NEW LEVIS

As a far cry from its classic Gold Rush Denims, Levi Strauss & Company breaks through the somber cloud of Ivy styling of the past several seasons with a sun-burst of color which includes the entire spectrum. Of course, there are still the blue denim numbers that you buy a couple of sizes too large as they are guaranteed to shrink.

But the pre-shrunk fabrics and styles are really something! The styles of Levi's trim pants for men and women would certainly startle founder Levi Strauss, who created back in 1850 the classic blue jeans still bearing his first name.

The vivid orange, lemon and lime tones of Levi's Spikes should delight anyone. The name Spikes is unusually appropriate, since these citrus-colored pants are cut with a pencil-slim taper from the hip to a 14-inch cuff. They are available also in turquoise, sand, charcoal and black.

Capris for the girls come in gorgeous two-tone knit cotton in such color combinations as royal blue and aqua or black and grey stripes.

There is another surprise in a new design for women—form-tapered, calf-length Desert Pants in white duck, adapted from their men's pirate pants called Levi's Sandblubbers. You'll see a lot of these during the summer boating season. They are wonderful vacation wear.

LEFTOVERS

Hard cooked eggs that are left over can be made into a variety of dishes. Chop and combine the eggs with half sour cream and half mayonnaise, a little minced onion, dried dill and seasoned salt to taste. Use as filling for plain or toasted sandwiches or as stuffing for celery or tomato salad.

BEEF COOKERY

"She's prettier than her picture," was the frequent comment around the big hall in the exhibit building at the fairgrounds when Beverly Lyons stepped up on the platform to conduct the Klamath County Cow Belles' beef cooking school on Thursday.

"And, my goodness! Isn't she a good cook!" was the comment at the close of the two-hour session when a crowd of more than 300 women (and a couple of men) were served coffee (Folger's) and cookies (made by Cow Belle members) and invited to sample the beef dishes Mrs. Lyons had prepared before the eyes of the audience.

California Oregon Power Company, from whose Medford headquarters office Mrs. Lyons had come to conduct the cooking school provided beautiful cuts of meat for the cooking school. Safeway Stores provided beef sausage and beef bacon for cooking and for prizes.

The Westinghouse range and refrigerator were used through the courtesy of Kirkpatrick's East Side Appliances and Don and Pat Kirkpatrick also provided some delightful gifts for the women who attended. In addition, there were National Cow Belles' Beef Cookery cookbooks and a box of beef candy which is marketed by Brown and Haley Candy Company.

The hit of the show was the huge standing rib roast which Mrs. Lyons brought out of the oven, cooked to perfection, after having been set in the slow oven at 6 p.m. the night before. A good many optimists in the crowd had refused to plan dinner in the serene hope that they would be the lucky ones to take home the roast.

We must interject right here that the person sitting next to us at such affairs always wins something. It happened again, but out of sequence, as Mrs. Everett

KYLE

Keep Your Looks Enchanting is the avowed purpose of Kyle Skin Lotion.

Originally developed for the healing professions, it has all the requirements of a cosmetic, plus the healing, protective and anti-bacterial qualities necessary for those in the professional field.

It is recommended by the manufacturers for sunburn, for facial blemishes in adolescents where a healing agent is desired, adds moisture to dry and thirsty skin and is a soothing, perfect powder base.

The Kyle line, handled locally, includes lotion, night cream, cleansing cream, mouthwash and perfume. It is a Hollywood product.

MASHED POTATOES

It takes about 10 to 15 minutes longer to boil whole potatoes for mashing than it does if you cut them in thirds or quarters. Save the potato water for the next batch of bread.

FRUIT COCKTAIL

Canned fruit cocktail can form the base for fruit compote, fruit salad or dessert. Add chopped raw apple, banana and fresh orange to give it fresh appeal. Use it for topping cottage cheese salad or ice cream.

STRING BEANS

Tender, stringless blue lake green beans are ideal flavor mates with ham. Drizzle some of the spicy pan drippings from baked ham on hot canned blue lake green beans. Toss lightly to coat the beans thoroughly.
