

Ski School Jamboree Set

Approximately two dozen skiers, members of the Sitzmark Ski Club at Crater Lake National Park, will present their ski school jamboree on ski hill in the park next Sunday, according to Slim Mabery, instructor.

The contestants will be divided into three groups: beginners, novices and the intermediate class. Events will emphasize control rather than speed, Mabery said.

There will be proficiency test runs for each of the three classes followed by races for each class. A rescue demonstration will be put on by Judy Holmes, Kenny Mabery, Judy Fulton, Steve Trulove and Jay Bowdler. If time permits, the fourth and fifth class groups will do some exhibition free style skiing on the upper hill for the visitors.

The events will start at 10 a.m. on Sunday and will be followed by luncheon at noon for the contestants, their families. Luncheon will be a potluck and all interested persons are invited.

At noon in the recreation hall, awards, medals, trophies and proficiency certificates will be presented. Judges for the events will be Bruce Black, John Bowdler and Juanita Mabery.

Course setter will be Mabery. Bowdler will be starter and timer and Mrs. Mabery will be recorder. Black will be finish gate supervisor and Tommy Broadbent will be forerunner.

Peace Church Names Pastor

The Rev. Laing W. Sibbet, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Bishop, California, received a unanimous call to the pastorate of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church of Klamath Falls, at a meeting of the congregation held on Sunday, April 5.

The Rev. Sibbet is a graduate of George Washington University, where he was enrolled in a pre-medical course. He also graduated from the University of California of Los Angeles, then entered San Francisco Theological Seminary of San Anselmo, California. Upon finishing his schooling, he was pastor of a rural church in Two Rock, California, and taught part-time in the seminary. He then received a call to the First Presbyterian Church of Bishop, where he has been for the past 10 years.

The Sibbet family include the Rev. Sibbet, his wife Dorothy, and their four sons, David, 14, Jim, 13, John, 11, and Gordon, 9. They have a number of hobbies which they enjoy as a family, including hunting, fishing, music, photography, and wood-working. Rev. and Mrs. Sibbet have been active in community affairs while in Bishop. They have purchased a home at 2070 Elna Street, and will arrive in Klamath Falls following the close of the school year. The Rev. Sibbet will be taking up the active pastorate of the church July 15.

Two Grass Fires Extinguished

Suburban Fire Department men controlled two grass fires before damage was done over the weekend.

They were called to a vacant lot at 5437 Allamont Drive early Friday afternoon to put out a small fire of undetermined origin near railroad tracks.

They put out another Saturday morning on property occupied by Cecil Corkery at 5548 South Sixth Street. Firemen said Corkery was burning grass on a lot when his fire escaped control.

County department firemen saved a storage shed belonging to Charles Williams on Henley Road behind Henley Store from destruction Sunday noon.
