Ike Schedules Georgia Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower plans to fly Tuesday to Augusta, Ga., for a vacation of golf.

The White House said today in announcing the definite departure plans that the President will be accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower. They plan to take off aboard the President's private plane Columbine III about 7:30 a.m. PST.

The flight takes about two hours. It will be Eisenhower's annual April visit to one of his favorite recreation spots—the Augusta National Golf Club, where the Masters Tournament was concluded Sunday.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said he had no information on how long the President will stay in Augusta. Eisenhower has Washington engagements a week from today and Tuesday, but Hagerty called it a possibility that the President would fly back to the capital to keep those appointments then return to Augusta for a few more days.

The evening of April 13 the President is scheduled to speak at a Republican women's dinner here. The next morning he will take part in ceremonies dedicating a memorial tower to the late Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio).

Salmon Sale Ban Sought

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Alaska's Fishermen's Union members here Monday joined in demands for a ban on selling Japanese salmon in the United States.

The local agent, Abe Lehto, said Sunday the local's members "are calling for a show of hands from California Congressmen" on a bill before Congress to ban the sale of canned Japanese salmon in this country.

The bill was drafted as a counter-move to Japan's open seas fishing in the Bering sea, which U. S. fishermen claim is depleting the salmon stock.

About 3,000 fishermen, 500 of them from Northern California, will not be allowed to fish for salmon this year. The ban on their fishing was imposed March 13 by Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton as a conservation measure.

Father Of Four Dies In Surf

SANTA CRUZ (UPI)—Tom Osaki, 45, a Cupertino gardener, was drowned Sunday when he was swept into the sea while fishing near Lighthouse Point.

Osaki, father of four, was with his father-in-law, Yozayemon Harada, 77, Santa Clara, when a huge wave washed over them. Harada clung safely to the rock on which they were fishing.

Eugene Man Given Post

PORTLAND (AP)—Aron Jones of Eugene is the new president of the Western Forest Industries Assn.

Fred Sohn of Roseburg was chosen vice president and Leo Richard of Cottage Grove secretary-treasurer as the organization closed its annual convention here Saturday.

The group voted unanimous approval of the present system of oral bidding on sales of U.S. Forest Service timber.

This was after a Forest Service official, Ira J. Mason, said his agency is making tentative plans for putting timber sales under a new small business set-aside program on a sustained yield basis. The regional Forest Service of timber management, Walter H. Lund, said also the agency is studying the possibility of having sealed bids on all sales, large as well as small.

$4,500 Located In Old Coat

YONKERS, N.Y. (UPI)—A Salvation Army worker unable to fold a tattered old Army jacket donated for the needy still open the lining and found it neatly packed with $4,526 in cash, it was revealed today.

Detectives called in by the charitable organization traced the old jacket through a cleaning mark to the home of James Ross, who identified the jacket as the property of his late brother-in-law, James Cashin, a former police captain.

Ross said he had given the jacket to the Salvation Army after Cashin's death last February.

Escapee Dies In Accident

NAPA (UPI)—An 18-year-old youth who escaped from a home for the mentally retarded died early this morning after falling or jumping from a downtown building.

William Ballard escaped with two other youths, aged 15 and 16 Sunday from Imola, a minimum security institution.

They were spotted on the roof of a downtown store late Sunday night, apparently trying to break in.

Police quickly arrived on the scene and Ballard's two companions surrendered meekly, but Ballard slipped to the pavement 25 feet below where he landed head first.

Thieves Rob 4 Of Farm Money

UTICA, N.Y. (UPI)—A 92-year-old man was bound and gagged in his apartment by three gunmen Sunday night and robbed of $4,000—the purchase price of a farm he had sold to pay for the wedding of his 40-year-old daughter.

Police said the three apparently knew Peter Gentile had the cash in the apartment. The daughter, Jennie, her fiancé, William Wigan, and Gentile's son, Albert, also were tied up by the thieves, who took $250 from Albert and $20 from Wigan.
