

MOMENT OF TRUTH — Action caught by H & N photographer Don Kettler in the eighth inning comeback of the Oregon Tech Owls 5-4 twelve inning victory over the powerful Southern Oregon Red Raiders Tuesday shows Raider catcher Jim McAbee ripping off his mask in preparation, he hopes to stop baserunner Gary Ehrmantrout. At the plate, OTI catcher Charlie Wilson starts for first after grounding to SOC hurler Dave D'Olive, not pictured. D'Olive, however, caught Ehrmantrout off third base.

A jubilant squad of Oregon Tech Owl baseball players swarmed over rightfielder Virg Winters as he rounded third base after blasting a towering triple into deep right center which scored the winning run in the twelve inning upset Owl 5-4 victory over the Southern Oregon Red Raiders in Gem Stadium Tuesday afternoon.

Winters, who collected two hits and drove in three runs in six times at bat, pushed teammate Gary Ehrmantrout across the plate with the big tally. Ehrmantrout, a star in his own right with two singles and two RBIs in four trips, got aboard the sacks via a free pass and scored from first base.

In the bottom of the ninth, Ehrmantrout, shortstop for the Owls, poked a timely single which scored Jim Cox with the run needed to send the game into extra-innings. The Owls, in an uphill struggle, overcame a 4-1 deficit which lasted from the second stanza until the middle of the eighth.

Credited with the victory for the Techmen, and promptly dubbed "Iron Man" by his mates, was pitcher Leroy Rausch, who traveled the distance for the Mile High club, allowing 13 hits, walking three and fanning only one. Rausch aided his own cause with a pair of pickoff plays that stalled threatening SOC base-runners. Behind him the Owls committed three miscues but made up for the wrongs with a pair of double plays.

The loser, ex-Pelican Dave D'Olive, entered the ball game in the eighth as relief for starter Tom Speelman who hogged the Owls in the first three stanzas with 16 straight pitches then faded, allowing three consecutive base-knocks in the fourth and loading the sacks in the eighth. Three of the Owl scores were charged to Speelman. In his relief role D'Olive gave up two hits, walked two and hit two Owl batters.

Joining Winters and Ehrmantrout in the eighth were starter Tom Speelman who hogged the Owls in the first three stanzas with 16 straight pitches then faded, allowing three consecutive base-knocks in the fourth and loading the sacks in the eighth. Three of the Owl scores were charged to Speelman. In his relief role D'Olive gave up two hits, walked two and hit two Owl batters.

The California Supreme Court, in a second ruling on suits to block transfer of 300 acres of land in Chavez Ravine to the Dodgers, held that the city did not violate public purpose restrictions in deeds to the land it negotiated to transfer to the baseball club.

Dodger president Walter F. O'Malley immediately expressed the hope that with "hustle" the club could get started on the 55,000-seat stadium in time to have it ready for opening day next year.

But O'Malley would not say if he intended to start work even while an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court is pending, although City Attorney Roger Arnebergh commented that so far as the state courts were concerned there was no legal bar to going ahead with the contract once the judgment was entered.

The East defeated the West, 113-104, in the first National Industrial Basketball League all star game in 1958.

trout in the two-hit category for the Owls were Jim Cox, third base, and Ron Downie, second sacker. The big bat for the Raiders was catcher Jim McAbee who collected three singles. Larry Maurer, who garnered a triple in the first inning scoring McAbee, added a single in the sixth and then scored himself as rightfielder Phil Sword blasted a double. Sword also collected a single and a sacrifice in five trips, accounting for two RBIs. Maurer notched one RBI and Speelman, who hit two for three, added the other.

The Owls, blanked in the first three frames, counted one in the fourth off a single by Ehrmantrout scoring Cox, then failed to mark the board until the eighth. Cox started the Owl comeback with a single, leftfielder Stan Glass walked, as did Ehrmantrout. Cox and Glass scored when Winters got his first hit off the slants of D'Olive.

Despite the fact that the Raiders garnered a hit in each of the last three stanzas and were granted three walks they couldn't bunch the action to count a run.

