

Sluggers, Pitchers Head SF Pickings

NEW YORK (AP)—A devastating attack, a vastly improved pitching staff and a combination of speed and youth should enable the San Francisco Giants to dethrone the Milwaukee Braves as National League champions in 1959.

Milwaukee's chances of gaining a third straight pennant are endangered by the lack of a solid second baseman to replace the convalescing Red Schoendienst, a lingering doubt whether the ailing knees of Wes Covington and Billy Burton are completely mended, and an underlying feeling of complacency on the part of the two-time champions.

Pittsburgh's brash young pitchers, with their solid hitting, stronger pitching and tighter defense, should make it a three-way race right down to the barrier.

A two-team struggle between Los Angeles and Cincinnati for the last remaining spot in the first division should further enliven what promises to be a most interesting National League campaign. St. Louis, Chicago and Philadelphia should battle it out for sixth place.

The expected finish:

1. San Francisco
2. Milwaukee
3. Pittsburgh
4. Los Angeles
5. Cincinnati
6. St. Louis
7. Chicago
8. Philadelphia

The acquisition of Sam Jones, the National League's strikeout king and second stingiest run-yeilder last year, from St. Louis, and Jack Sanford, another strong-armed right-hander, from Philadelphia, figures to solve the Giants' pitching problem. These two, together with lefties Johnny Antonelli and Mike McCormick, plus second liners Stu Miller and Curt Barclay and relievers Al Worthington, Billy Muffett and Paul Giel, give promise of a 50 per cent stronger staff than last year.

The antelope outfield of Willie Mays, Jackie Brandt and Felipe Alou may be the best in Giant history. Orlando Cepeda, the rookie-of-the-year of 1958, is back at first base and Jimmy Davenport, another of last year's outstanding rookies, should be even better at third base. Catching seems to be adequate in the hands of Bob Schmidt and Hobie Landrith. The lone question mark is around second base where the inexperienced Andre Rodgers holds forth at shortstop and Lary Spencer has been switched from short to second.

The Braves' powerful pitching plus the home run bats of Henry

Freshmen Win 3rd In Relays

In the Little Rogue Relays held at Medford last Friday afternoon, the Klamath Union Freshman tracksters, under the coaching of Gene Strehlou, grabbed third place honors out of a field of seven contenders. The Fresh piled up 47 points in the meet while North Grants Pass was the winner with 60 1/2 points to their credit and McLoughlin of Medford second with 58 tallies.

Fourth place went to South Grants Pass with 44 points, fifth to Hedrick Junior High of Medford with 41, sixth to Crater with 19 and last place to Ashland with 15 1/2.

Strehlou's crew snared a single first, a trio of seconds, one third, two fourths and a pair of fifth place finishes. The lone first was in the distance medley where the combination of Eric Petersen, Ron Simpson, Noel March and Gene McKennie set a new record of 84.4 seconds.

The frosh high jump team of Dana Ash, March and Jim Pater tied with Hedrick for second place honors in that event while the combined group of Earl Brinson, Dale Crumrine and Marsh did the same with Hedrick for second place in the broad jump relay. The other frosh third place finish was in the distance relay where the combined forces of Bob Dearing, Bob Shaw, Jay Cox and Lynn Summers placed second to North Grants Pass.

Winning third in the sprint medley was the frosh's Larry McClure, Marsh, Crumrine and Brinson. Garnering fourth place in the javelin was Ken Cooper of KU while teammates Crumrine, McClure, Brinson and Marsh also picked up a fourth place in the 440-yard relay.

Fifth place finishers for Strehlou's squad were Simpson in the discus and Bob Denny in the pole vault.

South Grants Pass won the hurdle relay with a time of 39 seconds and the pole vault with a leap of 10 feet, six inches. North Grants Pass the javelin with a throw of 142 feet, two and one-half inches, the distance relay with a time of 6:47.1, the broad jump relay with combined leaps of 33 feet, six inches, and the high jump relay with a total of 15 feet, four inches. South Grants Pass the hurdle relay with a time of 39 seconds, McLoughlin the sprint medley with a time of 1:13.6, the shot put relay with combined heaves of 38 feet, 10 inches, plus the 440-yard relay with a time of 47 seconds flat and Crater the discus with combined throws of 120 feet, four inches for its only first place.

