SF 'Miracle Man' Understands Fans

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — One year has brought about a big change in the affections that pass between the fans of San Francisco and the one-and-only Willie Mays.

Last year the West Coast baseball nuts, fed up to the hilt with stories about the super-man called "the greatest player of the generation," expected Willie to hit a home run every time he came to the plate.

McCloud '9' Plans Slate

McCLOUD—The McCloud Loggers town baseball team will resume play this summer after withdrawing from the Northern California League last season.

When he went into a slump and failed to hit for a few games, they booed him when he left men stranded on bases. "But I'm sure we'll get along better this year," says Willie. "I know I understand them better and they know that they can't expect miracles from me."

Business manager, Don Kersten, made a formal application to return to the Northern California League last Sunday at a meeting held in Weed, but the league directors rejected this bid on the grounds that plans had already been formed for an operation of a six team league, playing each team twice and have only a one game playoff for the president's cup. It was felt that this plan should be followed and that a re-entry into the league by McCloud Loggers would only extend the playing time and that the high school players would not be available before the first of June or after the last week of August. Most teams in the league plan on using players from their local high school.

Plans are now being formulated for the McCloud Loggers to operate independently this summer. A schedule will be drawn up with several independent teams in the surrounding area and it is hoped that a 10- or 12 game schedule can be set up with the ball season opening in the second week of June. The Loggers plan on making a team of local ball players who are now away in college, some high school players and a few local players who are interested and have had experience as the nucleus of their baseball team.

They thought he should run up the walls to catch flies that were going for home runs; they expected him to knock in a run every time there was a man on base and he came to bat; they thought he should get all of those Texas leaguers that fall behind second base; and he should throw out runners going from second to third or from third to home, every time.

They believed that he should steal second base every time he got on first; and that he should never be thrown out at the plate. They had been fed so many stories of Willie's prowess that they had built him up, in their own minds, as a sort of super-god. Now they know that Willie is human.

KF Golfers Slate Match With Eugene

At 9:15 Sunday morning, April 19, on the Reames course, approximately 50 golfers will tee off in the annual team match pitting the Reames Country Club linksters with a squad of top performers from the Laurelwood Country Club of Eugene.

As a prelude to the match, the fourth between the two clubs, a gala dinner dance will be held for both the home and visiting teams in the Reames clubhouse. According to Reames pro, Clark Good, 20 or 25 of Eugene's best are scheduled to make the trip. In the three previous meetings of the two clubs the Reames squad has won two of the encounters while Laurelwood, has been victorious only once.

Local Boxers Mix Saturday

Local boxers have been working out in earnest this past week under the watchful eye of trainer Buck Davidson in preparation for Saturday night's 14-bout fight card at Lakeview, beginning at 8 p.m. in the PAL Club's Armory. Five local fighters will be entered on the card while Weed, Lakeview, Vale and John Day will also have entrants.

Larry Bender and Phil Myrick from the Klamath Boxing Club, Ronald Scott and Mike Marek from Kingsley Field and Stan (Buck) Smith from Oregon Tech will represent the Klamath area in the matches at Lakeview. Davidson reports that only seven of the 14 matches have been paired although the pairings should be completed by today. The main event will see Scott of Kingsley facing Lakeview's Frankie Lightle in a 147-pound bout.

In the other bouts matched so far Harry Averill of Lakeview will take on Weed's Jerry Barlow; Lakeview's James Whitmore faces Kingsley's Marek, Slugger Terquik of Lakeview meets Klamath's Myrick, Willie Jones of Weed battles Smith of Oregon Tech and Daniels and Bender square off against each other, both boys being from the KBC.

Pittsburgh, Detroit Share Basement Honors With Identical 0-5 Accomplishments To Date

United Press International

Please, somebody, open up that starting gate so poor Pittsburgh and Detroit can get out.

Here the season is only a week old and the Pirates and Tigers already have hit rock bottom with identical 0-5 records. If they don't get a move on soon, you can put a big black asterisk in front of both entries denoting "left at the post."

