

Solons, Padres Tied For Third With Doubleheader Victories

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sacramento and San Diego pulled into third place in league standings Sunday when they swept both ends of their Pacific Coast League doubleheaders.

Cramming all its scoring into 16 innings, the Solons downed the Seattle Rainiers 3-0 and 1-0 at Sacramento while the Padres defeated the Portland Beavers, 10-1 and 3-2, at San Diego.

In the only single played at Phoenix, the Spokane Indians blasted the Giants 6-2.

Vancouver remained in the league's top spot when the Mounties' contest with cellar-dwelling Salt Lake city was postponed because of cold weather.

Sacramento's only scoring came in the first frame of the nine-inning first game and in the sixth of the seven-inning nightcap.

In the opener, the Solons scored three runs off Bill Wright and rookie Chuck Hickman from Yakima, Wash., held that margin all the way to win his first PCL start.

Jay Hook of Seattle and Carl Greene locked horns in a pitchers' duel until the sixth inning of the second tilt when Dick Phillips walked with one out. Mike Krenich doubled and Al Heist was passed leading the bases. Nippy Jones grounded out to score Phillips.

The double victory gave the Solons the series, 3-2.

Russ Heman fanned four and walked three as he stopped Portland with a six-hitter in the opener at San Diego. Marty Kutyna lost it.

Billy Moran hit a homer with one on in the second and singled in another run in the sixth frame. Mitch June drove in two San Diego runs, one of his hits being a triple.

Reliever Carl Thomas took over from Jake Striker with one on and nobody out and held Portland runless for the final two frames of the seven-inning game. Ken Johnson lost it.

Roger Craig was Spokane's hero as he held the Giants to six hits. Steve Bilko, Don Miles and Tom Davis each hit a homer, Bilko's counting for three runs.

Portland will be at Phoenix Monday; Seattle at Salt Lake; Vancouver at Sacramento and Spokane will play at San Diego.

The line scores:

First Game
Seattle 000 000 000-0 5 1
Sacramento 300 000 000-3 6 0
Wright, Stenhouse (1), Churn (2) and Bevan; Hickman and Roselli, Barragan (1).

Second Game
Seattle 000 000 000-0 5 0
Sacramento 000 001 x-1 6 0
Hook and Bevan; Greene and Dalrymple.

First Game
Portland 001 000 000-1 6 2
San Diego 030 022 30x-10 16 0

Cleveland's Indians Mystery Club Of '59

NEW YORK (UPI)—The mystery club of baseball as the major league pennant races get under way this week is the Cleveland Indians.

The Indians have the strength of a contender. Yet nobody knows how to rate them because they have so many "ifs."

And certainly not the least of these is "Trader Frank" Lane, the Tribe's general manager.

Pennants aren't won on the field but in the front office. Proof of this is the New York Yankees and their behind-the-scenes dictator, George Weiss. Even Manager

Casey Stengel admits the Yankees "have players in the minors who would make any other major league team."

The UPI Board of Baseball experts, picking the Indians for a fourth place finish, were completely stymied by the Tribe. Of the 50 voters, four picked the Indians for first, seven for second, eight each for third and fourth, 20 for fifth, two for sixth and one for seventh.

That in itself, an amazing range in the difference of opinion among qualified baseball observers, accentuates the enigma of the Indians this season.

To some of them it isn't a question of what the Indians have not but what they may have sooner or later under the aegis of the swap-happy Lane, one of baseball's most controversial figures.

You can say a lot of things about this sharply-dressed, glib-talking man but you can't say that he sits still. Nor that he ever is content with the usual losers' alibi that "we're waiting for our young players to mature."

TALKS TRADE ANYTIME

When he headed the White Sox, over a four-year period Lane was the busiest man in the baseball supermarket. In that time he made 154 trades, purchases or sales involving a total of 216 players. He'll still dicker with anyone at any time.

