

WINNER of a district Toastmistress competition here was Margaret Davies, member of Ewauna Toastmistress Club of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Davies will represent Council 4 at a regional contest of 11 speakers May 2 in Bellingham, Washington. The regional winner will enter national finals at Minneapolis in July. Alternate to Mrs. Davies in the four-club contest here was Margaret Ness of Medford. Other clubs entered were Grants Pass and Mt. Mazama of Klamath Falls.

'Anrgy Men' Get Approval

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)—London's Angry Young Men—writers who have caused a literary revolution in England—have the approval of British author Elizabeth Bowen. "I don't know why they are called angry," Miss Bowen told an authors meeting Wednesday, but "I think we are all angry when we are young." "Young people should be angry over ideals and injustices," added the middle-aged writer, who is a Commander of the British Empire. San Francisco author Barnaby Conrad cited Sinclair Lewis "as the angriest young man I ever knew."