Herald and News SPORTS

WAYNE SCOTT, Sports Editor

Henley Hornets Nip Malin Mustangs, 7-6

Coach Len Weber's Henley baseball squad, who lost all six games on their schedule last year, got off on the right foot on their home diamond Monday afternoon as they came from behind to nip the Malin Mustangs, 7-6, in a thrilling seventh inning rally in which they chased two runners across the plate, the winning tally crossing on a throwing error by Mustang catcher Ed Stasny.

Behind 6-5 going into the bottom of the seventh, Weber's crew jumped on Malin's relief hurler, Rick Illian, for a run-scoring single worked around three bases on balls, followed by Stasny's miscue.

Hornet Doug Kammerer walked to open the inning, Leroy Briant followed suit and then Lawrence Lugo drilled a sharp single to left field to score Kammerer with the tying run. With nobody out, Dick Reiling was purposely walked to fill the bases. With Sam Herringshaw at bat, Stasny flipped a return streak passed Illian and Briant, stole second and scored on Herringshaw with the winning run.

Coach George Hanson's Mustangs had taken the lead in the top of the seventh by scoring a pair of runs on a hit batsman, a duo of wild pitches, a single and an error. Abe Kirkpatrick was hit by Henley hurler Gary Beber to open the inning and then scored on a pair of wild pitches by Beber to right-center. However, the Hornets stormed back with four runs in the bottom of the inning on Joe DeGrande's single, a walk to Beber, Kammerer's single which scored DeGrande and Beber, Briant's single which chased Kammerer across and Reiling's long double to left which scored Briant.

The Hornets added one more run in the second as Jackson singled, stole second and scored on Beber's single, but Malin came to life with a pair of tallies in the fourth inning. Dennis Kalina walked, Bob Brown was safe on an error by Jackson and Illian, pinch-hitting for Larry Rick, slammed out a triple to score both runners.

The fourth Malin tally came in the sixth when shortstop Jim Owens singled and scored on two wild pitches by Beber.

Lugo and DeGrande each had a pair of hits for Henley as did Malin's Mullanix to top all hitters for the non-counting contest.

GEORGE HANSON ... tough loss

LEN WEBER ... initial win

Linescore:

	R	H	E
Malin	100	201	2-6	6	1
Henley	410	000	2-7	11	4

to right-center. However, the Hornets stormed back with four runs in the bottom of the inning on Joe DeGrande's single, a walk to Beber, Kammerer's single which scored DeGrande and Beber, Briant's single which chased Kammerer across and Reiling's long double to left which scored Briant.

The Hornets added one more run in the second as Jackson singled, stole second and scored on Beber's single, but Malin came to life with a pair of tallies in the fourth inning. Dennis Kalina walked, Bob Brown was safe on an error by Jackson and Illian, pinch-hitting for Larry Rick, slammed out a triple to score both runners.

The fourth Malin tally came in the sixth when shortstop Jim Owens singled and scored on two wild pitches by Beber.

Lugo and DeGrande each had a pair of hits for Henley as did Malin's Mullanix to top all hitters for the non-counting contest.

Big Fight Promoter Returns

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A young New Jersey steel executive, making his debut as a fight promoter, returns here today to complete plans for a world's heavyweight championship fight May 1 between champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Brian London of England.

The first title bout ever held in Indiana will be staged in the State Fairgrounds Coliseum, which will have a seating capacity of about 13,500.

Cecil Rhodes Jr., Cranford, N.J., industrialist-promoter, announced Monday the fight had been switched from Las Vegas to Indianapolis to escape rumors of gamblers' backing.

Rhodes, a 34-year-old Harvard Law graduate, said there weren't any gamblers backing the Las Vegas, Nev., fight but added: "I don't want that kind of implication."

In Las Vegas, civic leaders said the real reason was because "resort operators refused to give the financial support requested by the fight promoter."

There was some question about a television contract for the fight, but Al Farb of Indianapolis, co-promoter, said he believed Rhodes would have it worked out.

Rhodes said earlier he believed the National Broadcasting Co. and the Gillette Co., the sponsors, would agree to switch the telecast to Indianapolis. The telecast would be blacked out in a 75-mile radius from the fight scene.

However, Tom Gallery, sports director of NBC, said in New York that he had a signed contract for a Patterson-London title fight in Las Vegas and had not agreed to any change to Indianapolis.

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, minimized the television angle.

"Regardless of what happens the fight will be held in Indianapolis," D'Amato said.