Afield, too, the Indians are a puzzling array in which the No. 1 question mark is Herb Score, the young fireballer whose career almost was ended two years ago by a line drive off Gil McDougald's bat. Since then, Score has done nothing of account. This spring his arm appeared in good shape, he pitched consistently and struck out hitters with all of his former effectiveness—but he also was hit hard.

His is the key to a pitching staff which is not too deep. The workhorses are Gary Bell, 12-10, Jim Grant, 10-11, and Cal McLish, 16-8, with high hopes for Dick Brodowski, 10-10 at San Diego.

A REAL PUZZLE

Vic Power at first is tabbed by Stengel as the American League's top first baseman and rated no worse than second to Mickey Mantle in the race for batting honors.

Shortstop Woody Held and second baseman Billy Martin spark a reliable middle with Randy Jackson, a question at third.

The outfield is one of baseball's best with Jim Piersall, obtained from Boston, Minnie Mingo and power-hitting Rocky Colavito, who hit 41 homers last season and seems about to "arrive." Tito Francona, obtained from Detroit, is good insurance, and Russ Nixon handles the catching capably.

This club, as the experts contend, could go all the way if the breaks come its way. Or it will, as others predict, finish deeper and deeper in the second division. Starting the season, what will happen to the Indians is a real puzzle.

And Lane, and what he will do when he starts wheeling and dealing, isn't the least of it.

Time Out

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Kutyna, Kume (2) and Neal; Heman and Retzer.

Second Game
Portland 010 010 0-2 3 1
San Diego 101 001 x-3 6 1
Johnson and Tornay; Striker, Thomas (2) and Jones.

Spokane 300 020 001-6 9 1
Phoenix 200 000 000-2 6 1
Craig and Sherry; Hyman, Fricano (2) and Stieglitz.

HR — Spokane, Bilko, Miles, Davis.

Troilus' Handlers Confident

NEW YORK (UPI)—Troilus, after racing brilliantly at Hialeah, was a bitter disappointment at Gulfstream Park during his winter campaign.

Nevertheless, owner Bayard Sharp of Middletown, Del., and trainer Charles Peopes never have lost confidence in the colt who will get a chance to redeem himself in the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs on May 2.

The son of Priam 2nd skyrocketed to fame when he warmed up for the $100,000 Flamingo Stakes by setting a track record at Hialeah Park in the Bahamas Stakes. The colt, who is registered as bay but looks brown, was timed in 1:42 2-5 for the mile and one-sixteenth and immediately was installed pre-race favorite for the Flamingo.

In Hialeah Park's top race for three-year-olds Troilus romped home by three lengths. He failed to match Bold Ruler's track record of 1:48 2-5 for a mile and one-eighth by only four-fifths of a second.

Peopes, a former steeplechase jockey, then pointed Troilus for the $100,000 Florida Derby. This time the young trainer prepped his Triple Crown candidate in the Fountain of Youth Stakes.

In the Florida Derby Troilus stumbled at the start but soon joined the leaders. Then he faded out of contention and finished last.

Chris Rogers will ride Troilus in the Kentucky Derby and he too is confident the colt will come back. Rogers keeps his whip busy on Troilus throughout a race because "he's strictly a loafer," explains Peopes.

Sharp believes Troilus may be the best horse he ever has had and he has been in racing for a long time. He rates him better than Hannibal, who cut the early pace in the 1952 Kentucky Derby but faded to eighth.

No such fate awaits Troilus, Sharp, Peopes and Rogers agree.

WINS ON WET TRACK

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (UPI)—Don Sessler of Lancaster, Ohio, won the fifth annual President's Cup sports car race Sunday in a Porsche RSK on a wet track at the Marlboro Speedway.

The competitive course record on the West course at Winged Foot Golf Club, Mamaroneck, N.Y., where the U.S. Open will be played June 11-13, is 65. It was made by Harold (Jug) McSpaden in the 1946 Palm Beach Road Robin.

The newest members of the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame are Walter Ward of Cleveland and George Young of Detroit. Ward has averaged 197 for 32 ABC tournaments while Young has a 201 average in 20 tournaments.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The mystery club of baseball as the major league pennant races get under way this week is the Cleveland Indians.

