

MRS. PAUL HOWE, left, is shown with her daughter, Mrs. Ted Hyde, at the recent Reames Club luncheon. She is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law and family from her home in Washington, D.C. Dr. Paul Howe is presently in Japan as an invited guest of the Japanese Medical Congress before which he will present a paper. Dr. and Mrs. Howe resided in Japan for two years during the occupation following World War II. Dr. Howe, a retired colonel, is a nutrition consultant in Washington D.C. He will join Mrs. Howe in Klamath Falls next week for a short visit before they return to the East.

—Photo by Ellis

AN INTERESTING VISITOR to the city is J. Grant Anderson, left, pictured with his cousin, Mrs. Myron Shannon, and uncle, William Anderson. He is making his first trip to the United States from his home in London. Although born in Glenlivet, Banffshire, Scotland, he has spent most of his life in England where he has been prominent as an actor and director. He recently directed ice shows in London in which Barbara Ann Scott starred. He toured Canada on his trip to the West Coast and will visit the southern states on his return trip to New York from where he will sail to England.

—Photo by Ellis

REAMES WOMEN'S AUXILIARY opened its season Thursday, April 2, with the annual spring luncheon. Pictured at the head table are, left to right, Mrs. Wilson Wiley, Mrs. Robert Mueller, Mrs. Clarence Humble, president, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Jim Noel and Mrs. Ronald Carter. The tables were decorated with potted trees of paper Victorian roses in shades of pink and blue. A fashion show was presented to the large gathering by Whytal's.

MR. AND MRS. JOE O'NEILL, seated at far left and right, are pictured at the captain's party aboard the SS Lurline. The O'Neills left Klamath Falls February 14 for a visit to Hawaii. Their table partners are Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Gilbert, left, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodleton from Brooklyn. On their arrival in the islands they were met by Lois Stewart, who later entertained for them and the Frank Tarrs and Ron Tarr at a party at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The couple visited the islands of Kauai, Maui, Oahu and Hawaii before they sailed for the mainland on the SS Mariposa which arrived in San Francisco March 18.

SOCIETY

By
HELEN BECHEN

FAREWELLS are being said to the Carl Hagel family who are soon to make their home in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Hagel are pictured with Jennifer, 9, and in front left, Mark, 8, and Gregory, 11. Carl Hagel came to Klamath Falls with the Marines in 1944 as a soloist in the Marine band. He has directed the Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church choir for 10 years and been active in music circles. For five years he has been office manager for Klamath Disposal Company. He leaves April 14 to become administrative assistant at the First Presbyterian Church in Seattle. His family will join him at the end of the school term. Mrs. Hagel, member of a pioneer family, is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur Wilson and the late Arthur Wilson, founder of Wilson Title and Abstract Company.

—Photo by Ellis

MRS. INEZ THOMPSON, wife of the commanding officer of the 827 AC and W Groups at Kingsley Field, was the guest of honor at a morning coffee held at the home of Mrs. Barbara Barnard in Capehart housing, Monday, April 6. Mrs. Thompson is shown admiring a Japanese doll, part of the many Oriental treasures of Mrs. Barnard.

A HANDSOME PLAQUE on the wall of Mrs. Barnard's home captures the attention of Mrs. Thompson, left, Mrs. Elisabeth Williams and Mrs. Meba Leo, who were honorary guests at the coffee hour.

—Photos by Sgt. Charles Bennett

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD M. SMITH, Rocky Point Road, have announced the engagement of Susan Jane Geary to Dexter Merritt Roberts. She is the daughter of Mrs. Smith and the late Arthur M. Geary of Portland. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Roberts of Ridgefield, New Jersey.

A graduate of KUHS and Stanford University, Susan has been employed as a reporter for the Spokesman Review in Spokane, Washington. Her fiancé was graduated from Colgate University in 1953 and is now a graduate student and teaching assistant in the department of English at Stanford University.

The couple will wed in an early summer ceremony.

DESERT PATCH in Palm Springs, California, was the spring vacation address for the Ted Lindley family of 1428 Pacific Terrace. Dr. and Mrs. Lindley, standing, are pictured with their three daughters, left to right, Janice, Karen and Ann. The poodles, George and Chi Chi are residents of the desert.

Herald And News
Klamath Falls, Oregon
April 12, 1959