Patterson is scheduled to arrive here late next week and train in the Coliseum. London also is expected to arrive next week.

Jack Holliday Jr. and Harrison Eiteljorg, Indianapolis businessmen, will underwrite a $75,000 guarantee to Rhodes.

Rhodes is guaranteeing Patterson $125,000 and London $75,000. He said his television contract with NBC calls for $225,000.

Pirate Ace Bothered By Hurling Ailment

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Want a new line on Pittsburgh's long lamented chances for the National League pennant? Then forget those exhibition game line scores and cock an ear for the medical report on George Witt's troublesome arm.

The young right-hander, a pitching sensation as a rookie last season when he shrugged off arm trouble and won seven straight for the longest string of the year in the NL, was sent to Pittsburgh Monday night for an examination by the club physician.

The trouble centers in a painful elbow, which the freckle-faced redhead thinks was strained when he tried to develop a slider two years ago in the minors. The rhoides popped up again Monday and Witt was forced from the mound after one inning as the Pirates finished their stay in Florida.

with a 2-1 victory over Kansas City at Fort Myers.

In other games, the San Francisco Giants, figured to join the Braves in the National League pennant pursuit, went 11 innings before beating Cleveland 8-6 on Don Taussig's home run. The Boston Red Sox belted the Chicago Cubs 11-3, the Detroit Tigers defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-2, the Chicago White Sox beat Washington 9-6, Spokane defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-2 and Cincinnati smacked Savannah 12-2.

Harvey Haddix, Ron Blackburn and Fred Green took charge of the pitching after Witt's quick exit and kept the A's blanked until the ninth as the Pirates won their fourth in a row for a 15-12 spring record. Blackburn, working in his first game since returning from service was the winner as Roman Majias squeezed in the winning run in the seventh inning. George Brunet was the loser for the A's, who scored in the ninth on Harry Simpson's home run.

Taussig's two-run shot off loser Hal Woodeshick was one of five home runs by the Giants at Topeka. Ed Bressoud hit his sixth and seventh of the spring while Danny O'Connell and Felipe Alou each counted once. Curt Barclay won it after Minnie Minsno's 10th-inning homer, his fourth hit, tied it for the Tribe.

The Red Sox socked four Cub pitchers for 15 hits, handing Joe Scheffernoth the loss in a five-run fifth. Ike Delock won it, finally coming around with a two-hit, one-run job in his six innings at Corpus Christi.

Detroit picked on Card ace Larry Jackson for five runs in three innings at Lakeland. Frank Lary won it, giving up one run in his five innings. Chuck Esegian of the Cards and Gail Harris of the Tigers swapped solo homers.

SHA Banquet

Final plans have been made for the annual Sacred Heart Academy awards banquet honoring both the football and basketball teams which is scheduled for 6:30 tonight at the Reames Golf and Country Club.

Guest speaker for the event will be Rex Hunsaker, football coach at Oregon Tech. Academy coach Jerry Keupf will present both the athletic letters and the special awards for the outstanding players on the teams.

The Sacred Heart Boosters Club, whose president is Charles (Chuck) Bailey, is sponsoring the event while the toastmaster will be Barney Cavanaugh.

Lakers Gamble In Playoff

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The Minneapolis Lakers are ready to gamble on a baseball pitcher tonight to chill the hottest pinch hitter in pro baseball, Boston's Frank Ramsey.

The teams resume the National Basketball Assn.'s best four-of-seven final playoffs in the St. Paul Auditorium with the Celtics leading two games to none.

Coach Johnny Kundla of Lakers said he plans to give 6-foot-6 rookie Steve Hamilton, a long-term bench rider most of the season, a crack at stopping the sizzling Mr. Ramsey.

"When they send Ramsey in to troubleshoot for them I'll probably have Hamilton in there sooner or later," said coach Kundla.

Hamilton, who played college basketball at Morehead, Ky., is a southpaw pitcher in the Cleveland Indians chain. He had a 17-14 record with Burlington, N.C., in the class B Carolina League last year.

None of the Laker regulars has had much luck with Ramsey, the game-breaking Celtic reserve who has hit 14 of 30 shots and 49 points in 50 minutes of play against the Lakers.

Unless they win this one the Lakers can kiss the series goodbye. Beaten twice in Boston, they can't afford to lose a home game and still retain much hope of winning the title.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Stadium Work Held Up Once More

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Dodgers moved from one coat to the other but, as far as their new Los Angeles stadium is concerned, it's still the same old story of "wait 'til next year."