The Indians have the strength of a contender. Yet nobody knows how to rate them because they have so many "ifs."

And certainly not the least of these is "Trader Frank" Lane, the Tribe's general manager.

Pennants aren't won on the field but in the front office. Proof of this is the New York Yankees and their behind-the-scenes dictator, George Weiss. Even Manager

Casey Stengel admits the Yankees "have players in the minors who would make any other major league team."

The UPI Board of Baseball experts, picking the Indians for a fourth place finish, were completely stymied by the Tribe. Of the 50 voters, four picked the Indians for first, seven for second, eight each for third and fourth, 20 for fifth, two for sixth and one for seventh.

That in itself, an amazing range in the difference of opinion among qualified baseball observers, accentuates the enigma of the Indians this season.

To some of them it isn't a question of what the Indians have not but what they may have sooner or later under the aegis of the swap-happy Lane, one of baseball's most controversial figures.

You can say a lot of things about this sharply-dressed, glib-talking man but you can't say that he sits still. Nor that he ever is content with the usual losers' alibi that "we're waiting for our young players to mature."

TALKS TRADE ANYTIME

When he headed the White Sox, over a four-year period Lane was the busiest man in the baseball supermarket. In that time he made 154 trades, purchases or sales involving a total of 216 players. He'll still dicker with anyone at any time.

Afield, too, the Indians are a puzzling array in which the No. 1 question mark is Herb Score, the young fireballer whose career almost was ended two years ago by a line drive off Gil McDougald's bat. Since then, Score has done nothing of account. This spring his arm appeared in good shape, he pitched consistently and struck out hitters with all of his former effectiveness—but he also was hit hard.

His is the key to a pitching staff which is not too deep. The workhorses are Gary Bell, 12-10, Jim Grant, 10-11, and Cal McLish, 16-8, with high hopes for Dick Brodowski, 10-10 at San Diego.

A REAL PUZZLE

Vic Power at first is tabbed by Stengel as the American League's top first baseman and rated no worse than second to Mickey Mantle in the race for batting honors.

Shortstop Woody Held and second baseman Billy Martin spark a reliable middle with Randy Jackson, a question at third.

The outfield is one of baseball's best with Jim Piersall, obtained from Boston, Minnie Mingo and power-hitting Rocky Colavito, who hit 41 homers last season and seems about to "arrive." Tito Francona, obtained from Detroit, is good insurance, and Russ Nixon handles the catching capably.

This club, as the experts contend, could go all the way if the breaks come its way. Or it will, as others predict, finish deeper and deeper in the second division. Starting the season, what will happen to the Indians is a real puzzle.

And Lane, and what he will do when he starts wheeling and dealing, isn't the least of it.

Time Out

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sprint Races Setting Stage For Relays

United Press International

Two world record sprint races, one of which won't be submitted for official recognition because of too much wind, helped set the track and field stage today for the important Penn and Drake relays weekend.

Ray Norton of San Jose State, rapidly gaining stature as an Olympic hope for next year, equalled the world mark of 10.1 seconds for 100 meters in a triangular meet Saturday at San Jose, Calif., and he says he now feels he's "ready for my fastest races."

Bill Woodhouse, often unjustly overlooked as a teammate of Olympic champ Bobby Morrow at Abilene Christian College, eclipsed the world record for 100 yards at Abilene, Tex., Saturday by clocking 9.1 seconds.

However, Woodhouse's performance — which bettered the official mark of 9.3 seconds — won't be offered as a record because of an excessive tailwind.

Norton's 100 meter mark, however, will be submitted. The San Jose speedster already shares the 100 yard record.

The two sprint stars dominated a brilliant weekend of activity which also saw the University of Kansas hold sway in the Kansas Relays as it did in the Texas Relays two weeks ago. Dave Mills, star in the Ohio Relays at Columbus, Ohio, and Yale University take the team title in the Queenslona Relays in New York.

