BETA SIGMA PHI

BETA PHI CHAPTER

Beta Phi chapter members of Beta Sigma Phi recently had a coffee for Polly Conner at her new home and plan to have another one at the new home of Dorothy Anderson April 15.

A regular meeting was held April 7 at the home of Jean Bingham with 13 members present.

During the business meeting social chairman Lillian Hayden reported ideas for the anniversary party and a polluck for the second meeting in May. Jean Bingham reported Founder's Day plans were made and each chapter is requested to prepare a short skit for entertainment.

A program on "Literature" was presented by Barbara Kimes. Refreshments were served by co-hostess Jana Rumlhart.

OTI Wives

Hold Meeting

The March meeting of the OTI Faculty Wives and Women's Club was held in the student lounge on the OTI campus. Mrs. George Crowe conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Carl Stolpe substituted as vice president.

It was announced that Mrs. Delbert Folk had been selected as chairman for the spring reception which is held at commencement time. Final arrangements and announcements for this annual affair will be told at a later date.

The group was entertained by Mrs. Howard Dixon, executive secretary for the American Red Cross, who showed colored slides taken during a recent experiment, "Operation Chow," conducted in this area. Also shown were pictures of local residents participating in the Red Cross Blood Program.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Otto Biber, Mrs. Hallard Bailey and Mrs. Donald Whitner.

Baby Shower

BONANZA—A shower was given at the Bonanza library the evening of April 2, in honor of Steven Edmund, new son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Horsley.

Cars, footballs, cowboy suits were around the room. Pink carnations were on the mantel and gift table and pastel daisies on the refreshment table. A cake decorated with blue booties made by Mrs. Howard Schmidt centered the refreshment table flanked by white candles.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Charles Schmidt, Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mrs. Jess McFall, Mrs. LeRoy Fernlund, Mrs. George Simmons, Mrs. Edward Adams, Mrs. Bob Schmor and Mrs. Howard Schmidt.

Gifts were piled in a stroller, high chair and filled a big blue diaper pinned with an 18 inch silver safety pin. Mrs. Horsley's mother, Mrs. Edmund Gowen and Mrs. Curtis Heidrick helped open the gifts. Records were written by Mrs. Bob Schmor.

Guests were present from Klamath Falls, Malin, Dairy and Bonanza.

MRS. DEXTER ARNOLD

of Concord, New Hampshire, arrived in Portland March 31. She is third vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and began a business tour visiting four of Oregon's five districts in a week of activity. Mrs. Arnold was accompanied by Mrs. Walter Brown of Klamath Falls, president of Oregon's Federation of Women's Clubs. They visited Boardman, Union, Portland and Cave Junction.

Mrs. Arnold has made many friends in earlier visits to Oregon. Prior to her election as third vice president, she served the federation as recording secretary. She was the founder of the New Hampshire Authors Luncheon sponsored by the Concord College Club. In 1952 the University of New Hampshire named Mrs. Arnold "New Hampshire's Most Distinguished Citizen."

The 44th convention of Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Roseburg May 5 and 6.

HOUSEGUESTS

ELY — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cambron had as recent houseguests their daughter, Mrs. Jim Siler, and three sons of Redding. Mrs. Siler also visited with her sister, Beverly Sandberg, in Klamath Falls. On March 22, a family reunion was held at the Walter Cambron home in Ely with Mr. and Mrs. George Cambron and two children coming from Alturas and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sandberg and four daughters from Klamath Falls.

DELEGATES RETURN

ALTURAS—Theta Rho delegates from Pocahontas Club to the annual convention in Santa Cruz returned to their Alturas homes on March 25. President Norma Jean Hanson and Genie Renn were accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Partridge and Mrs. Fred Ash, co-advisers of the club. Genie Renn was appointed to fill the vacancy of Third Herald at the assembly due to the absence of Mrs. Bonnie Peck of the Alturas club.

WEDDING

FORT JONES—Glenn Davis and Mrs. Jean Berry were married March 25, in Carson City. After a short honeymoon in Nevada, the couple returned to Fort Jones this week. Glenn Davis, who has been a resident of Scott Valley, serves the community as chief of police. The bride moved here in September of 1958 to assume duties at Fort Jones High School, where she will continue to teach English and Latin.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

McCLOUD—Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wright of McCloud are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Helen Jean, to Michael J. Keegan, son of Mrs. Ester Keegan, also of McCloud. Keegan is aboard a destroyer, stationed at Treasure Island with the Navy. Tentative plans are for a June wedding to take place in the McCloud Presbyterian Church.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

ALTURAS—Mrs. William Clark entertained 12 little girls at her home on March 27 for her youngest daughter, Phyllis Elaine. The birthday party was in observance of her seventh anniversary.

Outdoor games were played with Carol Armor and Betty Jean Clark assisting.

A barbecued wiener roast, birthday cake with all the trimmings, was served in the patio.

Guests were Karen and Carol Armor, Harriet Commons, Valerie Cooper, Barbara Jo and Linda Sue Hildenbrandt, Kathy Klubben, Debbie Monroe, Kirsten Olson, Nancy and Susan Sheldon and Betty Jean Clark, oldest sister of Phyllis Clark.
