Sex Slayer Found Guilty

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Jerry Patek, physically matured far ahead of his 14 years, was convicted last night of second degree murder in the sex slaying of a 54-year-old neighbor.

The chain-smoking youth with a receding hairline turned out to be just a boy after all, slumping into a chair and weeping as the jury returned its verdict after 8½ hours deliberation.

One of the youngest defendants in Pennsylvania history, Patek faces a maximum sentence of 10 to 20 years in prison for the bludgeoning last Nov. 17 of Mrs. Lillian Stevick on a secluded lot in nearby Brackenridge where both lived.

Sentencing was deferred pending a possible motion for a new trial.