Top results in all these meets indicated the track and field brigade will be at its peak for the Penn Relays on Friday and Saturday in Philadelphia and the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Iowa, on the same days. The two carnivals annually share the cream of the nation's collegiate track crop and produce some of the best competition of the outdoor season.

WINS ON WET TRACK

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (UPI)—Don Sessler of Lancaster, Ohio, won the fifth annual President's Cup sports car race Sunday in a Porsche RSK on a wet track at the Marlboro Speedway.

The competitive course record on the West course at Winged Foot Golf Club, Mamaroneck, N.Y., where the U.S. Open will be played June 11-13, is 65. It was made by Harold (Jug) McSpaden in the 1946 Palm Beach Road Robin.

The newest members of the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame are Walter Ward of Cleveland and George Young of Detroit. Ward has averaged 197 for 32 ABC tournaments while Young has a 201 average in 20 tournaments.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The mystery club of baseball as the major league pennant races get under way this week is the Cleveland Indians.

The Indians have the strength of a contender. Yet nobody knows how to rate them because they have so many "ifs."

And certainly not the least of these is "Trader Frank" Lane, the Tribe's general manager.

Pennants aren't won on the field but in the front office. Proof of this is the New York Yankees and their behind-the-scenes dictator, George Weiss. Even Manager

Casey Stengel admits the Yankees "have players in the minors who would make any other major league team."

The UPI Board of Baseball experts, picking the Indians for a fourth place finish, were completely stymied by the Tribe. Of the 50 voters, four picked the Indians for first, seven for second, eight each for third and fourth, 20 for fifth, two for sixth and one for seventh.

That in itself, an amazing range in the difference of opinion among qualified baseball observers, accentuates the enigma of the Indians this season.

To some of them it isn't a question of what the Indians have not but what they may have sooner or later under the aegis of the swap-happy Lane, one of baseball's most controversial figures.

You can say a lot of things about this sharply-dressed, glib-talking man but you can't say that he sits still. Nor that he ever is content with the usual losers' alibi that "we're waiting for our young players to mature."

TALKS TRADE ANYTIME

When he headed the White Sox, over a four-year period Lane was the busiest man in the baseball supermarket. In that time he made 154 trades, purchases or sales involving a total of 216 players. He'll still dicker with anyone at any time.

Afield, too, the Indians are a puzzling array in which the No. 1 question mark is Herb Score, the young fireballer whose career almost was ended two years ago by a line drive off Gil McDougald's bat. Since then, Score has done nothing of account. This spring his arm appeared in good shape, he pitched consistently and struck out hitters with all of his former effectiveness—but he also was hit hard.

His is the key to a pitching staff which is not too deep. The workhorses are Gary Bell, 12-10, Jim Grant, 10-11, and Cal McLish, 16-8, with high hopes for Dick Brodowski, 10-10 at San Diego.

A REAL PUZZLE

Vic Power at first is tabbed by Stengel as the American League's top first baseman and rated no worse than second to Mickey Mantle in the race for batting honors.

Shortstop Woody Held and second baseman Billy Martin spark a reliable middle with Randy Jackson, a question at third.

The outfield is one of baseball's best with Jim Piersall, obtained from Boston, Minnie Mingo and power-hitting Rocky Colavito, who hit 41 homers last season and seems about to "arrive." Tito Francona, obtained from Detroit, is good insurance, and Russ Nixon handles the catching capably.

This club, as the experts contend, could go all the way if the breaks come its way. Or it will, as others predict, finish deeper and deeper in the second division. Starting the season, what will happen to the Indians is a real puzzle.

And Lane, and what he will do when he starts wheeling and dealing, isn't the least of it.

Time Out

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Sanford started off unimpressively Saturday, walking three Cards, throwing a wild pitch and hitting a batter as St. Louis got one run without a hit. Then he settled down and only two others reached first — Musial on a pinch single in the seventh and Joe Cunningham on an error in the third.

Major League Leaders

Major League Leaders

United Press International

National League

</