prior to the events, a barbecue will be held, following the "big" parade.

Mrs. Hilda Cooley, president of the club, urges that all residents interested in helping during the rodeo and the dance to attend the meeting.

Stab Injuries Fatal To Youth

MENLO PARK, Calif. (AP) — Leon Whitley, 16, broke down in tears Sunday when police told him a youth he stabbed with a hunting knife had died.

Police Chief George Potter said the victim — William Campbell, 28 — stepped into a fight between Whitley and an unnamed 15-year-old on a lawn at a party.

Police booked Whitley for investigation of a murder charge.

They said more than 20 youths staged a noisy demonstration at nearby Palo Alto Hospital when they learned Campbell was dead.

WORLD'S BIGGEST PROBLEM

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)—The gulf between living standards in the United States and Britain and those in Asia and Africa "is the most serious problem facing the world," Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion said Sunday night. He said East-West tension was "only a passing phase."
