Couple Exchange Vows In Montague Church

MONTAGUE—Jerry Mae Brown and Glenn Edward Ruddell exchanged marriage vows in a double ceremony on Easter Sunday at the Montague Methodist Church. The nuptial service was read in the presence of approximately 100 guests, by the Rev. Wilbur Small, Candelabra holding tall white tapers stood on each side of the altar which was decorated with Easter lilies, bouquets of daffodils and sprays of spring blossoms.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown of Montague. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Woods of Grenada are the parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the young bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white emossed taffeta, simply fashioned with a snug-fitted bodice, featuring a V neckline in front and back, and cap sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a band of the same material as her gown, and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Her sole attendant, Faye Costney of Montague, as maid of honor, wore an aqua emossed taffeta, styled identically to that of the bride's. Her frame half-hat was styled in a figure eight of matching material to her gown, and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Kenneth Burbank, a close friend of the bridegroom's, served as best man, and guests were seated by Jim Ruddell, a brother of the bridegroom, and Mario Bortolazzo, all of Grenada.

Candlelighter was Dede Woods, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a blue lace over taffeta frock, fashioned with a full skirt, and snug fitted bodice. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Wilbur Small. Guests were registered by Doris Wheeler.

A reception followed immediately after the ceremony in the club room of the Montague auditorium, which had been decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Hazel Walker and Mrs. Betty Fowler, both of Montague. The bride's table had been placed in front of the fireplace, the mantle of which held bouquets of daffodils, flanked on each side with a profusion of almond and plum blossom sprays. Suspended over the center of the table were three white wedding bells.

The bride's table also carried bouquets of daffodils and the beautifully decorated three tier wedding cake was flanked on each side by crystal candelabras holding white candles. The cake, baked by the bride's mother, and decorated

OSC Mothers Elect Officers

Mrs. Hugh Swaney was elected president of the Oregon State Mothers' Club at the meeting held Thursday, April 2, at the home of Mrs. H. O. Juckeland. Other officers elected to serve with Mrs. Swaney were Mrs. Robert Cuenet, vice president; Mrs. E. C. Niles, treasurer and Mrs. Jim Olson, secretary. Installation of officers will be at the meeting on May 14.

The group completed final plans for the Alumni dinner meeting which the OSC mothers are sponsoring at the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, April 14. Dr. Dan Poling will be the speaker and all OSC parents, alumni and friends are invited.

Mrs. Keith Henry, Mrs. Hugo Seidman, Mrs. A. O. Roenicke and Mrs. Robert Thompson were in charge of refreshments served.

STUDENT NURSES

Lois Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Robertson, and Sharon Rosson, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Rosson, received their caps in a March 22 capping ceremony at the Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene. Both girls were members of the chorus which sang during the service. Lois Robertson was graduated from KUHS in 1958. A Sacred Heart Academy graduate, Sharon Rosson received a scholarship from the Catholic Daughters of America.

MRS. KENNETH BANES was married March 15 in Reno, Nevada, in the Little Wedding Chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Yaden, 630 North Fifth Street. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Ambord, 222 Roosevelt Street. After she is graduated in June from KUHS the new Mrs. Banes will join her husband in Biloxi, Mississippi, where he is stationed with the Air Force.

Student Wives Meet At OTI

The OTI Student Wives met Wednesday evening, April 1, at the YMCA on campus. Highlight of the evening was the election of new officers for the ensuing year. Those elected included Donna Journey, president; Bonnie Gribble, vice president; Erma Egge, secretary; Pat Shelp, treasurer; Gladys Brown, program chairman; Glenna Fuller, food chairman; Alice Etherton, social chairman.

Donna Morgan is the retiring president. The remainder of the evening was spent in cleaning the YMCA rooms.

A potluck dinner is planned for old and new officers. The next meeting will be held April 15 at the Y center. For further information call Mary Jane Dalrymple at TU 2-2886.

HORN BROOK—The Saint Thomas Aquinas Catholic Cathedral in Reno, Nevada, was the setting for the recent marriage of Mary Lou Lemos to Clarence Lockwood, both of Hornbrook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lemos, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Lockwood, all of Hornbrook.

For her wedding, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace, fashioned with a snug-fitted bodice, round neckline and short sleeves. Her bridal costume was completed with a small white hat and veil. She carried a white orchid bouquet.

The wedding vows were read by the Rev. Father George L. Smith of Reno, in the presence of the parents of the bride and bridegroom, and Mrs. Ida Sloan, grandmother of the bride.

THE FRENCH WAY

A large brooch, pinned to a hip pocket or the shoulder, offers a new look in costume jewelry. This is the way pins are worn in the current Paris collections.

Two Couples Visit Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Al Backes accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kuhlman have returned home from a three week vacation trip in Mexico.

The foursome motored to Mazatlan from where they made air trips to several cities including Mexico City.

Several fishing expeditions from Mazatlan ended with success when Al Backes caught a Marlin.

In Mazatlan they met Dr. and Mrs. T. Burris, former residents of Klamath Falls, and enjoyed a potluck supper with them in their trailer home.
