"DENNIS PAINTS A BOLD, IMAGINATIVE, COMPLETELY UNINHIBITED PICTURE, WHICH FIGURES."

Traffic Safety Quiz

Editor's Note: Another in series of quizzes to test your driving ability.

Are you one of those guys who says, "A couple of drinks don't bother my driving a bit?" Well, let's see just exactly how much you actually do know about drinking and driving.

1. Strong black coffee will offset most of the effects of alcohol. True or false?
2. Just two drinks may reduce your visual "sharpness" greatly. True or false?
3. People who take two or three drinks (social drinkers) and then drive a car are a bigger problem than out-and-out drunk drivers. True or false?
4. During the Christmas holidays, about one out of four drivers involved in a fatal auto accident had had something to drink. True or false?
5. About one out of five adult pedestrians killed has been drinking. True or false?

Answers:

1. False. Coffee or other stimulants, the National Safety Council says, will not offset the effects of alcohol. "Only time," it says, "can eliminate alcohol from the blood stream."
2. True. According to the American Medical Association, two cocktails may reduce your visual acuity as much as if you were wearing dark glasses at night. "Imagine," the council says, "trying to drive at night wearing dark glasses."

3. True. "As a group, social drinkers can be a greater problem than obvious drunks," the council says. "There are more social drinkers and they're harder to detect. When a drunk gets behind the wheel of a car, he usually attracts attention because his actions are so pronounced others notice his impairment. The social drinker, however, usually is able to escape detection until an emergency gets him into trouble."

4. False. Not one out of four—closer to one out of two, according to the council. This is almost twice as high as the annual average.

5. True. The exact percentage in recent years has been about 22, and during the Christmas, 1957, holiday period, a council study shows, more pedestrians were killed in the first hour than in any other hour during the period.

"There are a lot of misconceptions concerning drinking and driving," the council says. "Smart drivers know you don't have to be drunk to be dangerous."

Officers Seek Young Hoods

CORVALLIS (AP)—Corvallis police said today they believe that teen-age hoodlums beat up the wife of Benton County Sheriff Clifford Brown because her husband was breaking up a drag race.

Mrs. Brown was found unconscious beside Highway 99-W Friday night.

Brown said he saw that a drag race was being organized while he was out driving with his family. He let his wife and daughters off at a drive-in and chased the drivers. The children were driven home by a neighbor. Mrs. Brown saw another car of teen-agers drive off after her husband so she went to a nearby telephone and called the city police for help.

When police arrived, they found her unconscious. The police believe that she was beaten up by friends of the youths her husband was chasing. Mrs. Brown was treated at a hospital for bruises and cuts on her face. She later was released.

GRANGE NEWS

The Lost River Grange, No. 848, Olney, held a potluck birthday party for all members whose birthdays were in the first three months of 1959, at the last meeting. A business meeting followed the party. Among the guests were Eldon Powell, youth chairman for the second district, and his mother, Mrs. Stella Powell, who is chaplain of the Goldson Grange on Highway 36.