The next test for the Owls comes on the weekend when they host the OCE Wolves at Gem in a single test Friday afternoon followed by a twinbill on Saturday. All three games count in Oregon Collegiate Conference standings.

Cub Manager Bob Scheffing went to the mound. So did catcher Sam Taylor who had driven in the only run with a single in the second inning.

After a few gestures, Scheffing went back to the dugout. Taylor went back to catch. Hobbie pitched, Musial swung on a fast ball and bounced to the pitcher to end the game.

Had Scheffing told Hobbie how to pitch to Musial? "Heck no," said the Cub manager. "I've been in this league for 17 years and still don't know how to pitch to Musial. I just wanted to make sure Glen wasn't mad at himself."

As for Musial, who is experiencing a not unusual early season slump, it was the second time in the last three games that he had saved the Cardinals from becoming no-hit victims.

Against San Francisco last Saturday he came off the bench in the seventh to hit a pinch single and spoil Jack Sanford's bid for a no-hitter.

Did Musial have any feelings about breaking up two no-hitters within a few days?

"No," said the great veteran in a matter-of-fact tone. "A lot can happen in the last two innings."

Furillo Makes Demand Of Bums

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Outfielder Carl Furillo, one of the players most closely identified with past Dodger glory, demanded today he be allowed to play more regularly—or be traded to another club.

"I'm no good to the team on the bench or to myself," said Furillo, who has a .300 batting mark for 13 major league seasons. He hit .290 last year and led the club in runs batted in with 83, but has appeared in only five games this year.

KUHS Frosh Get Beaten By Panthers

The Chiloquin Panther track squad garnered nine first places and swept past the Klamath Union Frosh, 68½-48½, in a dual meet on Modoc Field Tuesday afternoon.

Little Ron Say with wins in the 75 and 150-yard dashes and Ron Hoggarth who was victorious in the 120-yard low hurdles and the shot put, paced the winners.

Other Panthers who were leaders in their events were Doug Van Warner in the 1320-yard dash, Wayne Brice in the broad jump, Mike Ochoa in the javelin and Lyle Hall in the discus.

One shining performance for the Frosh was turned in by Eric Peterson who raced to victory in the 660-yard dash in a sparkling time of 1:34.4 which broke the old Frosh record of 1:36.5 set last year by Greg Jones.

Peterson's teammate, Bob Dearing, also was under the old record in the same event, crossing the finish line in third place with a time of 1:36.0. Dearing also won the pole vault for the Frosh with a leap of 9 feet, 2 inches.

REJECTS BOXING BAN

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — A legislative committee has battered down a proposal to ban professional boxing in Connecticut. State Sen. Russell Boyce had requested the ban, calling boxing "legalized assault and battery and murder."

Boosters To Vote

All Pelican Boosters are specially urged to attend tonight's regular club meeting set for 6:30 in the Chuck Wagon Restaurant, according to club president Harry Molitor.

Of prime importance to the membership tonight is the report of the nominating committee which will be followed by the yearly election of officers.

Also on the agenda this evening are the final arrangements for the coming "K" Club banquet which will feature Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch as the guest of honor. The annual banquet is set for the KUHS cafeteria at 6:30 Monday, May 4.

Indian Warclubs Big Thunder; Bums, Demeter Push Braves

United Press International

Frank Lane does a lot of shouting for the Cleveland Indians but even he's drowned out by the thunder of the Tribe's booming offense.

And you'll have to excuse Manager Joe Gordon, the ex-Yankee great, if he's confused because nobody told him his Indians would remind him of the old "Murderer's Row" teams for which he played. For that's exactly what they're doing with seven victories in eight games and a whopping average of 6.5 runs scored per game.

Redskins 14, Tigers 1

The Indians piled up their biggest score of the season Tuesday night when they crushed the Detroit Tigers, 14-1, and retained a two-game grip on first place in the American League. Minnie Minoso paced the 16-hit assault by driving in six runs with two homers and three singles and Cal McLish pitched a steady six-hitter for his second straight win.