That's the word from Arthur Froehlich, sports' leading architectural engineer. He has submitted plans to owner Walter O'Malley for a plush Chavez Ravine stadium complete with valet parking and swanky restaurant.

"But I don't believe the Dodgers will get around to construction this year," says Froehlich. "There are just too many problems."

DESIGNS HORSE PARKS

The husky, graying man who was a baseball player during his undergraduate days at the University of California has planned and constructed everything from baseball stadiums to recreation centers, bowling alleys and office buildings and, more or less in the same field of endeavor, horse parks and psychiatric clinics.

His pet projects have been the horse parks. These include Golden Gate, Del Mar and Hollywood Park in California, as well as the Los Alamitos quarter-horse track; Laurel, trotting's Roosevelt Raceway, the Hippodrome in Panama, Laurel in Maryland and Woodbine in Toronto.

His current projects include a 66-million-dollar track in Caracas, Venezuela, the 33-million-dollar Aqueduct track and reconstruction at famed Saratoga.

MUST BE MOBILE

Froehlich has applied the know-how attained in erecting shopping centers to the business of taking care of the horse players.

"The customer has to be able to move with comfort and speed," Froehlich says with the enthusiasm of the lowliest two-dollar bettor scrambling for the mutual window. "That's why racing has such a traffic flow problem. It's the only sport where the crowd must be mobile."

"Your racing fan needs freedom of motion throughout the afternoon. He wants to see the race, make his bets and get back to see the race on which he is betting."

Inventor of valet parking for race tracks, Froehlich also originated the "betting island" and the bank-type mutual windows.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

SF Sluggers Go After 7th Straight

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants, with their bats humming in an unprecedented but most welcome manner as far as manager Bill Rigney is concerned, went after their seventh straight victory against Cleveland today in the next-to-last game of the exhibition tour.

The San Franciscans entered the contest with a total of 56 home runs in 26 warmups this year, enough to put them well in front of the spring homer derby.

Cleveland, which has left the brunt of the Giants' fence-busting, fell victim to five four-baggers at Topeka Monday while coming out on the short end of an 8-6 decision. Don Taussig unloaded the fatal blow in the top of the 11th frame with two mates aboard.

Earlier, Eddie Bressoud, a utility man who may yet force himself a starting spot, smacked two homers. Danny O'Connell and Felipe Alou contributed the other Giant four-baggers.

The Indians planned to throw southpaw Don Ferrarese into the breach today against the Giants' Mike McCormick, also a partider.

LA Stadium Work Held Up Once More

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Dodgers moved from one coat to the other but, as far as their new Los Angeles stadium is concerned, it's still the same old story of "wait 'til next year."

That's the word from Arthur Froehlich, sports' leading architectural engineer. He has submitted plans to owner Walter O'Malley for a plush Chavez Ravine stadium complete with valet parking and swanky restaurant.

"But I don't believe the Dodgers will get around to construction this year," says Froehlich. "There are just too many problems."

DESIGNS HORSE PARKS

The husky, graying man who was a baseball player during his undergraduate days at the University of California has planned and constructed everything from baseball stadiums to recreation centers, bowling alleys and office buildings and, more or less in the same field of endeavor, horse parks and psychiatric clinics.

His pet projects have been the horse parks. These include Golden Gate, Del Mar and Hollywood Park in California, as well as the Los Alamitos quarter-horse track; Laurel, trotting's Roosevelt Raceway, the Hippodrome in Panama, Laurel in Maryland and Woodbine in Toronto.

His current projects include a 66-million-dollar track in Caracas, Venezuela, the 33-million-dollar Aqueduct track and reconstruction at famed Saratoga.

MUST BE MOBILE

Froehlich has applied the know-how attained in erecting shopping centers to the business of taking care of the horse players.

"The customer has to be able to move with comfort and speed," Froehlich says with the enthusiasm of the lowliest two-dollar bettor scrambling for the mutual window. "That's why racing has such a traffic flow problem. It's the only sport where the crowd must be mobile."

"Your racing fan needs freedom of motion throughout the afternoon. He wants to see the race, make his bets and get back to see the race on which he is betting."

Inventor of valet parking for race tracks, Froehlich also originated the "betting island" and the bank-type mutual windows.

