Bank Offers Loan Service

A revolving loan account combining checking privileges with the flexibility and economy of bank credit will be introduced throughout the state in several weeks by First National Bank of Oregon, it was announced by C. B. Stephenson, president.

The new plan will be called First Bank Ready-Credit, and is the first plan of its type to be introduced on a statewide level, Stephenson said.

"One of the major advantages of a Ready-Credit account is that a borrower can, in a sense, make himself a loan at any hour of the day or night or on any holiday and either in or out of town," he said.

A customer who has established a Ready-Credit account can borrow anytime by simply writing a check against his commitment. The checks will be a special personalized form and will be charged directly to the customer's Ready-Credit account. Complete details of the plan will be announced later.

Representatives of the Klamath Falls and Lakeview Rotary clubs are expected to attend the four-day Rotary International Assembly and Conference this month in Roseburg.

It will be the first conclave of District 511 and the first district meeting of Rotarians and Rotary Anns ever held in Roseburg. The assembly will be held April 26 and 27, and the two-day conference will follow April 28 and 29. The assembly will be devoted to training of incoming officers of the clubs. And the conference is designed to educate Rotarians and Rotary Anns about the meanings of the service organization.

Featured speaker during the two sessions will be Riley W. Doe of Oakland, California, alternate member of the nominating committee for president of Rotary International last year and a former international director. Leslie White of Albany district governor, is also expected to speak. The assembly will be directed by E. B. Lemon, Corvallis, and the conference by Alton F. Baker, Eugene. About 500 people are expected to attend the conclave. Registration is scheduled at 10 a.m. April 26.