Mickey Mantle hit the 250th homer of his career as the Yankees whipped the Washington Senators, 11-4. The Kansas City Athletics beat the Chicago White Sox, 8-3, and the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Boston Red Sox, 5-2, in other AL activity. The Milwaukee Braves made it five wins in six decisions with a 7-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. Glen Hobbie pitched a one-hitter as the Chicago Cubs topped the St. Louis Cardinals, 1-0, and Don Demeter's three two-run homers gave the Los Angeles Dodgers an 11-inning 9-7 win over the San Francisco Giants in National League games. Cleveland 500 102 501-14 16 1 Detroit 000 000 010-1 6 2 McLish (2-0) and Nixon; Foytack, Davie (1), Susce (7), Burnside (7), Aguirre (9), Mossi (9) and Berberet, Brown (9). Loser—Foytack (0-1). HR—Minoso 2, Strickland, Power.

Yankees 11, Solons 4

Mantle hit a booming triple in addition to his first homer of the season, Hank Bauer homered and Bill Skowron walloped a two-run triple for the big blows in the Yankees' 16-hit attack. New York 202 103 030-11 18 0 Washington 010 003 000-4 8 1 Larsen, Maas (6) and Berra, Ramos, Kralick (3), Valentini (7), Griggs (9) and Fitzgerald. Winner—Larsen (2-0). Loser—Ramos (2-1). HR—Mantle, Bauer, Allison (2nd), Lemon.

KC 8, Chicago 3

Bob Grim pitched a four-hitter for the Athletics who dealt the White Sox their fourth loss in their last five games. Chicago 000 002 100-3 4 3 Kansas City 140 101 10x-8 9 1 Pierce, Shaw (3), Raymond (6), Staley (7) and S. Taylor, Grim (2-1) and House. Loser—Pierce (1-1). HR—Callison.

Orioles 5, BoSox 2

Batterymates Hoyt Wilhelm and Gus Triandos were the whole show for the Orioles. Wilhelm stopping the Red Sox on eight hits with his dazzling knucklers and Triandos driving in all five Baltimore runs with a grand slam and a solo homer. Baltimore 400 001 000-5 6 2 Boston 001 010 000-2 8 1 Wilhelm and Triandos. Glass, Casale, Moford (7) and Daley. Loser—Casale (1-1). HRs—Triandos, 2.

Braves 7, Reds 4

Warren Spahn chalked up the 248th victory of his career and beat the Reds for the 51st time despite a brilliant performance by rookie Vada Pinson who drove in all Cincinnati's runs with a homer, double and single. Hank Aaron raised his league-leading batting average to .367 with a triple, double and single. Cincinnati 002 100 100-4 11 0 Milwaukee 003 220 00x-7 11 0 Purkey, Acker (4), Cuellar (5), Schmidt (7) and Bailey, Spahn

KF Little Leagues Sound Call

The first call for 1959 Little League aspirants wishing to try out for teams from the Klamath Falls and Stewart-Leno area was sounded today by Klamath Falls Little League vice president Frank Rickey.

"The tryouts are for every boy, 9 through 12, in Klamath Falls and Stewart-Leno, who is not already on a team," explained Rickey. "Youngsters wishing to try out for positions on any of the six teams entered in the Klamath Falls Little League, Inc., are instructed to report to Conger Field at 1 p.m. on either, or both, Saturday, April 25 or Sunday, April 26. The only equipment necessary for the boys to bring to the tryouts is their own gloves.

Little League officials and coaches will be on hand to supervise the tryouts. Mrs. Jerry Cole, Little League secretary, will have a desk set up on the field to handle registrations of those turning out. Thursday and Friday editions of the Herald and News will contain a self-explanatory registration blank that should be clipped, filled out and presented to Mrs. Cole upon arrival at the field. The use of the blanks will facilitate registration, making it possible that every boy trying out will get the maximum time in which to display his talents.

Hall Of Fame Meeting Tonight

PORTLAND (AP) — Fifteen charter members of the Oregon Sports Hall of Fame—sponsored by the Oregon Journal—will be named at a banquet here tonight.

They have been selected by a screening committee from among 500 nominees in groups of five from three eras of sports. No one who has competed during the past five years is eligible.

All those to be named were born or raised in Oregon. Some, however, have won their honors outside the state.