Redbirds Fail To See Pennant

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Many of the St. Louis Cardinals who picked themselves to finish first or second in the National League last season, don't see a Redbird pennant this year.

Most of the Cards believe they are improved over 1958, when they finished fifth, but they think there is only a remote chance of being the National League champions.

Star Stan Musial reflected the team's thinking when he said, "Yes, we are improved because of better punch and defense."

"We've got young pitchers and stronger bench and better pitching. I'd say we certainly have a first division chance."

Carter Beaten By Miteff

NEW YORK (AP)—Vitamin pills and a second round knockout win over Harold Carter have Argentina's Alex Miteff "feel like a tiger again."

That old feeling may earn the husky, 24-year-old gaucho a shot at British champion Henry Cooper in Madison Square Garden this May or June.

Alex blew a contracted bout with Cooper in London when he was stopped in the first round by German Willie Besmanoff last Sept. 28. Miteff said an injury to his right knee was mainly responsible for the costly defeat.

Miteff looked 100 per cent sound Monday night in slowing away Carter in 2:21 of the second round of a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Right hand smashes floored the 6-foot, 198-pound Carter twice in the second round. A barrage of blows that had Harold ready to fall again brought Referee Teddy Martin to the rescue. Carter was out on his feet. Miteff, 6-1, weighed 205 1/2.

St. Nick's matchmaker Teddy Brenner said he would try to rent Madison Square Garden for a Cooper-Miteff scrap.

"That would be very good," said the 24-year-old Argentine. "I feel like tiger again — very, very strong. I take vitamin pills now and they make me feel strong. And it felt wonderful to hit like I did against Carter."

Both Miteff and Carter, also 24, had been ranking fighters until knockouts dropped them out of the top ten.

Carter was stopped by Cuba's Nino Valdes. He won two fights by kayos since then and was a 6-5 favorite over Miteff. It was the third time he had been stopped. His record is 25-4-2.

The victory over Carter made Miteff's record 17-3-1, including ten knockouts.

A crowd of 2,360 paid $4.98 at the small old club. The bout was not telecast.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

A Bourbon Man's Bourbon

Weller's CABIN STILL

Distilled and Bottled by STITZEL-WELLER DISTILLERY, Etob. Louisville, Kentucky, 1849

4 90 Fifth
3 15
3 Pint

88 PROOF
5 YEARS OLD

Pure Copper Distilled for handmade quality. Kentucky Weather Ripened for rich round flavor.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

LA Dodgers Wrap Up Exhibitions

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers was sure of his starters today as the club broke camp at Vero Beach and started the journey to Chicago for their league opener.

The Californians will stop off at Jacksonville for an exhibition game with the Milwaukee Braves tonight with Don Drysdale, Clem Labine and rookie Gene Snyder assigned to pitch.

The final spring training exhibition game will be held at Jacksonville against the Braves Wednesday afternoon. The Dodgers' farm club at Spokane of the PCL defeated the regulars 3-2 Monday in a final game at Vero Beach.

Just as he did last year, Alston named Don Drysdale as his starting pitcher for Friday's opening game. Last year Drysdale started against the Giants and was on the losing end of an 8-0 shutout turned in by Ruben Gomez.

The rest of the Dodgers' sure starters are Gil Hodges, first base; Charlie Neal, second base; Wally Moon, left field; Duke Snider, centerfield; and John Roseboro, catcher.

Right field, shortstop and third base still are question marks. Shortstop and right field are further complicated by injuries to Carl Furillo, Don Zimmer and Bob Lillis.

Furillo, who has not missed an opening game since his rookie season in 1946, has played in only 10 spring games. He has been sidelined twice because of a pulled muscle in his left leg. Alston does not want to rush him into the lineup, especially against a right-handed pitcher.

COLD STORAGE FOR POTATOES

We Now Have Space for 50 to 100 Carloads at Klamath Falls

★ PROTECT YOUR COMMERCIALS!
★ INSURE YOUR SEED!

KLAMATH ICE & STORAGE CO.

661 Spring St., Klamath Falls Ph. TU 4-5158

TRAILER HITCHES

Tailored to Fit Your Car... Inc. 1959 Models

FASTENS TO FRAME and BUMPER POLISHED CHROME

FREE PARKING INSIDE WHILE YOU SHOP "JUST DRIVE RIGHT IN ANY