Pittsburgh and Detroit can console themselves by recalling the 1951 Giants lost 11 in a row during April and still came on to win the pennant.

That isn't much consolation, though. Not when the Pirates remember they dropped their first eight games of the season in 1955 and finished last or when the Tigers think back to how they also wound up in the basement after losing their first eight games in 1952.

Cincinnati handed the Pirates their fifth straight loss, 10-5, Wednesday while unbeaten Cleveland stayed atop of the American League standings by dealing the Tigers their fifth consecutive setback, 2-1, in 10 innings.

The Yankees remained close at Cleveland's heels by beating Baltimore, 3-1, for their third straight triumph; the Athletics handed the White Sox their first loss of the campaign, 10-8, and the Red Sox beat the Senators, 7-3.

In the National League, the Dodgers licked the Cardinals, 5-0, and the Giants made it four out of five by defeating the Cubs, 7-1. The first-place Braves were idle, as were the Phillies.

Indians 2, Tigers 1
Woodie Held's third homer in two days powered the Indians to their fourth straight victory in their 10-inning struggle with Detroit. Held, who blasted a pair of homers on Tuesday, stroked the game-winning smash Wednesday off Ray Narleski with two out in the 10th. Cal McLish, a 16-game winner last year, picked up his first victory of the current season by going the distance and scattering nine hits.

Yanks 3, Orioles 1

Little Bobby Richardson and southpaw Whitey Ford were the standouts in the Yankee triumph over the Orioles. Richardson lined a two-run double off loser Jack Harshman with two out in the ninth and Ford limited the Orioles to six hits in dealing them their third straight loss.

Until the ninth, the Yanks managed only three hits off starter Hoyt Wilhelm and Harshman. Then with two out, Gil McDougald walked and moved to second on Andy Carey's bloop single. Both scored on Richardson's line smash to left field. The loss was Harshman's second of the season.

Ford (1-0) and Howard; Wilhelm, Harshman (8) and Triandos. Loser — Harshman (0-2).

KC 10, Chicago 8

Bob Grim's grand-slam homer helped carry the A's to their first victory of the year after three losses in a row although the White Sox almost pulled the game out with a seven-run rally in the eighth. Grim, credited with the victory, belted his homer off loser Barry Latman and rookie Kent Hadley hit a two-run homer for the A's off Claude Raymond for what proved to be the winning margin in the fourth.

Shortstop Joe DeMaestri of KC was hit over the left ear by a Latman pitch in the third immediately after Grim's homer. X-rays showed no fracture although he was carried from the field on a stretcher.

BoSox 7, Solons 3

Rookie pitcher Jerry Casale was pretty much the whole show in Boston's win over Washington. The Brooklyn-born right-hander doled out seven hits and clouted a 450-foot homer far over the left field screen with two on off loser Russ Kemmerer in the sixth.

Reds 10, Bucs 5

The Reds had to battle from behind twice to down the Pirates. Cincinnati clinched the outcome with a five-run rally in the sixth inning during which Vada Pinson hit his second homer of the season with two on. Jerry Lynch and Ed Bailey also homered for the Reds while Don Hoak connected for a three-run homer for Pittsburgh. Joe Nuxhall, aided by Bob Mabe's scoreless three-inning relief stint, was the winner.

Bums 5, Cards 0

Don Drysdale of the Dodgers struck out seven and gave up eight hits in curbing the Cardinals. Loser Larry Jackson started the crowd of 14,491 at Los Angeles Coliseum by striking out six of the first nine batters to face him, but the Dodgers put together four singles for two runs in the fourth. Don Demeter homered in the sixth and Jim Baxes in the seventh as the Cards suffered their fourth loss in five games.

Orlando Cepeda, "low-bridged" by Moe Drabowsky in the second inning, slammed a pair of homers off the Cub right-hander — one in the fourth and another in the fifth — to pace the Giants to their victory. Felipe Alou also homered for the Giants, raising his season total to three.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli struck out six and yielded only five hits in gaining his second victory.
